Charles Olson And Frances Boldereff A Modern Correspondence:

Charles Olson and Frances Boldereff Charles Olson, Frances Boldereff, 1999-08-20 A remarkable series of letters between Black Mountain poet Charles Olson and his most ardent reader After Completion Charles Olson, 2014 Modern American poet Charles Olson had many correspondents over the years but Frances Boldereff a book designer and typographer James Joyce scholar and single working mother embodied a dynamic complexity of interlocutor muse Sybil lover critic and amanuensis After Completion The Later Letters of Charles Olson and Frances Boldereff continues from the point at which earlier letters collected in A Modern Correspondence Wesleyan University Press 1999 left off Spanning three years and more than three hundred letters that edition concludes with a crisis on Labor Day weekend 1950 that amounted to a completion of one of the major phases of their relationship After Completion picks up the correspondence post crisis and consists of nearly 150 letters written between 1950 and 1969 In this period of the correspondence we witness the intensity of the letters flare intermittently sometimes explosively as Olson and Boldereff try to maintain some continuity in their separateness In these later letters we also experience their magnificent mutual embracing of Arthur Rimbaud The correspondence taken as a whole presents a passionate relationship realized mostly in letters letters that were to become essential to Olson's working out of his poetics Boldereff's interventions which provoked Olson to articulate a projectivist poetics claims for Frances Boldereff an incalculable effect on twentieth century poetry The Cambridge Companion to Modern American Poetry Walter Kalaidjian, 2015-01-19 The Cambridge Companion to Modern American Poetry offers a critical overview of major and emerging American poets of the twentieth century Charles Olson and Alfred North Whitehead Shachar Bram, 2004 Annotation Through a detailed and thoughtful study of the impact of Alfred North Whitehead's philosophy on Olson's aesthetic theory this book points out the conceptual unity underlying what seems to be a sprawl of fragments in Olson's major work The Maximus Poems On the one hand concrete poetic units of The Maximus Poems serve as a starting point for clarifying how different elements are joined together in one unity On the other hand the book traces the blending of the whole poem at the macro level following its course through a temporal progress in which the poem moves from one poetic unit to the next that is from a unity of multiplicity to a new unity in which the previous unity is already part of the multiplicity building the new one Thus the book illuminates Olson's theory of the Long Poem as an all containing corpus governed by metaphysical principles equal to life itself enacted in the process of working on The Maximus Poems BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Charles Olson and American Modernism Mark Byers, 2018 Draws on the unpublished writings of Charles Olson and situates his work in the context of contemporary painting sculpture photography and music to tell the story of how American poets and artists reimagined art and literature for the post war world Writing Against Expulsion in the Post-War World David Herd, 2023-09-13 Writing Against Expulsion in the Post War World Making Space for the Human tells a pre history of the Hostile Environment The book's starting point is the rapidly escalating use of detention as a response to human movement and the global production of geopolitical non personhood in which detention results As a matter of urgency the book argues we need to understand what is at stake in such policies and to resist the world we are making when we detain and expel Writing Against Expulsion returns to a post war period when the brutal consequences of the politics of expulsion were visible and when it was clear to writers of all kinds that space for the human had to be made Drawing on contemporary histories of forced displacement eye witness accounts international legal documents and on a range of emblematic cross disciplinary texts and authors the Universal Declaration of Human Rights the political philosophy of Hannah Arendt the poetry of Charles Olson the revolutionary theory of Frantz Fanon the book shows how mid century writers both documented the lived experience of expulsion and asserted ways of thinking and acting by which expulsion could be prevented What emerged were new languages of rights and recognition new accounts of Moving Making and Speaking through which the exclusions of nation and border could be countered

Purple Passages Rachel Blau DuPlessis, 2012-03-15 What is patriarchal poetry How can it be both attractive and tempting and yet be so hegemonic that it is invisible How does it combine various mixes of masculinity femininity effeminacy and eroticism At once passionate and dispassionate Rachel Blau DuPlessis meticulously outlines key moments of choice and debate about masculinity among writers as disparate as Ezra Pound T S Eliot Louis Zukofsky Charles Olson Robert Creeley and Allen Ginsberg choices that construct consequential models for institutions of poetic practice As DuPlessis writes There are no genderless subjects in any relationship structuring literary culture not in production dissemination or reception not in objects discourses or practices not in reading experiences or in interpretations And as she reveals in careful and enthralling detail for the poets at the center of this book questions of masculinity loomed large and were continuously articulated in their self creation as writers in literary bonding and in its deployment These gender laden choices debates and contradictions all have a striking influence today In this empathic yet critical historical polemic DuPlessis reveals the outcomes of these many investments in the radical reconstruction of masculinity in their strains incompleteness tensions and failures At the heart of modernist maleness and poetic practices are contradictions and urgencies gender ideas both progressive and defensive In a striking book on male behavior in poetic dyads the third book in a feminist critical trilogy DuPlessis tracks the poetic debates and arguments about gender that continuously affirm patriarchal poetry

Radical Affections Miriam Nichols, 2010 In 1950 the poet Charles Olson published his influential essay Projective Verse in which he proposed a poetry of open field composition to replace traditional closed poetic forms with improvised forms that would reflect exactly the content of the poem The poets and poetry that have followed in the wake of the projectivist movement the Black Mountain group the New York School the San Francisco Renaissance and the Language poets have since been studied at length But more often than not they have been studied through the lens of continental theory with the effect that these high

A Long Essay on the Long Poem Rachel Blau DuPlessis, 2023-03-21 For decades

Rachel Blau DuPlessis has shown readers how genres forms and the literal acts of writing and reception can be understood as sites of struggle In her own words writing is a praxis in which the author disappears into a process into a community into discontinuities and into a desire for discovery It is cause for celebration then that we have another work of warm incisive expository writing from DuPlessis in A Long Essay on the Long Poem Fieldworks Lytle Shaw,2013-01-22 Fieldworks offers a historical account of the social rhetorical and material attempts to ground art and poetry in the physicality of a site Arguing that place oriented inquiries allowed poets and artists to develop new experimental models of historiography and ethnography Lytle Shaw draws out the shifting terms of this practice from World War II to the present through a series of illuminating case studies Beginning with the alternate national genealogies unearthed by William Carlos Williams in Paterson and Charles Olson in Gloucester Shaw demonstrates how subsequent poets sought to ground such inquiries in concrete social formations to in effect live the poetics of place Gary Snyder in his back to the land familial compound Kitkitdizze Amiri Baraka in a black nationalist community in Newark Robert Creeley and the poets of Bolinas California in the capacious now of their poet run town Turning to the work of Robert Smithson who called one of his essays an appendix to Paterson and who in turn has exerted a major influence on poets since the 1970s Shaw then traces the emergence of site specific art in relation both to the poetics of place and to the larger linguistic turn in the humanities considering poets including Clark Coolidge Bernadette Mayer and Lisa Robertson By putting the poetics of place into dialog with site specificity in art Shaw demonstrates how poets and artists became experimental explicators not just of concrete locations and their histories but of the discourses used to interpret sites more broadly It is this dual sense of fieldwork that organizes Shaw s groundbreaking history of site specific poetry The Graphics of Verse Daniel Matore,2024-01-04 Exploiting the expressive possibilities of print from spacing and indentation to alignment and typeface is one of the defining ways in which poetry was modernized in the twentieth century This book explores why British and American poets choose to experiment with the design and lay out of the printed page Guys Like Us Michael Davidson,2004 Guys Like Us considers how writers of the 1950s and 60s struggled to craft literature that countered the politics of consensus and anticommunist hysteria in America and how notions of masculinity figured in their effort Michael Davidson examines a wide range of postwar literature from the fiction of Jack Kerouac to the poetry of Gwendolyn Brooks Frank O Hara Elizabeth Bishop and Sylvia Plath He also explores the connection between masculinity and sexuality in films such as Chinatown and The Lady from Shanghai as well as television shows plays and magazines from the period What results is a virtuoso work that looks at American poetic and artistic innovation through the revealing lenses of gender and history The Cambridge Companion to American Poets Mark Richardson,2015-10-14 The Cambridge Companion to American Poets brings together thirty one essays on some fifty four American poets spanning nearly 400 years from Anne Bradstreet to contemporary performance poetry This book also examines such movements in American poetry as modernism the Harlem or New Negro Renaissance confessional poetry the

Black Mountain School the New York School the Beats and L A N G U A G E poetry Its reputable host of contributors approach American poetry from perspectives as diverse as the poetry itself The result is a Companion concise enough to be read with pleasure yet expansive enough to do justice to the many traditions American poets have modified inaugurated and made their own Minutes of the Charles Olson Society, 2001 Imagining Persons Robert J. Bertholf, Dale M. Smith, 2017-12-15 Robert Duncan's nine lectures on Charles Olson delivered intermittently from 1961 to 1983 explore the modernist literary background and influences of Olson's influential 1950 essay Projective Verse These transcribed talks pay tribute to Olson and expand our knowledge of Duncan's vision of modernist writing The Selected Letters of Robert Creeley Robert Creeley, 2014 Robert Creeley is one of the most celebrated and influential of the postwar American poets His Selected Letters covering the years 1945-2005 are a foundational document in the recent history of North American letters Through his engagements with mentors such as William Carlos Williams and Ezra Pound peers such as Charles Olson Robert Duncan Denise Levertov Allen Ginsberg and Jack Kerouac and mentees such as Charles Bernstein Anselm Berrigan Ed Dorn Susan Howe and Tom Raworth Creeley helped forge a new poetry that reimagined writing for his and subsequent generations A stylist of the highest order Creeley's letters carry the clear mark of consummate literary artistry and document the life work and times of one of our greatest writers The Anthology of Black Mountain College Poetry Blake Hobby, Alessandro Porco, Joseph Bathanti, 2025-02-18 Imagine Math 8 Michele Emmer, Marco Abate, 2022-09-07 This eighth volume of Imagine Math is different from all the previous ones The reason is very clear in the last two years the world changed and we still do not know what the world of tomorrow will look like Difficult to make predictions This volume has a subtitle Dreaming Venice Venice the dream city of dreams that miraculous image of a city on water that resisted for hundreds of years has become in the last two years truly unreachable Many things tie this book to the previous ones Once again this volume also starts like Imagine Math 7 with a homage to the Italian artist Mimmo Paladino who created exclusively for the Imagine Math 8 volume a new series of ten original and unique works of art dedicated to Piero della Francesca Many artists art historians designers and musicians are involved in the new book including Linda D Henderson and Marco Pierini Claudio Ambrosini and Davide Amodio Space also for comics and mathematics in a Disney key Many applications from Origami to mathematical models for world hunger Particular attention to classical and modern architecture with Tullia Iori As usual the topics are treated in a way that is rigorous but captivating detailed and full of evocations This is an all embracing look at the world of mathematics and culture American Pragmatism and Poetic Practice Kristen Case, 2011 Wittgenstein wrote that philosophy ought really to be written only as a form of poetry American poetry has long engaged questions about subject and object self and environment reality and imagination real and ideal that have dominated the Western philosophical tradition since the Enlightenment Kristen Case's book argues that American poets from Emerson to Susan Howe have responded to the central problems of Western philosophy by performing in language the continually shifting relation between mind and world Pragmatism recognizing the futility of philosophy's attempt to fix the mind world relation announces the insights that these poets enact Pursuing the flights of pragmatist thinking into poetry and poetics Case traces an epistemology that emerges from American writing including that of Emerson Marianne Moore William James and Charles Olson Here mind and world are understood as inseparable and the human being is regarded as in Thoreau's terms part and parcel of Nature Case presents a new picture of twentieth century American poetry that disrupts our sense of the schools and lineages of modern and postmodern poetics arguing that literary history is most accurately figured as a living field rather than a line This book will be of particular interest to scholars and students of pragmatism transcendentalism and twentieth century American poetry Kristen Case is Assistant Professor of English at the University of Maine at Farmington
