blasted in Boston the notorious rap group 2 Live Crew is a monster success This book takes the wraps off the notorious rap group revealing the people behind the bad mouthed persona Black and white photos Experiments with Truth Hedley Twidle, 2019 Unusable pasts scandalous lives political betrayal confession and collaboration reading narrative non fiction across South Africa's unfinished transition Over the last decades South Africa has seen an outpouring of life writing and narrative non fiction Authors like Panashe Chigumadzi Jacob Dlamini Mark Gevisser Pumla Gobodo Madikizela Antjie Krog Sisonke Msimang Njabulo Ndebele Jonny Steinberg and Ivan Vladislavic have produced a compelling and often controversial body of work exploring the country's ongoing political and social transition with great ambition texture and risk Experiments with Truth is the first book length account of non fiction in South African literature It reads the country's transition as refracted through an array of documentary modes that are simultaneously refashioned and blurred into each other long form analytic journalism and reportage experiments in oral history microhistory and archival reconstruction life writing memoir and the essay It traces the strange and ethically complex process by which real people places and events are shuffled patterned and plotted in long form prose narrative While holding in mind the imperatives of testimony and witness so important to the struggle for liberation and the Truth and Reconciliation Commission the case studies here are increasingly drawn to a post TRC aesthetic works that engage with difficult inappropriate or unusable elements of the past and the unfinished project of social reconstruction in South Africa The author examines non fictions that are speculative formally innovative and sometimes experimental rather than informational or narrowly journalistic that explore difficult subjects like collaboration complicity confession and have embedded within them their own reflections on the problems of narrating within a scene of unresolved difference In this way southern African materials are placed in a global context and in dialogue with other important non fictional traditions that have emerged at moments of social rupture and transition Hedley Twidle is a writer teacher and researcher based in the English Department at the University of Cape Town He specialises in twentieth century southern African and world literatures as well as creative non fiction and the environmental humanities His essay collection Firepool Experiences in an Abnormal World was published in 2017 Life Narratives, Creativity, and the Social in the Americas Wilfried Raussert, Susana Rocha Teixeira, 2024-12-02 Resorting to life narratives as a comprehensive umbrella term and embracing hemispheric American studies paradigms this edited volume explores the interrelations between life narratives the social world creativity and different forms of media to narrate and re present the self to see in which way these expressions offer new means of self representation within cultural productions from the Americas Creativity in the context of life narratives nourishes the act of narrating and propels among others the desire to link individual life stories with larger stories of social embeddedness conditioning and transformation thus pushing new forms of historiography and other forms of nonfictional writing Accordingly the creative impulse fuses individual and collective experience with a larger understanding of the social including the latter's local and global embeddedness The contributions in this volume analyze the ways in which the dynamics tensions and reciprocities between narrative creativity and the social world unfold in life narratives from the Americas In particular this volume addresses scholars and students of life writing cultural and literary studies gender disability and postcolonial studies with new insights into life narratives from the Americas HIV/AIDS in Europe World Health Organization. Regional Office for Europe, 2006 Tells the story of HIV AIDS in Europe from a broad variety of perspectives bio medical social cultural economic and political The authors are leading experts from across the region and include both the infected and the affected be they doctors or former drug users United Nations employees or gay men public health researchers or community activists They describe how from the first documented cases in 1981 to the present era of antiretroviral management controlling the human immunodeficiency virus in Europe has provided elusive Mathematics for Social Justice: Resources for the College Classroom Gizem Karaali, Lily S. Khadjavi, 2019-07-09 Mathematics for Social Justice offers a collection of resources for mathematics faculty interested in incorporating questions of social justice into their classrooms The book begins with a series of essays from instructors experienced in integrating social justice themes into their pedagogy these essays contain political and pedagogical motivations as well as nuts and bolts teaching advice The heart of the book is a collection of fourteen classroom tested modules featuring ready to use activities and investigations for the college mathematics classroom The mathematical tools and techniques used are relevant to a wide variety of courses including college algebra math for the liberal arts calculus differential equations discrete mathematics geometry financial mathematics and combinatorics The social justice themes include human trafficking income inequality environmental justice gerrymandering voting methods and access to education The volume editors are leaders of the national movement to include social justice material into mathematics teaching Gizem Karaali is Associate Professor of Mathematics at Pomona College She is one of the founding editors of The Journal of Humanistic Mathematics and an associate editor for The Mathematical Intelligencer and Numeracy she also serves on the editorial board of the MAA's Carus Mathematical Monographs Lily Khadjavi is Associate Professor of Mathematics at Loyola Marymount University and is a past co chair of the Infinite Possibilities Conference She has served on the boards of Building Diversity in Science the Barbara Jordan Bayard Rustin Coalition and the Harvard Gender and Sexuality Caucus Deep into the Labyrinths in the Novels by Louise Welsh Eduardo García, 2016-01-14 Deep into the Labyrinths in the Novels by Louise Welsh is the first book to focus on the novels of Louise Welsh one of the most acclaimed and interesting narrative voices in contemporary Scottish Literature It explores the use of the image of the labyrinth as one of the sites for horror in classic Gothic literature and its rewriting into a contemporary gothic labyrinth in 21st century Scotland and by extension in the European context that co exists with various other queer and intertextual labyrinths that complement and complicate it This book analyses how Louise Welsh's novels present different labyrinths that characters traverse and get lost in and by the same process with which readers also become engaged In both cases characters and readers discover that the labyrinthine understanding of reality becomes more real than any other official version of reality Each chapter of the book explores particular examples of these labyrinths even though they are not linear they tend to intermingle and intertwine Health Fact, Health Fiction Robert L. Taylor,1990 AIDS Bibliography ,1991 Gay Male Fiction Since Stonewall Les Brookes,2008-09-22 Arguing that gay fiction is torn between assimilative and radical impulses this study focuses on fiction by White Holleran Leavitt Cunningham Hollinghurst Cooper Mars Jones and others positing the existence of two distinct strands of gay fiction where opposing impulses are at work within individual texts Queer Kinship in Sarah Schulman's AIDS Novels Jarosław Milewski,2024-02-29 Queer Kinship in Sarah Schulman s AIDS Novels is the first book to extensively discuss the works of Sarah Schulman a journalist activist and globally recognized novelist This research monograph juxtaposes the works about the AIDS epidemic which were well received by the mainstream America with Schulman s own output as a bard of AIDS burnout in the words of Edmund White In contrast with the prevailing representations of the epidemic her works emphasize the importance of queer kinship chosen families and AIDS activist groups that fall outside of the heteronorm Bearing witness to these voluntary collectivities means also surviving the traumatizing experience of ongoing repeated death and refusing the idea of an easy solution to the crisis The monograph tracks the tension between the dominant narratives about the epidemic and those articulated from the excluded positions arguing that Schulman reformulates queer kinship as the locus of social change Once Upon a Time in Facilities Management Patricia McCarroll,John Hassard,2024-09-23 What would the world of work look like if interpreted through the lens of the fairytale To answer this question Once Upon a Time in Facilities Management explores storied spaces and metaphorical archetypes in the study of business management and organization At its core the authors offer a diagnostic approach for the study of work organization that links management theory storytelling and the business imaginary An important empirical focus is also included that explores a business service rarely studied in the management literature Facilities Management FM a secondary service of non core and increasingly outsourced organizational functions An in depth appreciation of FM is provided that assesses the people practices and processes of the service in a study that also highlights the characteristic liminality of the sector s professional activities Emphasis is placed on illuminating the storytelling nature of the service using primarily the genre of fairytales to identify representational archetypes including queen shadow sage trickster adventurer and eternal child within FM s storied space In the process three central characters essentially modes of FM delivery are identified the professional consultant the external service provider and the in house function with these forming the structural basis of fairytales explaining the culture and symbolism of FM as a business service The authors conclude by extrapolating findings from the study to inform a discussion of the contributions of folkloric analysis to organization theory explicitly and our understanding of business and management practice more widely Exploring Novel Approaches to Eliminate HIV Reservoirs to Achieve a Cure for HIV Renee Marije Van Der Sluis,Matthew Parsons,Andrés Finzi,2021-04-07 Indexers and Indexes in Fact and Fiction Hazel K. Bell,2001-01-01 Bell examines the history of the index and the depiction of the indexer from diffident drudge to frankly insane in both fact and fiction A fascinating look at a previously little considered element of the book Worklife ,1988 Fiction and Truth in Transition Oscar Hemer,2012 What can fiction tell us about the world that journalism and science cannot This simple yet vast question is the starting point for an interrogation of the relationship between literary fiction and society s dramatic transformation in South Africa and Argentina over the past several decades The resulting discursive text borders on both journalism and literature incorporating reportage essay and memoir Series Freiburg Studies in Social Anthropology Vol 34
