Arms And Armor Notable Acquisitions 1991 2002:

Arms and Armor Stuart W. Pyhrr, Morihiro Ogawa, 2002 A celebration of more than a decade of collecting by the Metropolitan Museum's Department of Arms and Armour since the reinstallation of its permanent galleries in 1991 Fifty eight of the most important recent acquisitions are featured in this volume A Cumulative Bibliography of Medieval Military History and Technology, Update 2004 Kelly DeVries, 2004-12-01 This is the first update of A Cumulative Bibliography of Medieval Military History and Technology which appeared in 2002 It is meant to do two things to present references to works on medieval military history and technology not included in the first volume and to present references to all books and articles published on medieval military history and technology from 2000 to 2002 These references are divided into the same categories as in the first volume and cover a chronological period of the same length from late antiquity to 1648 again in order to present a more complete picture of influences on and from the Middle Ages It also continues to cover the same geographical area as the first volume in essence Europe and the Middle East or again influences on and from this area The languages of these bibliographical references reflect this geography Warriors of the Himalayas Donald J. LaRocca, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 2006 The first in depth examination of the fascinating and virtually unknown of armor and weapons from Tibet dating from the 13th to the 20th century How to Read European Armor Donald J. La Rocca, 2017-08-15 Many of us have long been captivated by images of knights in shining armor evoking the age of chivalry and the ideals of Camelot In this richly illustrated volume the beauty and complexity of the actual armor worn by European knights and soldiers comes brilliantly to the fore p p1 margin 0 0px 0 0px 0 0px font 14 0px Verdana How to Read European Armor presents a compelling overview of armor in Europe from the Middle Ages through the seventeenth century the period when armor as an art form achieved its highest levels of stylistic beauty and functional perfection During that time skilled armorers developed ingenious solutions for protecting the body with armor that was effective and often amazingly ornate This volume features historically important examples of armor such as a suit made in the royal workshops of Greenwich England almost certainly for King Henry VIII himself a masterfully etched work created by a famed Nuremberg armorer for Emperor Ferdinand I and sumptuous armor for the warhorse of an Italian nobleman The engaging text extensively examines armor's complex parts and many decorative techniques and sets the lively historical context for how European armor thrived in the field of combat in tournaments and on ceremonial occasions A book for any reader drawn to the chivalric and courtly life of Europe How to Read European Armor highlights the many innovations of armorers who created these legendary marvels of art and technology Islamic Arms and Armor in The Metropolitan Museum of Art David G. Alexander, 2015-12-31 Armor and weaponry were central to Islamic culture not only as a means of conquest and the spread of the faith but also as symbols of status wealth and power The finest arms were made by master craftsmen working with the leading designers goldsmiths and jewelers whose work transformed utilitarian military equipment into courtly works of art This book reveals the diversity and artistic quality of one of the most important and encyclopedic collections of its kind in the West The Metropolitan Museum's holdings span ten centuries and include representative pieces from almost every Islamic culture from Spain to the Caucasus The collection includes rare early works among them the oldest documented Islamic sword and is rich in helmets and body armor decorated with calligraphy and arabesques that were worn in Iran and Anatolia in the late fifteenth century Other masterpieces include a jeweled short sword yatagan with a blade of watered steel that comes from the court of Sleyman the Magnificent a seventeenth century gold inlaid armor associated with Shah Jahan and two gold inlaid flintlock firearms belonging to the guard of Tipu Sultan of Mysore Presenting 126 objects each handsomely photographed and richly documented with a detailed description and discussion of its technical historical and artistic importance this overview of the Met's holdings is supplemented by an introductory essay on the formation of the collection and appendixes on iconography and on Turkman style armor

Publications of the Metropolitan Museum of Art, 1964-2005 Metropolitan Museum of Art, 2012-10-09 The present volume Publications of The Metropolitan Museum of Art 1964-2005 is a successor to a volume published by the Museum in 1965 entitled Publications of The Metropolitan Museum of Art 1870-1964 These two bibliographic volumes endeavor to list all the known books pamphlets and serial publications bearing the Museum's imprint and issued by the institution during the first 135 years of its existence through June 2005 The first volume was compiled by Albert Ten Eyck Gardner at the time an Associate Curator of American Paintings and Sculpture and the present volume has been compiled from the Annual Reports issued by the Museum during the relevant years Together the two volumes testify to the tremendous contributions made to knowledge by the curators and conservators of the Metropolitan and by the many other experts who have contributed to the Museum's exhibition catalogues Various issues of the Bulletin emphasize the great sweep of the Museum's acquisitions during these years and the exhibition catalogues a number of them Alfred H Barr Jr Award or the George Wittenborn Award testify to the continuity of the institution's dedicated program to enrich people's lives through knowledge of art This title was originally published in 2006
