Agnes Martin The Nineties And Beyond:

Agnes Martin Rhea Anastas,2011 In contrast with most of her interviewers Agnes Martin more often claimed kinship with the Abstract Expressionists Mostly however she proposed an alternative lineage alongside the ancients Egyptians Greeks Copts and Chinese Agnes Martin Suzanne P. Hudson,2018-07-03 A close examination of Agnes Martin s grid painting in luminous blue and gold Agnes Martin s Night Sea 1963 is a large canvas of hand drawn rectangular grids painted in luminous blue and gold In this illustrated study Suzanne Hudson presents the painting as the work of an artist who was also a thinker poet and writer for whom self presentation was a necessary part of making her works public With Night Sea Hudson argues Martin 1912 2004 created a shimmering realization of control and loss that stands alone within her suite of classic grid paintings as an exemplary and exceptional achievement Hudson offers a close examination of Night Sea and its position within Martin s long and prolific career during which the artist destroyed many works as she sought forms of perfection within self imposed restrictions of color and line For Hudson Night Sea stands as the last of Martin s process based works before she turned from oil to acrylic and sought to express emotions of lightness and purity unburdened by evidence of human struggle Drawing from a range of archival records Hudson attempts to draw together the facts surrounding the work which were at times obfuscated by the artist s desire for privacy Critical responses of the time give a sense of the impact of the work and that which followed it Texts by peers including Lenore Tawney Donald Judd and Lucy Lippard are presented alongside interviews with a number of Martin s friends and keepers of estates such as the publisher Ronald Feldman and Kathleen Mangan of the Lenore Tawney archive which holds correspondence between Martin and Tawney Smile of the Buddha Jacquelynn Baas,2005 The relations between eastern and western cultures have long been a neglected topic and this careful and intelligent look at a small but significant part of those relations is most welcome Thomas McEvilley author of The Shape of Ancient Thought How wonderful that Jacquelynn Baas has seen the light of the Buddha s smile shining from faraway Asia into the realm of the art of modern times in what we think of as the West Her work reveals how some of our most influential artists explored and expressed the sophisticated perceptions and joyful energy emanating from the realm of Buddhist Asia Robert A F Thurman As a Buddhist scholar and artist I welcome this thoughtful and richly detailed study of how many aspects of Buddhism have stimulated invigorated and enriched Western arts over the past 150 years Stephen Addiss author of The Art of Zen A crucial contribution to modern art studies this high spirited text surveys Western artists awakened by the wisdom of the East from Monet and Duchamp to O Keeffe to Martin It is a thoughtful book about thoughtful artists their values and their visions with a lot to offer general readers and specialists alike Charles Stuckey Associate Professor of Art History at the School of the Art Institute of Chicago Doubt Richard Shiff,2012-04-23 In an age where art history s questions are now expected to receive answers Richard Shiff presents a challenging alternative In this essential new addition to James Elkins s series Theories of Modernism and Postmodernism in the Visual Arts Richard Shiff embraces doubt as a critical tool and asks how particular histories of art have come to be Shiff's turn to doubt is not a retreat to relativism but rather an insistence on clear thinking about art In particular Shiff takes issue with the style of self-referential art writing seemingly licensed by Roland Barthes With an introduction by Rosie Bennett Doubt is a study of the tension between practicing art and practicing criticism La Biennale Di Venezia: The experience of art, 2005 In Pursuit of Perfection Timothy Robert Rodgers, Marsha Bol, Lucy R. Lippard, 2004 Agnes Martin, Maria Martinez and Florence Pierce are noted for producing simple elegant and refined art that displays their quest for perfection In Pursuit of Perfection brings these three New Mexico artists together for the first time and demonstrates the remarkable quality of their art and the incredible patience skill and perseverance required for its creation In Pursuit of Perfection is the catalogue from the exhibition of the same name at the Museum of Fine Arts in Santa Fe which features over eighty pieces of pottery and paintings 3 X Abstraction: New Methods of Drawing Catherine de Zegher, 2005-06-11 An engaging look at three women artists pathbreaking exploration of abstraction Single Michael Cobb, 2012-07-02 A radical defense of a solitary life What single person hasn't suffered Everyone it seems must be or must want to be in a couple To exist outside of the couple is to assume an antisocial position that is ruthlessly discouraged because being in a couple is the way most people bind themselves to the social Singles might just be the single most reviled sexual minorities today Single Arguments for the Uncoupled offers a polemic account of this supremacy of the couple form and how that supremacy blocks our understanding of the single Michael Cobb reads the figurative language surrounding singleness as it traverses an eclectic set of literary cultural philosophical psychoanalytical and popular culture objects from Plato Freud Ralph Ellison Herman Melville Virginia Woolf Barack Obama Emily Dickinson Morrissey Georgia O'Keeffe and Hannah Arendt to the Bible Sex and the City Bridget Jones Diary Beyoncé's Single Ladies Put a Ring On It and HBO's Big Love Within these flights of fancy poetry fiction strange moments in film and video paintings made in the desert bits of song and memoirs of hiking in national parks Cobb offers an inspired eloquent rumination on the single which is guaranteed to spark conversation and consideration A Kind of Magic Sylvia Rüttimann, 2005 Illumination Karen Moss, 2009 A celebration of the careers of four extraordinary American women artists This is the first publication to bring together the work of these four important American women Modernists Lay Back the Darkness Edward Hirsch, 2008-12-18 Edward Hirsch's sixth collection is a descent into the darkness of middle age narrated with exacting tenderness He explores the boundaries of human fallibility both in candid personal poems such as the title piece a plea for his father a victim of Alzheimer's wandering the hallway at night and in his passionate encounters with classic poetic texts as when Dante's Inferno enters his bedroom When you read Canto Five aloud last night in your naked singsong fractured Italian my sweet compulsion my carnal appetite I suspected we shall never be forgiven for devouring each other body and soul From the lighting of a Yahrzeit candle to the drawings by the children of Terezin Hirsch longs for transcendence in art and in the troubled history of his faith In The Hades Sonnets the ravishing series that crowns the collection the poet awakens full of grief in his wife's arms but here as throughout there is a luminous forgiveness in his examination of our sorrows Taken together these poems offer a profound engagement with our need to capture what is passing and past in the incandescence of language

Fine Art and Perceptual Neuroscience

Paul Hackett, 2014-01-10 Over the past decade the integration of psychology and fine art has sparked growing academic interest among researchers of these disciplines The author both a psychologist and artist offers up a unique merger and perspective of these fields Through the production of fine art which is directly informed by neuroscientific and optical processes this volume aims to fill a gap in the literature and understanding of the creation and perception of the grid image created as a work of art The grid image is employed for reasons discussed in the text to illustrate more general processes associated with the integration of vision visual distortion and painting Existing at the intersection of perceptual neuroscience psychology fine art and art history this volume concerns the act of painting and the process of looking More specifically the book examines vision and the effects of visual impairment and how these can be interpreted through painting within a theoretical framework of visual neuroscience
