Bureau of Naval Personnel Information Bulletin ,1944 Bomber Command: Reflections of War, Volume 5 Martin W.

Bowman, 2013-07-10 This is the fifth release in a series that provides a comprehensive insight into all aspects of RAF Bomber Command in World War Two It begins in late September 1944 when the Allied Bomber Offensive was at its height and takes us through to the end of the conflict The crews personal narrative puts you at the centre of each intense isolated and harrowing episode of aerial combat as the pilots of Bomber Command attempted to stave off fears of tragic injury and death from fighters flak and incessant operational pressure during raids on German cities waterways ports and oil installations This continued until the Luftwaffe and the Nachtjagd effectively ceased to exist their fuel supplies exhausted their losses in airmen reaching an unsustainable level and their aircraft and airfields decimated as a result of 24 hour Allied bombing Often it was the most exciting feats of bravery determination and daring that were marked by the most catastrophic losses Approximately 62 per cent of the 125 000 men who served as aircrew in Bomber Command during the war became casualties Of these 52 per cent were sustained while flying operations and a further ten per cent while on non operational flights in Britain It should never be forgotten that RAF Bomber Command played a hugely significant role in securing victory for the Allies carrying out mass raids by day and night that eventually culminated in them beating the life out of Germany Yet its crews were denied the campaign medal that they so richly deserved until very recently Here Martin Bowman attempts to provide an adequate tribute to the men of Bomber Command using first hand accounts to capture an authentic commentary of the times at hand in a release that is sure to capture the imaginations of all aviation enthusiasts Army, Navy, Air Force Journal & Register ,1942 The Department of State Bulletin ,1952 The Defeat of Germany Winston Ramsey,2015-01-30 In January 1944 the headquarters of the Supreme Commander Allied Expeditionary Force was set up in London Although over 500 correspondents photographers and broadcasters had been accredited by the Public Relations Division to cover the invasion of France SHAEF also decided to issue its own daily communiqu s charting the progress of the battle and over the following months nearly 400 were released Alongside the measured text of the official communiqu s hundreds of photographs many complete with censor deletions taken by war photographers in France Belgium Holland Luxembourg and Germany are reproduced alongside then and now comparison photos taken by After the Battle Illustrating the battles by the western Allies to liberate western Europe we follow the fighting day by day beginning from D Day in Normandy until the final defeat of Nazi Germany in Berlin LIFE ,1942-03-16 LIFE Magazine is the treasured photographic magazine that chronicled the 20th Century It now lives on at LIFE com the largest most amazing collection of professional photography on the internet Users can browse search and view photos of today s people and events They have free access to share print and post images for personal use United States Army in World War II. ,1947 The Approach to the Philippines Robert Ross Smith,1953 Operations of Allied forces in the Southwest Pacific from April through October 1944 told generally at the level of the regimental combat team2the infantry regiment with its supporting artillery engineer tank medical and other units Bombing Pompeii Nigel Pollard,2020-11-18 Bombing Pompeii examines the circumstances under which over 160 Allied bombs hit the archaeological site of Pompeii in August and September 1943 and the wider significance of this event in the history of efforts to protect cultural heritage in conflict zones a broader issue which is still of great importance From detailed examinations of contemporary archival document Nigel Pollard shows that the bomb damage to ancient Pompeii was accidental and the bombs were aimed at road and rail routes close to the site in an urgent attempt to slow down the reinforcement and supply of German counter attacks that threatened to defeat the Allied landings in the Gulf of Salerno The book sets this event along with other instances of damage and risk to cultural heritage in Italy in the Second World War in the context of the development of the Allied Monuments Fine Arts and Archives the Monuments Men
