Foundations of Wisdom: Integrating Philosophical Thought and Educational Vision 2025 1.DR. SANGEETA SHROFF 2. DR. DIVYA SHARMA 3. DR. GOPA SHARMA 4. SMT. MANJUSHA TIWARI, PREFACE Education has always been more than the transmission of knowledge it is the shaping of minds the cultivation of character and the nurturing of wisdom In today's rapidly changing world where information is abundant yet understanding often fragmented the need to reconnect education with the timeless insights of philosophy has never been greater This book Foundations of Wisdom Integrating Philosophical Thought and Educational Vision emerges from that conviction The chapters in this volume are built upon the belief that philosophy is not confined to abstract thought but is a living force that can illuminate the paths of learning teaching and human growth By exploring diverse philosophical traditions and weaving them into contemporary educational practices this book seeks to bridge the gap between reflection and application It offers a vision of education that is holistic ethical and future oriented one that respects both reason and imagination discipline and creativity This work is intended not only for scholars and educators but also for learners policy makers and anyone who wishes to engage in the deeper questions of what it means to learn and to teach The ideas presented here encourage dialogue across disciplines and cultures fostering a sense of shared responsibility in shaping education that uplifts both the individual and society As you turn these pages may you discover that wisdom is not a static inheritance but an evolving foundation one that can guide us in creating educational systems rooted in purpose justice and human dignity Editors Dr Sangeeta Shroff Dr Divya Sharma Dr Gopa Sharma Smt Manjusha Tiwari Educational philosophy KHRITISH SWARGIARY, 2024-06-01 Gauhati University The Theory of Interrelation Shreyash Mendhe, 2022-08-19 What would you say and to whom if you were going to share your opinions and thoughts with everyone else The fascinating and motivating book Hollow Mind THE FALLING TEENAGE is built around this surprising and thought provoking query From the speaking series created to assist individuals in finding their truth and then saying it aloud THE THEORY OF INTERRELATION book was born Shreyash Mendhe explores what it means to find your truth and voice it in this book He first discusses why people should do this and then goes into great detail on how to achieve it because everything in the world is connected This book is for you if you think living more really may help you have a bigger influence on people or if you struggle to find the right words to express your truth as loudly as you know you need to Everyone and everything is interdependent linked and intertwined A NATURAL AND SOCIAL WEB OF LIFE which nourishes and maintains us is a part of us We are linked to nature and reliant on it for the necessities of life Additionally we have ties to our neighbourhood friends and family In many respects both we and those around us are dependent on one another Others need us and we need others Family and friends are important to us They experience both our joys and sorrows They are concerned for us and stand by us in times of need whether we are depressed hurt or unable to complete tasks on our own Friendship has always been valued as being crucial to human pleasure by wise people Without friends life is harder and less fun since we are on our own Therefore there is a connection between our pleasure and that of others We all experience more enjoyment when we help others When we help others it benefits ourselves as well Happiness for ourselves and others will result from thoughts words and deeds that arise from an understanding of our interconnectedness

Philosophy and Theory in Educational Research Amanda Fulford, Naomi Hodgson, 2016-06-10 Philosophy and Theory in Educational Research Writing in the margin explores the practices of reading and writing in educational philosophy and theory Showing that there is no right way to approach research in educational philosophy but illustrating its possibilities this text invites an engagement with philosophy as a possibility and opening possibilities for educational research Drawing on their own research and theoretical and philosophical sources the authors investigate the important issue of what it means to read and write when there is no prescribed structure Innovative in its contribution to the literature this edited volume enlightens readers in three ways The volume focuses on the practices of reading and writing that are central to research in educational philosophy suggesting that these practices constitute the research rather than simply reporting it It is not a prescriptive guide and should not be read procedurally Rather it is intended to illustrate the possibilities for this kind of research and to suggest starting points for those pursuing research projects Finally attention is given to the ways in which conducting educational philosophy can be educative in itself both to the researcher in writing it and to its audience in reading it With contributions from international scholars in the field of educational philosophy this book is a valuable guide for practitioner researchers taught postgraduate and doctoral students and early career researchers in university education departments Academic staff teaching research methods and seeking to introduce their students to philosophy as research without wishing to offer a prescriptive how to guide will also find this book of particular interest
