Getting the message through: A Branch History of the U.S. Army Signal Corps Rebecca Robbins Raines, 1996 Getting the Message Through the companion volume to Rebecca Robbins Raines Signal Corps traces the evolution of the corps from the appointment of the first signal officer on the eve of the Civil War through its stages of growth and change to its service in Operation DESERT SHIELD DESERT STORM Raines highlights not only the increasingly specialized nature of warfare and the rise of sophisticated communications technology but also such diverse missions as weather reporting and military aviation Information dominance in the form of superior communications is considered to be sine qua non to modern warfare As Raines ably shows the Signal Corps once considered by some Army officers to be of little or no military value and the communications it provides have become integral to all aspects of military operations on modern digitized battlefields The volume is an invaluable reference source for anyone interested in the institutional history of the branch

Getting the Message Through: A Branch History of the U.S. Army Signal Corps (Paperback) Rebecca R. Raines, Center of Military History, 1996-06-19 CMH Pub 30 17 Army Historical Series Traces the history of the United States Signal Corps from its beginnings on the eve of the American Civil War through its participation in the Persian Gulf conflict during the early 1990s Shows today's signal soldiers where their branch has been and points the way to where it is going

Military Thought, 2011 Security Officers and Policing Mark Button, 2016-04-01 This volume examines how and to what extent security officers make use of legal tools The work identifies these tools and draws on two case study sites to illustrate how security officers make use of them as well as how they fit in broader security systems to secure compliance The study also examines the occupational culture of security officers and links them into the broader systems of security that operate to police nodes of governance The book provides insights for researchers and policy makers seeking to develop policy for the expanding private security industry

Screen Shots Rebecca L. Stein,2021-06-01 In the last two decades amid the global spread of smartphones state killings of civilians have increasingly been captured on the cameras of both bystanders and police Screen Shots studies this phenomenon from the vantage point of the Israeli occupation of Palestinian territories Here cameras have proliferated as political tools in the hands of a broad range of actors and institutions including Palestinian activists Israeli soldiers Jewish settlers and human rights workers All trained their lens on Israeli state violence propelled by a shared dream that advances in digital photography closer sharper faster would advance their respective political agendas Most would be let down Drawing on ethnographic work Rebecca L Stein chronicles Palestinian video activists seeking justice Israeli soldiers laboring to perfect the military s image and Zionist conspiracy theorists accusing Palestinians of playing dead Writing against techno optimism Stein investigates what camera dreams and disillusionment across these political divides reveal about the Israeli and Palestinian colonial present and the shifting terms of power and struggle in the smartphone age Scrutiny of arms export controls (2012) Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Business, Innovation and Skills Committee,2012-07-13 The Committees on Arms Export Controls CAEC believe that the Government should apply significantly more cautious judgements on the export of arms to authoritarian regimes which might be used for internal repression The Committees have scrutinised in unprecedented detail the Government s latest 2010 Annual Report on Strategic Export Controls HC 1402 session 2011 12 ISBN 9780102973662 the Government s quarterly information on individual export licence approvals and refusals and the Government s policies and performance on arms export controls and on arms control generally The Committees conclude that the Government s review of its policies and practices on arms exports following the Arab Spring should not have been carried out merely as an internal review and should instead have been the subject of public consultation in accordance with the Government s stated policy of transparency on arms exports And whilst the Government s introduction of a new licence suspension mechanism is welcome this is not sufficient to ensure that arms exported are not used for internal repression overseas because in many cases the arms will have left the UK before suspension occurs The Government should extend its arms export policy review from countries in the Middle East and North Africa to authoritarian regimes and countries of human rights concern worldwide Annex 7 of the report gives selected arms export licence approvals by the Government to countries of human rights concern and the report also contains details of the extant UK Government approved arms export licences to Argentina Bahrain Egypt Libya Saudi Arabia Syria Tunisia and Yemen
