Ai Weiwei: Sunflower Seeds Juliet Bingham, 2013-09-05 Born in Beijing in 1957 Ai Weiwei is one of the most influential artists at work today and has exhibited widely in Asia, Europe and North America. He is the first artist living and working in the Asia Pacific region to be commissioned as part of The Unilever Series to create an artwork for the vast Turbine Hall at Tate Modern. Ai Weiwei has said liberty is about the right to question everything. His works in a wide range of media are characterized by social and political engagement and a constantly enquiring mind. Whether as an artist, curator, critic, designer or architect, he has played a key part in contemporary Chinese art and culture of the past two decades, not least through his collaboration with architects Herzog & de Meuron in designing the Bird's Nest stadium for the 2008 Beijing Olympics. This book provides important insights into the creative processes of this exciting and dynamic contemporary artist. The ebook includes two specially made films.

Ai Weiwei Speaks Hans Ulrich Obrist, 2011-05-26 If artists betray the social conscience and the basic principles of being human, where does art stand? Then Ai Weiwei, artist, architect, curator, publisher, poet and urbanist, extended the notion of art and is one of the world's most significant creative and cultural figures. In this series of interviews conducted over several years with the curator Hans Ulrich Obrist, he discusses the many dimensions of his artistic life, ranging over subjects including ceramics, blogging, nature philosophy and the myriad influences that have fed into his work. He also talks candidly about his father, his childhood spent in exile and his criticism of the Chinese state. Together, these extraordinary discussions give a unique insight into the outstanding complexity of Ai Weiwei's thought and work and are an essential reminder of the need for personal, political and artistic freedom.

Ai Weiwei: Spatial Matters Ai Weiwei, 2014-04-04 A richly illustrated exploration of Ai Weiwei's installation and architecture projects, focusing on the artist's use of space. Outspoken, provocative and prolific, the artist Ai Weiwei is an international phenomenon. In recent years, he has produced an astonishingly varied body of work while continuing his role as activist, provocateur and conscience of a nation. Ai Weiwei is under city arrest in Beijing after an 81-day imprisonment; he is accused of tax evasion, but many suspect he is being punished for his political activism, including his exposure of shoddy school building practices that led to the deaths of thousands of children in the 2008 Sichuan earthquake. In 2009, he was badly beaten by the police during his earthquake investigations. Ai Weiwei's work reflects his multiple artistic identities as conceptual artist, architect, filmmaker, designer, curator, writer and publisher. This monumental volume, developed in association with the artist, draws on the full breadth of Ai Weiwei's architectural, installation and activist work, with a focus on his use of space. It documents a huge range of international projects with drawings, plans and photographs of finished work. It also includes excerpts from Ai Weiwei's
