Movement in Tapestry Daniel Heyden, Francoise Heyden, 2017-07-01 In this posthumously published volume Movement in Tapestry Silvia's central theme of creating movement in modern abstract tapestry is explored in nearly ninety full page color photographs accompanied by her hand written quotes, explanations and diagrams. She chose these particular tapestries to engage the viewer in a dialogue about the essence of dynamic composition based on Bauhaus principles. Her focus on the textile tactile elements that distinguish weaving from painting arose from the process of working at the loom as opposed to attempting to weave a pre conceived image. This merging of art and craft led her to surprising new techniques that culminated in her feathered weave and allowed her to create rhythms and motifs in vibrant colors. After more than sixty years of weaving close to one and a half thousand tapestries she still felt as though she had only just begun to tap into the great potential she saw of a renaissance of this ars nova. What is so wonderful about weaving? For me it's the process of discovery that gives me tremendous joy. I hope my tapestries convey this joy to the viewer because in tapestry weaving the result leaves the process visible. One can read a tapestry the same way it was woven; all the visions and revisions, challenges, thrills are visible in the finished tapestry. Silvia Heyden

European Tapestries in the Art Institute of Chicago Koenraad Brosens, Art Institute of Chicago, Pascal-François Bertrand, 2008 This lavishly illustrated book presents a rich variety of European tapestries from the Art Institute of Chicago. These exquisite examples of the art of tapestry weaving include medieval, Renaissance and Baroque works manufactured at many of the foremost workshops in the major centers of production. Among the pieces discussed are The Annunciation, a Renaissance masterpiece designed by an artist in the circle of Andrea Mantegna; The Story of Caesar and Cleopatra, a magnificent series of fourteen tapestries now attributed with certainty to Justus van Egmont who worked in Rubens's studio; Autumn and Winter based on designs by Charles Le Brun; and The Elephant woven after a design by Jean Baptiste Monnoyer. An international team of scholars explains the history of this previously unpublished collection and offers new designer and workshop attributions, design and source identifications and provenance information.
