Analysis and Applications Alberto Sanfeliu, José F. Martínez Trinidad, Jesús A. Carrasco Ochoa, 2004-10-15 First of all we want to congratulate two new research communities from Mexico and Brazil that have recently joined the Iberoamerican community and the International Association for Pattern Recognition We believe that the series of congresses that started as the Taller Iberoamericano de Reconocimiento de Patrones TIARP and later became the Iberoamerican Congress on Pattern Recognition CIARP has contributed to these group consolidation efforts We hope that in the near future all the Iberoamerican countries will have their own groups and associations to promote our areas of interest and that these congresses will serve as the forum for scientific research exchange sharing of expertise and new knowledge and establishing contacts that improve cooperation between research groups in pattern recognition and related areas CIARP 2004 9th Iberoamerican Congress on Pattern Recognition was the ninth in a series of pioneering congresses on pattern recognition in the Iberoamerican community As in the previous year CIARP 2004 also included worldwide participation It took place in Puebla Mexico The aim of the congress was to promote and disseminate ongoing research and mathematical methods for pattern recognition image analysis and applications in such diverse areas as computer vision robotics industry health entertainment space exploration telecommunications data mining document analysis and natural language processing and recognition to name a few

Content-Based Analysis of Digital Video Alan Hanjalic, 2007-05-08 Content Based Analysis Of Digital Video focuses on fundamental issues underlying the development of content access mechanisms for digital video It treats topics that are critical to successfully automating the video content extraction and retrieval processes and includes coverage of Video parsing Video content indexing and representation Affective video content analysis In this well illustrated book the author integrates related information currently scattered throughout the literature and combines it with new ideas into a unified theoretical approach to video content analysis The material also suggests ideas for future research Systems developers researchers and students working in the area of content based analysis and retrieval of video and multimedia in general will find this book invaluable Multilingual Information Access for Text, Speech and Images Paul Clough, Julio Gonzalo, Michael Kluck, Bernardo Magnini, 2005-08-25 The fifth campaign of the Cross Language Evaluation Forum CLEF for European languages was held from January to September 2004. Participation in the CLEF campaigns has increased each year and CLEF 2004 was no exception. 55 groups submitted results for one or more of the different tracks compared with 42 groups in the previous year. CLEF 2004 also marked a breaking point with respect to previous campaigns. The focus was no longer mainly concentrated on multilingual document retrieval as in previous years but was diversified to include different kinds of text retrieval across languages e.g. exact answers in the question answering track and retrieval on different kinds of media i.e. not just plain text but collections containing image and speech as well. In addition increasing attention was given to issues that regard system usability and user satisfaction with tasks to measure the effectiveness of interactive systems or system components being included in both the cross language question answering and image retrieval tasks with the collaboration of the coordinators of the interactive track. The campaign culminated in a two and a half day workshop held in Bath UK 15-17 September immediately following the 8th European Conference on Digital Libraries. The workshop was attended by nearly 100 researchers and system developers Electronics, Communications and Networks V Amir Hussain, 2016-06-28 This book comprises peer reviewed contributions presented at the 5th International Conference on Electronics Communications and Networks CECNet 2015 held in Shanghai China 12-15 December 2015. Reviews, Refinements and New Ideas in Face Recognition Peter Corcoran, 2011-07-27 As a baby one of our earliest stimuli is that of human faces We rapidly learn to identify characterize and eventually distinguish those who are near and dear to us We accept face recognition later as an everyday ability We realize the complexity of the underlying problem only when we attempt to duplicate this skill in a computer vision system This book is arranged around a number of clustered themes covering different aspects of face recognition The first section on Statistical Face Models and Classifiers presents reviews and refinements of some well known statistical models The next section presents two articles exploring the use of Infrared imaging techniques and is followed by few articles devoted to refinements of classical methods New approaches to improve the robustness of face analysis techniques are followed by two articles dealing with real time challenges in video sequences A final article explores human perceptual issues of face recognition Proceedings of the Indian National Science Academy Indian National Science Academy, 2001
