Book And The Sword A Life Of Learning In The Shadow Of Destruction:

Violence, Scripture, and Textual Practices in Early Judaism and Christianity Raanan Shaul Boustani, Alex P. Janssen, Calvin J. Roetzel, 2010 This volume analyzes the emergence of Jewish and Christian discourses of religious violence within their Roman imperial context with an emphasis on the shared textual practices through which authoritative scriptural traditions were redeployed to represent legitimate and indeed sacralize violence Life between Memory and Hope Zeev W.

Mankowitz, 2002-09-30 This is the remarkable story of the 250 000 Holocaust survivors who converged on the American Zone of Occupied Germany from 1945 to 1948 They envisaged themselves as the living bridge between destruction and rebirth the last remnants of a world destroyed and the active agents of its return to life Much of what has been written elsewhere looks at the Surviving Remnant through the eyes of others and thus has often failed to disclose the tragic complexity of their lives together with their remarkable political and social achievements Despite having lost everyone and everything they got on with their lives they married had children and worked for a better future They did not surrender to the deformities of suffering and managed to preserve their humanity intact Mankowitz uses largely inaccessible archival material to give a moving and sensitive account of this neglected area in the aftermath of the Holocaust Rabbis, Sorcerers, Kings, and Priests Jason Sion Mokhtarian, 2021-11-02 examines the impact of the Persian Zoroastrian Empire on rabbinic identity and authority as expressed in the Babylonian Talmud The Open Past: Subjectivity and Remembering in the Talmud

Sergey Dolgopolski, 2013 The Open Past challenges a view of time that has dominated philosophical thought for the past two centuries In that view time originates from a relationship to the future and the past can be only a fictitious beginning the necessary phantom of a starting point a chronological period of before This view of the past has permeated the study of the Talmud as well resulting in the application of modern philosophical categories such as the thinking subject subjectivity and temporality to the thinking displayed in the texts of the Talmud The book seeks to reclaim the originary power and authority the past exerts in the Talmud Central to the task of reclaiming a radical role for the past are medieval notions of the virtual and their contrasting modern appropriations the thinking subject among them These serve as both a bridging point and a demarcation between the practices of thinking and remembering displayed in the conversations held by the characters in the Talmud by contrast to other rhetorical or philosophical schools and disciplines of thought Judaism in the Roman World

Martin Goodman, 2007 These collected studies previously published in diverse places between 1990 and 2006 discuss important and controversial issues in the study of the development of Judaism in the Roman world from the first century C E to the fifth Signs of Salvation Mark Randall James, Randi Rashkover, 2021-03-30 Peter Ochs is one of today's most influential Jewish philosophers and the cofounder of the practice of Scriptural Reasoning Signs of Salvation A Festschrift for Peter Ochs celebrates Ochs' deep and wide ranging contributions to theology philosophy interreligious dialogue and conflict resolution studies The volume offers a rich and rigorous introduction to Peter Ochs' extensive body of work and his philosophy of scriptural pragmatism In addition it presents engaging essays by Ochs colleagues friends and former students who reflect on the impact his work has had on their academic field and their own thought Contributors raise questions about the task of philosophy and the nature of reasoning the appropriate function and limits of the Western academy the practice of Scriptural Reasoning and its significance for interreligious dialogue and the future of modern theology With contributions from Robert Gibbs Nicholas Adams Daniel Weiss Jim Fodor Jacob Goodson Emily Filler Rumi Ahmed Basit Koshul Nauman Faizi Rachel Muers Eliot Wolfson Steven Kepnes Shaul Magid Mike Highton Tom Greggs Susannah Ticciati Stanley Hauerwas

1999 Susan Sarah Cohen,2013-02-18 No detailed description available for 1999 Hyam Plutzik and the Mosaic of Time Victoria Aarons,Holli G. Levitsky,Hilene Flanzbaum,2025-09-30 This original collection of essays written by scholars and poets explores the life and work of Hyam Plutzik 1911 1962 whose poetry came to fruition at a time of cultural change set against the historical rupture of the Holocaust and World War II The chapters in this volume explore in depth the influence of both modernist poetics and American Jewish identity on Plutzik s richly figured poetry The son of Russian Jewish immigrants who arrived in the United States during the third great wave of Jewish immigration Plutzik s poetic milieu is inflected with the linguistic mosaic of his cultural inheritance With close focus on his most significant work the individual chapters bring to light complicated issues of Jewish American ethnicity and identity in twentieth century American cultural studies This collection speaks to the legacy of this poet whose work continues to have relevance for Jewish literary studies and poetics Life Amid the Principalities Michael Root,James J. Buckley,2016-09-15 We are not contending against flesh and blood but against the principalities against the powers against the world rulers of this present darkness Eph 6 12 So Paul warns his Ephesian readers And yet Paul also says that these principalities and powers were created in and for Christ Col 1 16 and cannot separate us from the love of God Rom 8 38 What are the principalities and powers of our time How do we understand them as created fallen and disarmed How does the Christian today engage these powers These are the questions speakers and participants addressed at the 2014 Center for Catholic and Evangelical Theology Index to Jewish Periodicals,1999 An author and subject index to selected and American Anglo Jewish journals of general and scholarly interests Popular Culture and the Shaping of Holocaust Memory in America Alan Mintz,2012-04-01 The Holocaust took place far from the United States and involved few Americans yet rather than receding this event has assumed a greater significance in the American consciousness with the passage of time As a window into the process whereby the Holocaust has been appropriated in American culture Hollywood movies are particularly luminous Popular Culture and the Shaping of Holocaust Memory in America examines reactions to three films Judgment at Nuremberg 1961 The Pawnbroker 1965 and Schindler s List 1992 and considers what those reactions reveal about the place of the Holocaust in the American mind and how those films have shaped the popular perception of the Holocaust It also considers the difference in the reception of the two earlier films when they first appeared in the 1960s and retrospective evaluations of them from closer to our own times

Alan Mintz also addresses the question of how Americans will shape the memory of the Holocaust in the future concluding with observations on the possibilities and limitations of what is emerging as the major resource for the shaping of Holocaust memory videotaped survivor testimony Popular Culture and the Shaping of Holocaust Memory in America examines some of the influences behind the broad and deep changes in American consciousness and the social forces that permitted the Holocaust to move from the margins to the center of American discourse Christian Wisdom David F. Ford, 2007-06-07 What is Christian wisdom for living in the twenty first century Where is it to be found How can it be learnt In the midst of diverse religions and worldviews and the demands and complexities of our world David Ford explores a Christian way of uniting love of wisdom with wisdom in love Core elements are the discernment of cries the love of God for God s sake interpretation of scripture and the shaping of desire in faith Case studies deal with inter faith wisdom among Jews Christians and Muslims universities as centres of wisdom as well as knowledge and know how and the challenge of learning disabilities Throughout there is an attempt to do justice to the premodern modern and postmodern while grappling with scripture tradition and the cries of the world today Ford opens up the rich resources of Christianity in engaging with the issues and urgencies of contemporary life The Holocaust David M. Crowe, 2021-12-30 Now in its second edition this book takes a fresh probing look at one of the greatest human tragedies in modern history Beginning with a detailed overview of the history of the Jews and their two millennia old struggle with the anti Judaic and anti Semitic prejudice and discrimination that set the stage for the Holocaust David M Crowe discusses the evolution of Nazi racial policies beginning with the development of Adolf Hitler s anti Semitic ideas their importance to the Nazi movement in the 1920s and 1930s and their expanding role in the evolution of German policies leading to the Final Solution in 1941 the mass murder of Jews throughout Nazi occupied Europe The German program involved the creation of death camps like Auschwitz and Treblinka and mass murder sites throughout Eastern Europe and the Soviet Union While the Jews were the principal victims other groups who were deemed racial or biological threats to Hitler s goal of creating an Aryan pure Europe were also targeted including the Roma and the handicapped This book discusses Nazi policies in each country in German occupied Europe as well as the role of Europe s neutrals in the larger German scheme of things It also takes an in depth look at liberation Displaced Persons the founding of Israel and efforts throughout the western world to bring Nazi war criminals and their collaborators to justice This second edition includes a new chapter on the importance of memory and the Holocaust the evolution of interpretative Holocaust scholarship and media recent controversies about national responsibility and the work of Holocaust museums archives and libraries in Israel Germany Poland and the United States to promote Holocaust education and memory It concludes with the rise of Neo Nazism white nationalism and other movements in Germany and the United States and their relationship to questions about Holocaust memory and its lessons Comprehensive and offering a detailed historical perspective this is the perfect resource for those looking to gain a deep understanding of this tragedy Humanity at the Limit Michael Alan

Signer, 2000 Five decades after the end of World War II issues relating to the history and meaning of the Holocaust far from fading from social consciousness have if anything intensified New generations probe the past and its implications for understanding human behavior As fresh information about the particularities of the Holocaust comes to light we know more and more about how these events happened but the deeper question of why remains unanswered In this compelling volume Jewish and Christian thinkers from Israel Germany and Eastern Europe as well as the United States and Canada among them scholars from the fields of history theology ethics genetics the arts and literature confront the legacy of the Holocaust and its continuing impact from the perspectives of their disciplines The issue of religion is central as the Vatican's 1998 statement We Remember Reflections on the Shoah prompts Jewish and Christian contributors to address issues of responsibility evil and justice within their concrete historical and social settings The essays in this important interfaith international and interdisciplinary volume will leave readers pondering the unavoidable question what in view of the crimes of the Holocaust is the nature of human nature Amazon.com

Catastrophe and Meaning Moishe Postone, Eric L. Santner, 2003-11-15 How should we understand the relation of the Holocaust to the broader historical processes of the century just ended How do we explain the bearing of the Holocaust on problems of representation memory memorialization and historical practice These are some of the questions explored by an esteemed group of scholars in Catastrophe and Meaning the most significant multiauthored book on the Holocaust in over a decade This collection features essays that consider the role of anti-Semitism in the recounting of the Holocaust the place of the catastrophe in the narrative of twentieth century history the questions of agency and victimhood that the Holocaust inspires the afterlife of trauma in literature written about the tragedy and the gaps in remembrance and comprehension that normal historical works fail to notice Contributors Omer Bartov Dan Diner Deborah Dwork Saul Friedlander Geoffrey Hartman Dominick LaCapra Paul Mendes-Flohr Anson Rabinbach Frank Trommler Shulamit Volkov Froma Zeitlin
