Aging In Culture And Society Comparative Viewpoints And Strategies:

Aging in Culture and Society Christine L. Fry, 1980 Describes the life and accomplishments of the former slave who became a scientist and devoted his career to helping the South improve its agriculture Culture And Psychopathology: A Guide To Clinical Assessment Wen-Shing Tseng, Jon Strelzer, 2013-06-17 published in 1997 Culture and Psychopathology A Guide To Clinical Assessment is a valuable contribution to the field of Psychiatry Clinical Psychology Annual Review of Gerontology and Geriatrics, Volume 13, 1993, 1993-10-22 During the past few decades the dramatic social changes with regard to our aging population and changes in the family unit have made both demographic and socioeconomic consequences as well as an effect on matters of social policy The prestigious editors George L Maddox and M Powell Lawton have assembled an impressive group of expert contributors whose chapters address topics from the latest theory and research findings to the changing balance of work and families as well as patterns of kinship Cross-cultural Communication and Aging in the United States Hana Noor Al-Deen, 2013-10-18 Recently the communication discipline has devoted increasing energy toward the study of aging yet most of the research has insufficiently addressed a crucial factor in communicative relationships culture Meanwhile cross cultural intercultural communication has not adequately addressed the aging process Combining three powerful elements communication aging and culture all of which have an increasingly profound impact on today's multicultural society this book focuses on older Americans in various communicative contexts within the framework of their cultures Composed of original research by experts in their respective fields the book combines communication aging and culture for a unique examination of those elements in American society Section 1 deals with perspectives in cross cultural communication and aging These perspectives both illustrate the issues that greatly affect the lives of our elders and suggest ways to improve their status Section 2 showcases three American co cultures Hawaiian Arab and Mormon illustrate how language attitudes and mentoring can serve as the links for maintaining cross generational continuity in multicultural society Section 3 demonstrates that many American organizations frequently contribute to the hardships that both internal elder customers employees and external elder customers residents and patients must endure Section 4 incorporates popular culture and aging It presents the role of selective popular media in portraying our elders Because Americans rely heavily on the media their mediated perceptions can have a profound impact on their attitudes toward the older population Designed as a reader or supplementary text for college students in communication gerontology anthropology sociology and other related fields this text can also be used by professionals in gerontological service areas by libraries and as a personal reference It offers extensive appendices figures and tables for additional reference Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), First multi year cumulation covers six years 1965 70 Routledge Library Editions: Women and Crime Various Authors, 2022-07-30 This set reissues five books on the subject of women and crime The titles which were originally published between 1930 and 1996 include a book of case studies of female criminals a comprehensive annotated bibliography on the social conflict and change of women in crime and essays which examine the construction of women in criminology This set will be of particular interest to students of both criminology and women s studies Old Age Haim Hazan,1994-04-28 Haim Hazan is a leading specialist on old age in anthropology and has published several books on particular communities of old people The latest book is an essay on the realities of old age as it is experienced as opposed to the ideas about the old current in western societies It argues that the construction of this world by outsiders is inevitably affected by deeply ingrained social attitudes and structures such as the spatial segregation of the aged as a population and the fear of death with which they are associated By approaching the subject from the social constructionist perspective and by drawing on a variety of detailed ethnographic accounts the author describes a unique and nuanced social world This is a sophisticated and original book which should have a significant impact on a field still dominated by a social problems approach Aging in World History David G. Troyansky,2015-10-05 In Aging in World History David G Troyansky presents the first global history of aging At a time when demographic aging has become a source of worldwide concern and more people are reaching an advanced age than ever before the history of old age helps us understand how we arrived at the treatment of aging in the modern world This concise volume expands that history beyond the West to show how attitudes toward aging the experiences of the aged and relevant demographic patterns have varied and coalesced over time and across the world From the ancient world to the present this book introduces students and general readers to the history of aging on two levels the experience of individual men and women and the transformation of populations With its attention to cultural traditions medicalization decades of historical scholarship and current gerontology Aging in World History is the perfect starting point for an exploration of this increasingly universal aspect of human experience Home and Identity in Late Life Graham D. Rowles,2005-09-01 Leading scholars offering international and multidisciplinary viewpoints examine the meaning of home to elders and the ways in which this meaning may be sustained threatened or modified according to changes associated with growing old Organized into four sections The Essence of Home Disruptions of Home Creating and Recreating Home and Community Perspectives on the Meaning of Home this volume explores topics including What makes a house a home What role does the meaning of home play in the process of relocation to another place of residence What is the relationship between a person s home life and cherished possessions such as symbolic jewelry or religious items in late life How does the community neighborhood environment influence the way that older people feel about the places in which they live Contributors include Hans Werner Wahl Robert L Rubinstein Edmund Sherman Carolyn Norris Baker and Rick Scheidt among others As a special feature this volume concludes with critical commentaries from three eminent scholars Amos Rapoport Kim Dovey and Marie Versperi This volume will be of interest to practitioners researchers upper level graduates graduate level students in gerontology environmental psychology social work and nursing It will be valuable to everyone in the helping professions who seek a deeper understanding of the ways in which being at home and attachment to place plays a key role in the life experience and well being of their clients as they grow older Other Cultures, Elder Years Ellen Rhoads Holmes, Lowell D. Holmes, 1995-05-24 Holmes and Holmes have revised their 1983 book and it remains a good supplement for an undergraduate gerontology course or anthropology course It is written at a readable level each chapter has a clear summary It provides an excellent summary of secondary sources avoiding extensive review of primary research complicated theory and methodological issues Clinical Gerontologist Hailed as extremely well organized balanced and impartial in its first edition by The Gerontologist Other Cultures Elder Years is once again available in a fully revamped second edition This new edition provides a comprehensive comparative viewpoint on our knowledge about worldwide patterns of aging It addresses everything from demographic patterns to family relations from perceptions of the life cycle to the impact of modernization on the aged Replete with summaries of crucial studies from various parts of the world Other Cultures Elder Years also offers three extended case descriptions of Inuit Samoan and white American aged as well as an examination of aging patterns among major American ethnic groups Among the other subjects the text addresses are cultural perspectives in health care the future of aging in America and creativity and the life cycle Other Cultures Elder Years is the key text available for use by anyone teaching courses on aging and culture I found the current book a significant improvement over the first edition It remains to be the only usable text in the anthropology of aging available I see the audiences for the book as instructors for the following courses Anthropology of Aging Sociology of Aging and general social gerontology courses I have used this book in past Anthropology of Aging courses and would do so again Jay Sokolovsky University of Maryland Baltimore County This book does a truly artful job of organizing and presenting the complex diversity of human experience related to aging and cultural influence This book offers an implicit biocultural laboratory to the reader the biologic universal of human aging is shaped by the prism of cultural influence The reader is guided through the evolutionary history of aging among anthropoid primates to hominids to Homo sapiens sapiens who are then examined from cultural perspectives found around the globe The effect is one of inquiry search synthesis and ultimately a confrontation with our inner selves as we negotiate the inexorable march toward our ultimate destiny J Neil Henderson Suncoast Gerontology Center University of South Florida Language and Communication in Old Age Heidi Ehernberger Hamilton, 1999 First published in 1999 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Care and Ageing in North-West China Heila Sha, 2017 This book presents a pioneering ethnographic exploration of practices and ideologies of eldercare in the bingtuan a paramilitary state organization composed largely of migrants most of them very poor to the north western frontier province of Xinjiang since the 1949 Communist Revolution In exploring the discourses and actions of the elderly their relatives and the state the book uncovers the ways in which macro level economic and social transformations are linked to the material and emotional realities of ordinary Chinese people The light shed on gender and inter generational relations within the modern urbanized bingtuan illuminates ageing care and social support mechanisms in an era of rapid social change globally Aging in Today's World Renée Rose

Shield, Stanley M. Aronson, 2005 Never before in human existence have the aged been so numerous and for the most part healthy In this important new book two professionals an anthropologist and a physician wrestle with the complex subject of aging Is it inevitable Is it a burden or gift What is successful aging Why are some people better at aging than others Where is aging located How does it vary among individuals within and between groups cultures societies and indeed over the centuries Reflecting on these and other questions the authors comment on the impact age has in their lives and work Two unique viewpoints are presented While medicine approaches aging with special attention given to the body its organs and its functions over time anthropology focuses on how the aged live within their cultural settings As this volume makes clear the two disciplines have a great deal to teach each other and in a spirited exchange the authors show how professional barriers can be surmounted In a novel approach each author explores a different aspect of aging in alternating chapters These chapters are in turn followed by a commentary by the other Further the authors interrupt each other within the chapters to raise questions contradict ask for clarification and explore related ideas with these interjections emphasizing the dynamic nature of their ideas about age Finally a third voice that of a random old man periodically inserts itself into the text to remind the authors of their necessarily limited understanding of the subject Elderly Chinese in Pacific Rim Countries Iris

Chi, Neena L. Chappell, James Lubben, 2001-04-01 With longer life expectancy most countries are now experiencing rapid ageing among their populations Ethnic Chinese populations are no exception to these demographic transformations During the twentieth century there has been a wide dispersion of Chinese people throughout the world as well as dramatic socio political changes within China These unique factors have strained traditional filial norms and necessitated a re examination of intergenerational relationships and the roles of elderly Chinese people This book investigates the varied adaptations of social support systems and social integration among ageing Chinese populations within a diverse set of countries in the Pacific Rim region The book is a collection of scholarly papers addressing such topics as community care family support one child families and social isolation Each paper illustrates the importance of social support networks and social integration to the quality of life for elderly Chinese persons living in dissimilar circumstances Dimensions Christine L. Fry, 1981

Routledge Handbook of Cultural Gerontology Julia Twigg, Wendy Martin, 2015-06-12 Later years are changing under the impact of demographic social and cultural shifts No longer confined to the sphere of social welfare they are now studied within a wider cultural framework that encompasses new experiences and new modes of being Drawing on influences from the arts and humanities and deploying diverse methodologies visual literary spatial and theoretical perspectives Cultural Gerontology has brought new aspects of later life into view This major new publication draws together these currents including Theory and Methods Embodiment Identities and Social Relationships Consumption and Leisure and Time and Space Based on specially commissioned chapters by leading international authors the Routledge Handbook of Cultural Gerontology will provide concise authoritative reviews of the key debates and themes shaping this exciting new field

Anthropology of Aging Marjorie M. Schweitzer, 1991-06-19 During the 1970s Comparative Cultural Gerontology or the Anthropology of Aging with its focus on aging from a cross cultural perspective attained the status of a new speciality in the field of anthropology It was only in the late 1960s to the mid 70s that elderly people and the process of aging became recognized as a bona fide research topic for anthropology Majorie M Schweitzer s Anthropology of Aging looks at aging from this cross cultural perspective and updates the Association for Anthropology and Gerontology s previously published Topical Bibliography and the Supplement to the Topical Bibliography on the Anthropology of Aging Schweitzer focuses on citations that represent anthropological perspectives and or cross cultural data with data from other disciplines included when warranted Besides a greatly expanded number of bibliographical references Schweitzer s work includes annotations for particularly important citations including those that address special issues such as method and theory as they relate to aging and those that provide the clearest treatment of a particular topic The topical outline of the 1982 volume has been retained with only minor additions and changes making the Bibliography both easy to use and a rich resource for researchers Over 40 international scholars in the field of aging have updated the various sections of the original bibliography Organized according to two kinds of topics subject topics such as Modernization and regional cultural group topics such as Great Britain American Indian the reference contains 14 chapters that investigate research on the subject from Africa to the Pacific Rim USSR USA Europe Israel and more Beginning with a chapter that zeroes in on general theoretical and comparative works the volume proceeds with chapters that examine demography biology and longevity medical aspects of aging non industrialized societies national cultures modernization and ethnic rural segments of the United States The last six chapters examine social structure community organization and age homogeneous residences urban aged social networks support systems women death and dying and methods The final chapter contains a list of additional bibliographies A must for most research libraries this comprehensive bibliography will be widely used by teachers students researchers social workers service providers and administrators from many different disciplines
