Armageddon Blues:

The Armageddon Blues Daniel Keys Moran, 1988-03 Jalian a silver eyed huntress from 700 years in the future travels back to the 20th century in an attempt to save her world from the ravages of nuclear destruction A stunning tour de force of love and adventure sweeping along a timeline of infinitely possible worlds New York Magazine ,1993-10-11 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea ARMAGEDDON's SONG 'CROSSING THE RUBICON' ANDY FARMAN, 2015-02-10 The European war is a long way from the fighting that is consuming the Pacific The ANZACs and the US 5TH Mechanised Division are too few in number to defend Australia s coastline Fear of China s nuclear arsenal has left the allies with limited friends and there is trouble at home in the West Now that war in Europe has reached its bloody end and the men came home to less than gratitude from the politicians In the Pacific all eyes are on the Spratly Islands as the Allies combat the Chinese 3rd and 6th Armies The aftermath in Europe may have left the US and the ANZACs standing alone or has it Soldiers have more honour than politicians at the end of the day A reckoning is coming New York Magazine ,1993-10-04 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Music From the Forest I Died in, Distant Drums of Silence Fred Van Oystaeyen, 2025-04-01 Music From the Forest I Died in Distant Drums of Silence is a collection of poems in which thoughts emotions and reflections are interwoven in a whirlwind of words and verses that captivate the reader accompanying and inviting him to personal reflection The collection is divided into two parts the first more traditional in its structure while the second is bolder both in its organisation and in the way the poet approaches the themes The entire collection in any case vibrates to the sound of the verses that compose it which somehow although dealing with different themes seem to be held together by a single thread what makes us human that is man s ability to adapt to life its changes and challenges without ever losing hope Fred Van Oystaeyen is a prolific mathematician having published over three hundred scientific papers and fifty books monographs and congress proceedings he also authored a novel Irritation of the Eye in Darkness and the science philosophy book Time Hybrids As a child he initiated the practice of writing short stories and poems frequently incorporating a humorous element or a philosophical concept Later in life he elevated this pastime to a more serious level occasionally sharing his work on social media but refraining from seeking publication He received several awards in mathematics including honorary professor in Beijing doctor honoris causa in Almeria Spain and the Free University of Brussels Belgium As a mathematical poet he aims to write poetry with some fundamental humanistic meaning creating hidden order in chaotic emotions and erratic processes in Life which flow into a vast delta of death but with some joy and fun New York Magazine
