John C. Smart, 2010-04-28 Published annually since 1985 the Handbook series provides a compendium of thorough and integrative literature reviews on a diverse array of topics of interest to the higher education scholarly and policy communities Each chapter provides a comprehensive review of research findings on a selected topic critiques the research literature in terms of its conceptual and methodological rigor and sets forth an agenda for future research intended to advance knowledge on the chosen topic The Handbook focuses on twelve general areas that encompass the salient dimensions of scholarly and policy inquiries undertaken in the international higher education community The series is fortunate to have attracted annual contributions from distinguished scholars throughout the world Research in Education ,1971-12

Moral Action in Young Adulthood Ralph L. Mosher, 1999 The connection between knowing the right or good thing to do and then actually doing it has long been a puzzle Watch what we do not what we say goes beyond the revealing admission of a former Attorney General of the United States to the broader reality of human behavior Parents teachers employers religious educators and society at large have a deep vested interest in understanding the relationship between and in knowing how better to educate

for consistency in moral knowledge and behavior The past twenty five years have seen much productive research on the development of moral reasoning Doing the right or good act now needs comparable study The unique contribution of this book is its exploratory study of the connection between moral thinking and action Research on this linkage is in its relative infancy A key aim is to begin to throw light on what factors intervene between a person's moral judgment and subsequent action Valuable although untested theoretical models have been put forward concerning this interaction they are used to guide the initial development of questions but not to the exclusion of focusing on the unique insights provided by the young adults as to the process and problems of living one's life morality This book begins with statements from the executive director John N Gardner and the President of the University of South Carolina John M Palms as well as a foreword by Ralph L Mosher Following the foreword this book contains four sections comprised of fourteen chapters Section 1 Origins and Results of the Original Sierra Project 1 Nevitt Sanford on Community and Concern with Moral Values in Higher Education Nevitt Sanford 2 The Aims of the Sierra Curriculum On Leaping Tall Buildings In A Single Bound Ralph L Mosher and 3 Character Development Over Four Years of Undergraduate Study John M Whiteley and Norma Yokota Section 2 Theoretical Underpinnings of the Sierrans Revisited Research 4 Young Adulthood in the Life Cycle 5 Doing the Right or Good Act Theories of Moral Action and 6 Further Theoretical Perspectives on Making Moral Choices Section 3 Narrative Insights into Moral Action in Young Adulthood 7 Moral Dilemmas from Young Adulthood 8 Moral Dilemmas in Interpersonal Relationships 9 Moral Dilemmas in the Workplace and 10 Exemplary Sierrans Moral Influences Section 4 Research Conclusions and Future Directions for Promoting Moral Action 11 Moral Dilemmas of Everyday Life Voices of the Sierrans 12 Exceptional Moral Behavior 13 Strength of Character and Moral Agency and 14 Toward Promoting Moral Action in Young Adulthood The following are appended 1 Moral Action Interview 2 Moral Behavior Interview and 3 The Moral Influence Interview Content and author indexes are included Individual chapters contain references

Resources in Education ,2001-04 Higher Expectations Derek Bok,2022-05-17 How our colleges and universities can respond to the changing hopes and needs of society In recent decades cognitive psychologists have cast new light on human development and given colleges new possibilities for helping students acquire skills and qualities that will enhance their lives and increase their contributions to society In this landmark book Derek Bok explores how colleges can reap the benefits of these discoveries and create a more robust undergraduate curriculum for the twenty first century Prior to this century most psychologists thought that creativity empathy resilience conscientiousness and most personality traits were largely fixed by early childhood What researchers have now discovered is that virtually all of these qualities continue to change through early adulthood and often well beyond Such findings suggest that educators may be able to do much more than was previously thought possible to teach students to develop these important characteristics and thereby enable them to flourish in later life How prepared are educators to cultivate these qualities of mind and behavior What do they need to learn to capitalize on the possibilities Will college faculties embrace these opportunities and make the necessary changes in their curricula and teaching methods What can be done to hasten the process of innovation and application In providing answers to these questions Bok identifies the hurdles to institutional change proposes sensible reforms and demonstrates how our colleges can help students lead more successful productive and meaningful lives College Student Affairs Journal Aaron Hughey, April Heiselt, 2014-01-01 Journal of College Student Development ,2000 How to Teach Morality Georg Lind, 2016-07-30 The book What is morality How can it be measured What is its nature and origin And most importantly how can it be taught These age old yet still unanswered questions cannot be addressed Lind argues unless we develop a new science of moral behavior and education Lind does just that in his book invoking related contributions by eminent philosophers psychologists and educators The first part presents a new way of studying morality and a great bulk of Lind s own research and other studies backing it The second part shows how to teach morality effectively with Lind s Konstanz Method of Dilemma Discussion KMDD which is used in all ages and across cultures On the basis of many years of practical international experience with the KMDD in different institutions of education professional schools armed forces and prisons Lind provides advice on how educators can learn implement and improve the method Lind also presents the related Just Community method of democratic community building The author Born shortly after World War II in 1947 Dr Georg Lind s interest in morality goes back to his adolescence when he learned about the atrocities of the Nazi dictatorship How can we prevent this from happening again How can we develop morality peace and democracy This book contains his answer Lind was professor of psychology and researcher at the University of Konstanz Germany He was guest professor at the University of Illinois at Chicago the Universidad de Monterrey and the Humboldt University at Berlin He lectured in Brazil Chile China Colombia Mexico Poland Switzerland and the United States

Books in Print ,1994 Educational Research Quarterly ,1989 Completing College

Vincent Tinto,2012-03-01 Even as the number of students attending college has more than doubled in the past forty years it is still the case that nearly half of all college students in the United States will not complete their degree within six years It is clear that much remains to be done toward improving student success For more than twenty years Vincent Tinto s pathbreaking book Leaving College has been recognized as the definitive resource on student retention in higher education Now with Completing College Tinto offers administrators a coherent framework with which to develop and implement programs to promote completion Deftly distilling an enormous amount of research Tinto identifies the essential conditions enabling students to succeed and continue on within institutions Especially during the early years he shows that students thrive in settings that pair high expectations for success with structured academic social and financial support provide frequent feedback and assessments of their performance and promote their active involvement with other students and faculty And while these conditions may be worked on and met at different institutional levels Tinto points to the classroom as the center of student education and life and therefore the primary target for institutional action Improving retention rates continues to be among the most widely studied fields in higher education and Completing College carefully synthesizes the latest research and most importantly translates it into practical steps that administrators can take to enhance student success
