Agricultural Policy, Agribusiness, and Rent-seeking Behavior Andrew Schmitz,2010-01-01 The second edition of the groundbreaking Agricultural Policy Agribusiness and Rent Seeking Behaviour expands upon its original analysis of the economic policies that affect agriculture and agribusiness Widening their lens to include information on the European Union the authors continue to emphasize the role of farmers and agribusiness in the formation of policy exploring the issues from both economic and historical perspectives More theoretical than the first volume in its discussions of welfare economics and the theory of public choice the second edition also addresses the broad significance of agricultural policies such as biofuels nutrition multifunctionality genetically modified organisms and multinational firms The authors maintain and expand the empirical content to provide more practical examples suited to teaching and analyse specific problems including price and income stabilization science policy environmental policy and food quality and safety The International Yearbook of Environmental and Resource Economics 2004/2005 Thomas H. Tietenberg, Henk Folmer, 2005-01-01 The 2004 5 edition of this annual publication provides again a first rate compilation of various major topics in environmental and resource economics written by the leading specialists in the field The contributions are an exciting and inspiring resource for the development of further research and this book should be recommended to students and researchers in environmental and resource economics as well as social science Katrin Daedlow Environmental Politics As every year Tom Tietenberg and Henk Folmer have edited The International Yearbook of Environmental and Resource Economics This book and indeed the whole collection are tremendously useful as basic tools for professionals in research teaching and policy making Michel Griffon Quarterly Journal of International Agriculture This major annual publication provides a state of the art survey of contemporary research on environmental and resource economics by some of the leading experts in the field The critical issues addressed in this year s volume include contingent valuation environmental policy technological change and economic growth land use decisions and policy sustainability indicators value transfer and environmental policy joint implementation in climate change policy environmentally harmful subsidies Agriculture and Climate Beyond 2015 Floor Brouwer, Bruce A. McCarl, 2006-07-16 Interactions between agriculture climate and patterns of land use are complex Major changes in agriculture and land use patterns are foreseen in the next couple of decades in response to shifts in climate greenhouse gas management initiatives population growth and other forces The book explores key interactions between changes in agriculture patterns of land use and efforts to reduce greenhouse emissions from agriculture The volume is based on interdisciplinary science and policy interactions exploring the way land use may aid in addressing or be affected by the onset of climate change and alterations in food demand Future forces shaping land use decisions are examined and its sensitivity to climate change is highlighted Patterns of land use and the agricultural role in climate change mitigation are explored Also policy and social responses to the new perspectives on future land use patterns are identified The perspective of the book is beyond the year 2015 Agricultural Producer Support Estimates for Developing Countries Orden, David, Cheng, Fuzhi, Nguyen, Hoa, Grote, Ulrike, Thomas, Marcelle, Mullen, Kathleen, Sun, Dongsheng, 2007 By examining and comparing agricultural policies in India Indonesia China and Vietnam this study helps fill a significant gap in development research The report provides an assessment of conceptual and measurement issues related to the effects of trade and domestic support policies and policy reforms on the incentives of agricultural producers and presents empirical estimates of the degree of protection or disprotection in the four countries From India s countercyclical policy outcomes and Indonesia s high levels of agricultural protection to the trend toward modest support of agriculture in China and Vietnam the report's results demonstrate both how changes in agricultural policy can improve farmers incentives as economic growth occurs and how difficult it is to reform entrenched policy interventions Through such findings the report contributes to policy discussions on creating pro-poor policies related to agricultural support and trade both at the domestic level and in international negotiations
