Book Unbound Editing And Reading Medieval Manuscripts And Texts:

The Book Unbound Siân Echard, Stephen Partridge, Stephen Bradford Partridge, 2004-01-01 Contemporaries of Erasmus contains biographical information about more than 1900 people mentioned in the correspondence and other writings of Erasmus This paperback edition is a reprint of the three volume set published between 1985 and 1987 The volumes have been combined into a single volume without any editorial changes to provide a manageable and affordable edition of a magisterial work The remarkable breadth of Erasmus contacts throughout his life is reflected in this unique volume Differing substantially from the national biographical dictionaries that restrict themselves to major figures Contemporaries of Erasmus combines the famous with the obscure popes and politicians artists and poets knights and theologians covering every individual mentioned whose death occurred after the year 1450 Well known figures include Martin Luther King Henry VIII Machiavelli Popes Nicholas V and Peter IV and Emperor Charles V Dipping into the pages of this fully illustrated volume will intrigue and delight the casual reader but the combined volume will also be an indispensable tool for those who have searched in vain for a biographical dictionary of the Renaissance and the Reformation New Canadian Library Janet Friskney, 2015-05-07 In the mid 1950s much Canadian literature was out of print making it relatively inaccessible to readers including those studying the subject in schools and universities When English professor Malcolm Ross approached Toronto publisher Jack McClelland in 1952 to propose a Canadian literary reprint series it was still the accepted wisdom among publishers that Canadian literature was of insufficient interest to the educational market to merit any great publishing risks Eventually convinced by Ross that a latent market for Canadian literary reprints did indeed exist McClelland Stewart launched the New Canadian Library NCL series in 1958 with Ross as its general editor In 2008 the NCL will celebrate a half century of publication In New Canadian Library Janet B Friskney takes the reader through the early history of the NCL series focusing on the period up to 1978 when Malcolm Ross retired as general editor A wealth of archival resources published reviews and the NCL volumes themselves are used to survey the working relationship between Ross and McClelland as well as the collaborative participation of those who through the middle decades of the twentieth century were committed to studying and nurturing Canada's literary heritage To place the New Canadian Library in its proper historical context Friskney examines the simultaneous development of Canadian literary studies as a legitimate area of research and teaching in academe and acknowledges the NCL as a milestone in Canadian publishing history Dominion and Agency Eli MacLaren, 2011-10-08 The 1867 Canadian confederation brought with it expectations of a national literature which a rising class of local printers hoped to supply Reforming copyright law in the imperial context proved impossible and Canada became a prime market for foreign publishers instead The subsequent development of the agency system of exclusive publisher importers became a defining feature of Canadian trade publishing for most of the twentieth century In Dominion and Agency Eli MacLaren analyses the struggle for copyright reform and the creation of a national literature using previously ignored archival sources such as the Board of Trade Papers at the National Archives of the United Kingdom A groundbreaking study Dominion and Agency is an important exploration of the legal and economic structures that were instrumental in the formation of today's Canadian literary culture Preserving on Paper Kristine Kowalchuk, 2017-06-19 Preserving on Paper is a critical edition of three seventeenth century receipt books handwritten manuals that included a combination of culinary recipes medical remedies and household tips which documented the work of women at home

Charlemagne in the Norse and Celtic Worlds Helen Fulton, Sif Rikhardsdottir, 2022 Captured here for the first time is the richness of the Charlemagne tradition in medieval Norway Sweden Denmark Iceland Wales and Ireland and its coherence as a series of adaptations of Old French chansons de geste Controlling Readers Deborah L. McGrady, 2012-12-01 Guillaume de Machaut 1300-1377 was the master poet of fourteenth century France He established models for much of the vernacular poetry written by subsequent generations and he was instrumental in institutionalizing the lay reader In particular his longest and most important work the Voir dit calls attention to the coexistence of public and private reading practices through its intensely hybrid form sixty three poems and ten songs invite an oral performance while forty six private prose letters as well as elaborate illustration and references to its own materiality promote a physical encounter with the book In Controlling Readers Deborah McGrady uses Machaut's corpus as a case study to explore the impact of lay literacy on the culture of late medieval Europe Arguing that Machaut and his bookmakers were responding to contemporary debates surrounding literacy McGrady first accounts for the formal invention of the lay reader in medieval art and literature then analyses Machaut and his bookmakers innovative use of both narrative and bibliographical devices to try to control the responses of his readers and promote intimate and sensual reading practices in place of the more common public performances of court culture McGrady's erudite and exhaustive study is key to understanding Machaut his works and his influence on the history of reading in the fourteenth century and beyond The Literary Legacy of the Macmillan Company of Canada Ruth Panofsky, 2012-01-30 Fifth Business and Alligator Pie Stephen Leacock Grey Owl and Morley Callaghan these treasured Canadian books and authors were all nurtured by the Macmillan Company of Canada one of the country's foremost twentieth century publishing houses The Literary Legacy of the Macmillan Company of Canada is a unique look at the contribution of publishers and editors to the formation of the Canadian literary canon Ruth Panofsky's study begins in 1905 with the establishment of Macmillan Canada as a branch plant to the company's London office While concentrating on the firm's original trade publishing which had considerable cultural influence Panofsky underscores the fundamental importance of educational titles to Macmillan's financial profile The Literary Legacy of the Macmillan Company of Canada also illuminates the key individuals including Hugh Eayrs John Gray and Hugh Kane whose personalities were as fascinating as those of the authors they published and whose achievements helped to advance modern literature in Canada The Bavarian Commentary and Ovid: Clm 4610, The Earliest Documented Commentary on the Metamorphoses Robin Wahlsten

Böckerman,2020-09-29 The Bavarian Commentary and Ovid is the first complete critical edition and translation of the earliest preserved commentary on Ovid's Metamorphoses Today Ovid's famous work is one of the touchstones of ancient literature but we have only a handful of scraps and quotations to show how the earliest medieval readers received and discussed the poems until the Munich Bayerische Staatsbibliothek clm 4610 This commentary which dates from around the year 1100 is the first systematic study of the Metamorphoses founding a tradition of scholarly study that extends to the present day Despite its significance this medieval commentary has never before been published or analysed as a whole Böckerman's groundbreaking work includes a critical edition of the entire manuscript together with a lucid English translation and a rigorous and stimulating introduction which sets the work in its historical geographical and linguistic contexts with precision and clarity while offering a rigorous analysis of its form and function The Bavarian Commentary and Ovid is essential reading for academics concerned with the reception of Ovid or that of other ancient authors It will also be of great interest for Classical scholars those investigating medieval commentaries and media history and for anyone intrigued to know more about how the work of Ovid has echoed through history Print Culture Histories Beyond the Metropolis James J. Connolly,Patrick Collier,Frank Felsenstein,Kenneth R. Hall,Robert Hall,2016-04-06 Bringing together leading scholars of literature history library studies and communications Print Culture Histories Beyond the Metropolis rejects the idea that print culture necessarily spreads outwards from capitals and cosmopolitan cities and focuses attention to how the residents of smaller cities provincial districts rural settings and colonial outposts have produced disseminated and read print materials Too often print media has been represented as an engine of metropolitan modernity Rather than being the passive recipients of print culture generated in city centres the inhabitants of provinces and colonies have acted independently as jobbing printers in provincial Britain black newspaper proprietors in the West Indies and library patrons in Middletown Indiana to mention a few examples This important new book gives us a sophisticated account of how printed materials circulated a more precise sense of their impact and a fuller of understanding of how local contexts shaped reading experiences Elizabethan Publishing and the Makings of Literary Culture Kirk Melnikoff,2018-01-01 Outlining the full range of practises that publishers performed including the acquisition of copy and titles compiling alteration to texts and reissuing Elizabethan Publishing and the Makings of Literary Culture considers links between the book trade and the literary culture of Elizabethan England
