Ah Q And Others:

Ah Q and Others Xun Lu, 1971 The Real Story of Ah-Q and Other Tales of China Xun Lu, 2009 The acclaimed translation of the complete fiction of the father of modern Chinese literature Lu Xun is one of the founding figures of modern Chinese literature In the early twentieth century as China came up against the realities of the modern world Lu Xun effected a shift in Chinese letters away from the ornate obsequious literature of the aristocrats to the plain expressive literature of the masses His celebrated short stories assemble a powerfully unsettling portrait of the superstition poverty and complacency that he perceived in late imperial China and in the revolutionary republic that toppled the last dynasty in 1911 This volume presents Lu Xun's complete fiction in bracing new translations and includes such famous works as The Real Story of Ah q Diary of a Madman and The Divorce Together they expose a contradictory legacy of cosmopolitan independence polemical fractiousness and anxious patriotism that continues to resonate in Chinese intellectual life today For more than seventy years Penguin has been the leading publisher of classic literature in the English speaking world With more than 1 700 titles Penguin Classics represents a global bookshelf of the best works throughout history and across genres and disciplines Readers trust the series to provide authoritative texts enhanced by introductions and notes by distinguished scholars and contemporary authors as well as up to date translations by award winning translators Ah Q and Others Lu Hsun, Xun Lu, 2002 In the course of his studies overseas the author attended a motion picture performance and saw the decapitation of a Chinese spy He resolved to establish a school of modern literature in China to give voice to these experiences Fifteen of the stories that Hsun published in New Youth were later collected and published as this volume Diary of a Madman and Other Stories Lu Xun, 2021-05-25 Here at last is an accurate and enjoyable rendering of Lu Xun's fiction in an American English idiom that masterfully captures the sardonic wit melancholy pathos and ironic vision of China's first truly modern writer Michael S Duke University of British Columbia The inventor of the modern Chinese short story Lu Xun is universally regarded as twentieth century China's greatest writer This long awaited volume presents new translations of all Lu Xun's stories including his first Remembrances of the Past written in classical Chinese These new renderings faithfully convey both the brilliant style and the pungent expression for which Lu Xun is famous Also included are a substantial introduction by the translator and sufficient annotation to make the stories fully accessible enabling readers approaching Lu Xun for the first time to appreciate why these stories occupy a permanent place not only in Chinese literature but in world literature as well

Ah Q Archaeology Paul B. Foster, 2006-04-03 Although Lu Xun was a leading intellectual and writer in twentieth century China and his representative character Ah Q hero of The True Story of Ah Q is considered an iconic repository of progressive Chinese thinking about the national character few works examine the major discourses in his thought and writing relative to broader historical and intellectual currents outside the context of his politicization Ah Q Archaeology however concretely situates Lu Xun's critique of national character vis a vis metanarratives of nationalism and modernity through a close examination of his works in their historical context Paul B Foster uses a discursive approach to tie together Lu Xun's major theme of national character critique and its fate in China's tumultuous twentieth century This book is an important and unique contribution to modern Chinese intellectual history and modern Chinese literature The Problematic of Self in Modern Chinese Literature Kirk A. Denton, 1998 Centered around the figures of Hu Feng a leftist literary theorist who promoted subjectivism and his disciple Lu Ling known for his psychological fiction this study explores theoretical and fictional responses to the problematic of self at the heart of the experience of modernity in 20th century China Madmen and Other Survivors Jeremy Tambling, 2007-02-01 Madmen and Other Survivors Reading Lu Xun's Fiction puts the short stories written by this outstanding Chinese writer between 1918 and 1926 into a broad context of Modernism The fiction of Lu Xun 1881-1936 deals with the China moving beyond the 1911 Revolution He asks about the possibilities of survival and what that means even considering the possibility that madness might be a strategy by which that is possible Such an idea calls identity into question and Lu Xun is read here as a writer for whom that is a wholly problematic concept The book makes use of critical and cultural theory to consider these short stories in the context of not only Chinese fiction but in terms of the art of the short story and in relation to literary modernism It attempts to put Lu Xun into as wide a perspective as possible for contemporary reading To make his work widely accessible he is treated here in English translation

Translingual Practice Lydia He Liu, 1995 After the first chapter which deals with the theoretical issues ensuing chapters treat particular instances of translingual practice such as national character individualism stylistic innovations first person narration and canon formation The Oxford Handbook of Global Modernisms Mark Wollaeger, Matt Eatough, 2013-10 The Oxford Handbook of Global Modernisms expands the scope of modernism beyond its traditional focus on English and Irish literature to explore the contributions of artists from countries and regions like the US Cuba Spain the Balkans China Japan India Vietnam and Nigeria The Exotic Other and Negotiation of Tibetan Self Kamila Hladíková, 2013-12-31 This study examines various representations of Tibet in Tibetan and Chinese fiction from the 1980s With its analysis of some of the first Tibetan short stories published approximately a decade after the end of the Cultural Revolution it greatly contributes to the scholarly research of the rise of modern Tibetan literature The image of Tibet that appears in the works of Tibetan authors is there compared with the Chinese representations of Tibet from the same period The analysis is informed by postcolonial theories of literature and is focused mainly on the stereotypes that appear in representation of Tibet both in China and in the west The primary aim of this study is to examine the influence of such stereotypes on Tibetan literary negotiations of their own newly reshaped identity Studie se zab v zobrazov n Tibetu v tibetsk a nsk literatu e o Tibetu z 80 let 20 stolet Prost ednictv m anal zy tibetsk ch pov dek vznikaj c ch v dob po te n ho formov n modern tibetsk literatury po skon en kulturn revoluce mapuje samotn vznik modern literatury v Tibetu Obraz Tibetu kter se objevuje v d lech tibetsk ch autor je zde srovn v n s vyobrazen m Tibetu v d le nsk ch autor tvo c ch ve stejn m obdob Anal za

Ideology, Power, Text Yi-tsi Mei Feuerwerker, 1998-10-01 The division between the scholar gentry class and the people was an enduring theme of the traditional Chinese agrarian bureaucratic state Twentieth century elites recast this as a division between intellectuals and peasants and made the confrontation between the writing intellectual self and the peasant other a central concern of literature The author argues that in the process they created the peasantry the downtrodden rural masses represented as proper objects of political action and shifting ideological agendas Throughout this transition language or discourse has been not only a weapon of struggle but the center of controversy and contention Because of this primacy of language the author's main approach is the close reading or rather re-reading of significant narrative fictions from four literary generations to demonstrate how historical ideological and cultural issues are absorbed articulated and debated within the text Three chapters each focus on one representative author The fiction of Lu Xun 1881-1936 which initiated the literary preoccupation with the victimized peasant is also about the identity crisis of the intellectual Zhao Shuli 1906-1970 upheld by the Communist Party as a model peasant writer tragically exemplifies in his career the inherent contradictions of such an assigned role In the post Mao era Gao Xiaosheng 1928 uses the ironic play of language to present a more ambiguous peasant while deflating intellectual pretensions The chapter on the last of the four generations examines several texts by Mo Yan 1956 Han Shaogong 1952 and Wang Anyi 1954 as examples of root searching fiction from the mid 1980s While reaching back into the past this fiction is paradoxically also experimental in technique the encounter with the peasant leads to questions about the self construction of the intellectual and the nature of narrative representation itself Throughout the focus is on texts in which some sort of representation or stand-in of the writer intellectual self is present as character as witness as center of consciousness or as first person or obtrusive narrator Each story catches the writer in a self-reflective mode the confrontation with the peasant other providing a theater for acting out varying dramas of identity power ideology political engagement and self representation
