Agriculture In The Uruguay Round:

Agriculture in the Uruguay Round R.C. Hine, K.A. Ingersent, A.J. Rayner, 1993-11-26 Agriculture was a major item on the agenda of the Uruguay Round of multilateral trade negotiations under the auspices of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade GATT launched in 1986 In this specially commissioned volume the national positions on agriculture taken up by the major players during the course of these negotiations are set out and analysed country by country by a team of internationally renowned experts The editors have selected and ordered the studies to provide a coherent assessment and synthesis of the main issues and areas of controversy raised by the negotiations Examination of the reasons for the holding of different national perspectives on the issue of agricultural policy and trade reform helps to explain why reaching international agreement in this area of the GATT negotiations has been so elusive The Uruguay Round of Multilateral Trade Negotiations United States. The Role of Justice in International Trade Negotiations* Michael Boehl,2017-01-30 Seminar paper from the year 2005 in the subject Politics Topic International Organisations grade 1 7 University of Tübingen Institut fuer Politikwissenschaft course International Relations Seminar language English abstract This essay s general interest is in whether international trade institutions comply with a sense of justice Concretely speaking it is to be analysed whether the outcome of a specific international trade negotiation namely the Uruguay Round which lasted from 1983 to 1994 is to be judged as just or unjust Fulfilling this task this essay at first displays a concept to define the very abstract term of justice The regarded definition will be mainly according to Cecilia Albin The second part of this essay provides a summary of main features of the Uruguay Round s final act the Agreement on Agriculture AoA and the Agreement on Trade Related Aspects of Intellectual Property Rights TRIPS Although other sections of the agreement are highly interesting too these two fields prove to be extraordinarily useful for this paper s purpose Nevertheless it is the my intention to point on other issues of interest for instance labour standards or the further development since 1994 in this essay where it seems helpful and possible The chapter summarizing the Uruguay Round s outcome is mainly based on World Trade Organisation WTO sources to insure that no subliminal judgement is included or at least none already supporting the view of the later discussed criticism The third section analyses the Uruguay Round s outcome concerning agriculture and intellectual property The criticism is derived from economic authors like Dasgupta and Sander Inotai and development orientated NGOs like OXFAM as well In most cases the analysis is critical of the agreement at the same time avoiding the word justice This gap shall be filled by the author s assessment of the criticism judging it and linking it explicitly to the question of justice At the end of the essay I want to draw a conclusion about justice in the Uruguay Round agreement also taking into consideration recent developments within the agreement of the WTO and referring to the question raised at the beginning of this introduction about ethics and morality in IR
