Art and Enlightenment David Roberts, 2006-03-01 The crisis of tradition early in the twentieth century signaled by the collapse of perspective in painting and tonality in music and evident in the explosive ferment of the avant garde movements opened a new stage of modern art which aesthetic theory is still struggling to comprehend David Roberts situates the current aesthetic and cultural debates in a wider historical frame which extends from Hegel and the German Romantics to Lukács and Adorno Benjamin and Baudrillard Art and Enlightenment Aesthetic Theory after Adorno is the first detailed analysis in English of Theodor Adorno's seminal Philosophy of Modern Music which can be seen as a turning point between modern and postmodern art and theory Adorno's diagnosis of the crisis of modernist values points back to Hegel's thesis of the end of art and also forward to the postmodernist debate Thus the paradoxes of Adorno's negative aesthetics return to haunt the current discussion by representatives of the second generation of the Frankfurt School Anglo American Marxism and French poststructuralism Going beyond Adorno's dialectic of musical enlightenment Roberts proposes an alternative model of the enlightenment of art applied to literature and exemplified in the outline of a theory of parody In its critique of Adorno Art and Enlightenment clears the way for a reconsideration of twentieth century artistic theory and practice and also in offering a model of postmodern art seeks to disentangle critical issues in the discussion of the avant garde modernism and postmodernism

Adorno and Art J. Hellings, 2014-05-06 A comprehensive critical and accessible account of Theodor W Adorno's materialist dialectical aesthetic theory of art from a contemporary perspective this volume shows how Adorno's critical theory is awash with images crystallising thoughts to such a degree that it has every reason to be described as aesthetic

Art and Enlightenment David Roberts, 1991-01-01 The crisis of tradition early in the twentieth century signaled by the collapse of perspective in painting and tonality in music and evident in the explosive ferment of the avant garde movements opened a new stage of modern art which aesthetic theory is still struggling to comprehend David Roberts situates the current aesthetic and cultural debates in a wider historical frame which extends from Hegel and the German Romantics to Lukács and Adorno Benjamin and Baudrillard Art and Enlightenment Aesthetic Theory after Adorno is the first detailed analysis in English of Theodor Adorno's seminal Philosophy of Modern Music which can be seen as a turning point between modern and postmodern art and theory Adorno's diagnosis of the crisis of modernist values points back to Hegel's thesis of the end of art and also forward to the postmodernist debate Thus the paradoxes of Adorno's negative aesthetics return to haunt the current discussion by representatives of the second generation of the Frankfurt School Anglo American Marxism and French poststructuralism Going beyond Adorno's dialectic of musical enlightenment Roberts proposes an alternative model of the enlightenment of art applied to literature and exemplified in the outline of a theory of parody In its critique of Adorno Art and Enlightenment clears the way for a reconsideration of twentieth century artistic theory and practice and also in offering a model of postmodern art seeks to disentangle critical issues in the discussion of the avant garde modernism and

postmodernism      The Total Work of Art in European Modernism David Roberts, 2011-12-15 In this groundbreaking book David Roberts sets out to demonstrate the centrality of the total work of art to European modernism since the French Revolution The total work of art is usually understood as the intention to reunite the arts into the one integrated whole but it is also tied from the beginning to the desire to recover and renew the public function of art The synthesis of the arts in the service of social and cultural regeneration was a particularly German dream which made Wagner and Nietzsche the other center of aesthetic modernism alongside Baudelaire and Mallarmé The history and theory of the total work of art pose a whole series of questions not only to aesthetic modernism and its utopias but also to the whole epoch from the French Revolution to the totalitarian revolutions of the twentieth century The total work of art indicates the need to revisit key assumptions of modernism such as the foregrounding of the autonomy and separation of the arts at the expense of the countertendencies to the reunion of the arts and cuts across the neat equation of avant gardism with progress and deconstructs the familiar left right divide between revolution and reaction the modern and the antimodern Situated at the interface between art religion and politics the total work of art invites us to rethink the relationship between art and religion and art and politics in European modernism In a major departure from the existing literature David Roberts argues for twin lineages of the total work a French revolutionary and a German aesthetic which interrelate across the whole epoch of European modernism culminating in the aesthetic and political radicalism of the avant garde movements in response to the crisis of autonomous art and the accelerating political crisis of European societies from the 1890s forward      The Cambridge Companion to Adorno Tom Huhn, 2004-07-05 The great German philosopher and aesthetic theorist Theodor Wiesengrund Adorno 1903 1969 was one of the main philosophers of the first generation of the Frankfurt School of critical theory An accomplished musician Adorno first focused on the theory of culture and art Later he turned to the problem of the self defeating dialectic of modern reason and freedom In this collection of essays imbued with the most up to date research a distinguished roster of Adorno specialists explore the full range of his contributions to philosophy history music theory aesthetics and sociology      Critical Theory: The Basics Martin Shuster, 2024-05-27 Critical Theory The Basics brings clarity to a topic that is confusingly bandied about with various meanings today in popular and academic culture First defined by Max Horkheimer in the 1930s critical theory now extends far beyond its original German context around the Frankfurt School and the emergence of Nazism We now often speak of critical theories of race gender anti colonialism and so forth This book introduces especially the core program of the first generation of the Frankfurt School including Horkheimer Theodor W Adorno Erich Fromm and Herbert Marcuse and shows how this program remains crucial to understanding the problems ideologies and systems of the modern world including capitalism racism sexism and the enduring problems of colonialism It explores basic questions like What is critical theory What can critical theory be What should it be Why and how does critical theory remain vital to understanding the contemporary world including notions of self society politics art religion culture race gender and class

With suggestions for further reading this book is an ideal starting point for anyone seeking an accessible but robust introduction to the richness and complexity of this tradition and to its continuing importance today Adorno's Positive Dialectic Yvonne Sherratt, 2002-10-10 This book offers an interpretation of the work of Theodor Adorno In contrast to the conventional view that Adorno is in essence a critical philosophy Yvonne Sherratt traces systematically a utopian thesis that pervades all the major aspects of Adorno's thought She places Adorno's work in the context of German Idealist and later Marxist and Freudian traditions and then analyses his key works to show how the aesthetic epistemological psychological historical and sociological thought interconnect to form a utopian image The book will be eagerly sought out by students and specialists in philosophy social and political theory intellectual history literary theory and cultural studies The Semblance of Subjectivity Tom Huhn, Lambert Zuidervaat, 1997 The essays are organized around the twin themes of semblance and subjectivity Whereas the concept of semblance or illusion points to Adorno's links with Marx Nietzsche and Freud the concept of subjectivity recalls his lifelong struggle with a philosophy of consciousness stemming from Kant Hegel and Lukacs classical music jazz and pop avant garde and DIY musical cultures music festivals and isolated listening through the iPod rock in urban heritage and the piano in East Asia      Rethinking Imagination Gillian Robinson, John F. Rundell, 2016-01-28 Pulling together a collection of richly informative essays Rethinking Imagination addresses competing sets of ideas oscillating between the modern and post modern creativity and sublimity progress and apocalypse democracy and redemption Enlightenment and Romanticism and reason and imagination Aiming to thematise these debates from the perspective of the imagination Rethinking Imagination takes two directions The first addresses a socio cultural interpretation in which the distinguishing figures of modernity can be viewed as continuing differentiation and autonomization of spheres and systems that goes well beyond the divisions of labour The second is an ongoing philosophical discourse about the imagination and its relation to reason which has been present since Enlightenment Divided into two separate yet interconnected parts this book is a highly significant collection of essays and a valuable contribution to the field of philosophical and socio cultural sociology It is a key book for undergraduate postgraduate and academic researchers

Kangaroo Courts and the Rule of Law Desmond Manderson, 2012-07-26 Kangaroo Courts and the Rule of Law The Legacy of Modernism addresses the legacy of contemporary critiques of language for the concept of the rule of law Between those who care about the rule of law and those who are interested in contemporary legal theory there has been a dialogue of the deaf which cannot continue Starting from the position that contemporary critiques of linguistic meaning and legal certainty are too important to be dismissed Desmond Manderson takes up the political and intellectual challenge they pose Can the rule of law be re configured in light of the critical turn of the past several years in legal theory rather than being steadfastly opposed to it Pursuing a reflection upon the relationship between law and the humanities the book stages an encounter between the influential theoretical work of Jacques Derrida and Mikhail Bakhtin and D H Lawrence s strange and misunderstood novel Kangaroo 1923 At a critical juncture in our intellectual history the modernist movement at the end of the first world war and struggling with the same problems we are puzzling over today Lawrence articulated complex ideas about the nature of justice and the nature of literature Using Lawrence to clarify Derrida s writings on law as well as using Derrida and Bakhtin to clarify Lawrence s experience of literature Manderson makes a robust case for law and literature With this framework in mind he outlines a post positivist conception of the rule of law in which justice is imperfectly possible rather than perfectly impossible      Temptations of Faust Evelyn Cobley, 2002-01-01 A theoretical analysis of the conceptual paradigms that allowed German fascism at once continuous and discontinuous with the emancipatory ambitions of modernity to emerge in a highly civilized nation      From Hegel to Madonna Robert Miklitsch, 1998-01-01 Moves from the discourses of dialectical negation to cultural populist affirmation that is from Hegel to Madonna Studies in order to envision a mode of critique that can persuasively describe and explain the cultural contradictions of late capitalism      What Are Poets For? Gerald L Bruns, 2012-06 Conceptions and practices of poetry change not only from time to time and from place to place but also from poet to poet This has never been more the case than in recent years Gerald Bruns's magisterial What Are Poets For explores typographical experiments that distribute letters randomly across a printed page sound tracks made of vocal and buccal noises and holographic poems that recompose themselves as one travels through their digital space Bruns surveys one word poems found texts and book length assemblies of disconnected phrases he even includes descriptions of poems that no one could possibly write but which are no less interesting or no less poetic for all of that The purpose of the book is to illuminate this strange poetic landscape spotlighting and describing such oddities as they appear anomalies that most contemporary poetry criticism ignores Naturally this breadth raises numerous philosophical questions that Bruns also addresses for example whether poetry should be responsible semantically ethically politically to anything outside itself whether it can be reduced to categories distinctions and the rule of identity and whether a particular poem can seem odd or strange when everything is an anomaly Perhaps our task is simply to learn like anthropologists how to inhabit such an anarchic world The poets taken up for study are among the most important and innovative in the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries John Ashbery Charles Bernstein Paul Celan Kenneth Goldsmith Lyn Hejinian Susan Howe Karen Mac Cormack Steve McCaffery John Matthias J H Prynne and Tom Raworth What Are Poets For is nothing less than a lucid detailed study of some of the most intractable writings in contemporary poetry      Adorno and the Ends of Philosophy Andrew Bowie, 2013-10-07 Theodor Adorno's reputation as a cultural critic has been well established for some time but his status as a philosopher remains unclear In Adorno and the Ends of Philosophy Andrew Bowie seeks to establish what Adorno can contribute to philosophy today Adorno's published texts are notably difficult and have tended to hinder his reception by a broad philosophical audience His main influence as a philosopher when he was alive was though often based on his very lucid public lectures Drawing on these lectures both published and unpublished Bowie argues that important recent interpretations of Hegel and related developments in pragmatism echo key ideas in Adorno's thought At the same time Adorno's insistence that philosophy should make the Holocaust central to the assessment of modern rationality suggests ways in which these approaches should be complemented by his preparedness to confront some of the most disturbing aspects of modern history What emerges is a remarkably clear and engaging re interpretation of Adorno's thought as well as an illuminating and original review of the state of contemporary philosophy Adorno and the Ends of Philosophy will be indispensable to students of Adorno's work at all levels This compelling book is also set to ignite debate surrounding the reception of Adorno's philosophy and bring him into the mainstream of philosophical debate at a time when the divisions between analytical and European philosophy are increasingly breaking down      The Past As Future Jürgen

Habermas, 1994-01-01 Jürgen Habermas is one of the best known and most influential philosophers in Europe today Heir to the Frankfurt school his reputation rests on more than thirty years of groundbreaking works on society knowledge history technology ethics and many other subjects He is also a familiar figure in his native Germany where he has often played a prominent role in public debates In recent years he has spoken out ever more directly on the extraordinary changes taking place in Germany Europe and the world This volume of interviews reveals Habermas's passionate engagement with contemporary issues Wide ranging and informal the interviews focus on matters of decisive importance to Germany and the rest of the world in the 1990s German unification recent explosive debates about interpretations of German history Germany's asylum policies and the Nazi era efforts to create a cooperative peaceful Europe and the significance of the Persian Gulf War A final interview focuses on the relation between theory and practice between philosophy and the so called real world In an afterword to the volume Habermas addresses a broad spectrum of issues facing Germany and other nations in this final decade of the century Ably translated and annotated by Max Pensky professor of philosophy at the State University of New York Binghamton The Past as Future provides a striking portrait of an intellectual who is equally at home in the world of academic philosophy and in mainstream debate and who can make valuable connections between the two New

Perspectives on Music and Gesture Elaine King, Anthony Gritten, 2016-04-29 Building on the insights of the first volume on Music and Gesture Gritten and King Ashgate 2006 the rationale for this sequel volume is twofold first to clarify the way in which the subject is continuing to take shape by highlighting both central and developing trends as well as popular and less frequent areas of investigation second to provide alternative and complementary insights into the particular areas of the subject articulated in the first volume The thirteen chapters are structured in a broad narrative trajectory moving from theory to practice embracing Western and non Western practices real and virtual gestures live and recorded performances physical and acoustic gestures visual and auditory perception among other themes of topical interest The main areas of enquiry include psychobiology perception and cognition philosophy and semiotics conducting ensemble work and solo piano playing The volume is intended to promote and stimulate further research in Musical Gesture Studies Dialectic of

Romanticism Peter Murphy, David Roberts, 2005-10-01 Dialectic of Romanticism presents a radical new assessment of the aesthetic and philosophical history and future of modernity An exploration of the internal critique of modernism treats romanticism later historicism and post modernism as central to the development of European modernism alongside enlightenment and like the enlightenment subject to its own dead ends and fatalities An external critique of modernism recovers concepts of civilization and civic aesthetics which are trans historical simultaneously modern and classically inspired and provides a counter both to romantic historicism and enlightened models of progress Finally a retrospective critique of modernism analyses what happens to modernism's romantic archaic and technological futurist visions when they are translated from Europe to America Dialectic of Romanticism argues that out of the European dialectic of romanticism and enlightenment a new dialectic of modernity is emerging in the New World one which points beyond modernism and postmodernism Making Bodies, Making History Leslie A. Adelson, 1993-01-01 In West German literature in the 1970s and 1980s bodies functioned not as victims of history nor as allegories for the nation but as sites of contested identities Focusing on conflicts about identity in present day Germany and on literary texts in which the body is an aesthetic construct Leslie A Adelson reformulates questions of embodiment and historical agency questions that continue to haunt culture studies in general and German studies and women s studies in particular This interdisciplinary study of history race gender and nationality offers rich readings of three contemporary prose texts that challenge the suppositions of prevalent literary theory Anne Duden s bergang TORKAN s Tufan Brief an einen islamischen Bruder and Jeanette Lander s Ein Sommer in der Woche der Itke K Adelson s discussion of heterogeneous identities in contemporary German culture boldly explores accountability and innovation in historical process
