Armenian Philology in the Modern Era, 2014-06-05 Philology is one of the most investigated fields of Armenian studies At the end of the twentieth century it was important to provide an overview of the main achievements and on the methodological approaches implemented in this field till now This is the aim of the present publication Part I focuses on the manuscripts the inscriptions and the printings Its second section is devoted to the textual criticisms and the third section explores the interface between linguistics and philology Case studies form the core of Part II One chapter offers an overview on the 17th 19th centuries and two articles are devoted to the conditions of the circulation of the literary production in the 20th century both in Western and Eastern Armenian

A Bibliography of Greek New Testament Manuscripts James Keith Elliott, 2015-03-20 This bibliography is a comprehensive listing of books facsimiles collations and articles relating to some 3 500 Greek New Testament manuscripts including references to photographic plates and albums These are divided into the conventional categories of papyri majuscles minuscules and lectionaries as classified in the current Gregory Aland register This third revised edition supersedes the two previous editions Entries from those earlier editions and from three supplements published as articles in Novum Testamentum as well as newly published material are to be found here The author is grateful for the help of editor Barbara Cangemi

The Text of the New Testament Bruce Manning Metzger, Bart D. Ehrman, 2005 This thoroughly revised edition of Bruce M Metzger's classic work is the most up to date manual available for the textual criticism of the New Testament The Text of the New Testament Fourth Edition has been invigorated by the addition of Bart D Ehrman author of numerous best selling books on the New Testament as a coauthor This revision brings the discussion of such important matters as the early Greek manuscripts and methods of textual criticism up to date integrating recent research findings and approaches into the body of the text as opposed to previous revisions which compiled new material and notes into appendices The authors also examine new areas of interest including the use of computers in the collection and evaluation of manuscript evidence and the effects that social and ideological influences had upon the work of scribes The standard text for courses in biblical studies and the history of Christianity since its first publication in 1964 The Text of the New Testament is poised to become a definitive resource for a whole new generation of students

Armenian Job Claude E. Cox, 2006 Armenian Job presents for the first time a critical edition of the Armenian translation of Job which was translated from a Lucianic Greek manuscript in the early 5th century and is therefore an important witness in the Septuagint tradition The Armenian text is accompanied by a retroverted Greek text and by an English translation of the Armenian based on the translation of Job in the New English Translation of the Septuagint The critical text is followed by a hundred pages of notes relating to issues of grammar textual criticism and the translator's technique in rendering the Greek into Armenian The book begins with a listing of the 138 Armenian manuscripts that contain Job and the procedure for selecting the nine witnesses used in the critical edition it ends with chapters devoted to the textual affiliations of the Armenian text Conclusion several appendixes and a bibliography In sum this book makes a major contribution both to Armenian studies and to biblical studies Armenian Job is the most extensive treatment of any biblical book in Armenian translation

Palimpsests and Related Phenomena across Languages and Cultures Jost Gippert, José Maksimczuk, Hasmik Sargsyan, 2024-12-02 Palimpsests are manuscripts whose original content has been erased scraped away washed off and later overwritten In their lower layers they often contain unique versions of texts including those otherwise lost from Antiquity and the Middle Ages The volume addresses palimpsesting across languages cultures and times as well as up to date research and imaging practices applied to them and results achieved in reconstituting removed layers

Acta Jutlandica Henning J. Lehmann, Joseph Johannes Sicco Weitenberg, 1993

The Letter of Love and Concord Zara Pogossian, 2010-12-20 The book presents a comprehensive analysis of the Letter of Love and Concord This revised diplomatic edition based on the study of sixty nine manuscripts explores its numerous written material oral and symbolic sources along with an English translation of this fascinating late 12th century Cilician Armenian text

A Syrian in Greek Dress R. B. ter Haar Romeny, 1997 The identification and publication of an ancient Armenian translation of Eusebius of Emesa's Commentary on Genesis 1980 and the edition of fragments of his work in the Greek Catena in Genesim have opened new perspectives for the study of this fourth century scholar and bishop of Syrian descent This book now brings together the evidence of the various branches of tradition of this work the oldest complete Antiochene commentary to survive The author concentrates on one of the most striking characteristics of Eusebius commentary its interest in translation problems and appeal to alternative readings Apart from the Septuagint the version commented on Eusebius quotes the Syrian ho Syros and the Hebrew ho Hebraios It has long been unclear what or who answered to these names The author proposes a new solution to this problem The first part of this study deals with the content and affiliations of all biblical quotations in the Commentary and with their place in Eusebius method of exegesis The author demonstrates that Eusebius referred to the Hebrew and Syriac texts in their original languages He had direct access to the Syriac text and is thus one of the oldest witnesses to the Peshitta version but used informants for his knowledge of the Hebrew text His approach in assessing the value of the different versions of the biblical text is contrasted with that of his predecessors Origen and Eusebius of Caesarea his contemporary Jerome and later Antiochene exegetes who followed or criticized him The second part gives the basis of the first it is a collection of all passages that cite alternative readings All texts are given in their original languages and in English translation A commentary deals with the textual tradition of each passage identifies the questions Eusebius wanted to solve by the use of alternative readings contrasts his handling of the text with that of others establishes his sources and studies the biblical quotations in detail

Greek Texts and Armenian Traditions Francesca Gazzano, Lara Pagani, Giusto Traina, 2016-08-22 An interdisciplinary approach crucial as it is in most fields of research proves itself to be unescapable in the study of interactions between the ancient Armenian and Greek worlds and literatures The volume arises from such an awareness and collects papers presented in a conference which has been organized in 2013 at the University of Genova thanks to a cooperation with the Universit Paris Sorbonne following in the footsteps of a tradition inaugurated by Giancarlo Bolognesi in the years 80 and 90 The subject is explored from many points of view the topic of Armenian translations of Greek texts with considerations of a methodological nature and the discussion of case studies aspects which pertain to the historical context and the historiographical sources the wide theme of the Armenian reception of Biblical Christian and Byzantine literature and finally philological linguistic and lexical problems The aim of this kind of research is to exploit the cooperation among classical philologists linguists and Armenologists in order to face the challenge of investigating a subject which requires many different competences

Eusebius of Emesa Robert E. Winn, 2011-10-24 Through a careful examination of his extant sermons some of which survive in Latin and others in classical Armenian this book invites readers to hear a bishop's voice from the mid fourth century an important period in late antique Christianity
