About Face Christopher L. Flanders, 2011-03-07 For Thais face is a fact writes Flanders However whether in theology evangelism or issues involving sin salvation or atonement Thai Christians and missionaries alike seem either uninterested in or possibly incapable of addressing issues related to face This glaring incongruity between the value of face for Thais and the lack of intentional engagement within the Thai Christian community is deeply troubling Surely such a lack of careful attention to face is a dangerous posture Uncritical views of face furtively attaching to the theology of the Thai church are potentially detrimental for its life and mission Such seems to be an unavoidable situation without proper attention to face Additionally to ignore face is to run the risk of missing valuable cultural resources implicit in the Thai experience of face for the critical task of authentic Thai theological reflection This lack of engagement with face raises critical issues with which we must wrestle How is it that such a central sociocultural issue has not been a more significant part of the Thai Christian vocabulary or experience How pervasive are these negative attitudes regarding face What lies behind them Might this lack of self conscious engagement with face have any relationship to the persistent Thai perception of Christianity as a foreign Western religion How should Christians understand this notion of face and how it relates to the ways we understand and proclaim the gospel
