Air Force Academy Mark E. Gebicke,1994-10 Reviews treatment of women and minorities at the U S Air Force Academy Specifically the report addresses 1 differences in performance indicators between men and women and between whites and minorities 2 cadets perceptions of the fairness of the treatment that female and minority cadets receive and 3 actions the Academy has taken to enhance the success of women and minorities at the Academy 20 charts and tables Air Force Academy United States Government Accountability Office (GAO),2018-02-15 NSIAD 93 244 Air Force Academy Gender and Racial Disparities Air Force Academy United States. General Accounting Office,1993 This study evaluated the situation of women and minorities at the Air Force Academy addressing differences in performance indicators cadets perceptions and Academy actions to enhance the success of women and minorities Performance indicators for male and female cadets showed mixed results Minority cadets had comparable physical fitness scores lower academic admissions scores lower academic grade point averages and lower military performance averages than white cadets Minorities were also subjected to more academic and honor reviews than whites Minority cadets had higher attrition rates A survey of cadets revealed perceptions that women and minorities generally received treatment equal to that of men and whites However a higher percentage of men than women perceived that women were treated better and a slightly higher percentage of women than men perceived that they were treated worse The study concluded that although the Academy has taken a number of steps that should help women and minorities succeed at the Academy it does not have a consolidated data base to analyze changes in student performance indicators and has not established criteria for determining when performance differences are significant Appendixes contain the Academy s review systems methodology information analysis of data and list of contributors to the report Author JB Gender and Racial Disparities at the Air Force Academy BPI Information Services,1994-01-01 Reviews treatment of women and minorities at the U S A F Academy Specifically the report addresses 1 differences in performance indicators between men and women and between whites and minorities 2 cadets perceptions of the fairness of the treatment that female and minority cadets receive 3 actions the Academy has taken to enhance the success of women and minorities at the Academy Allegations of Sexual Assault at the U.S. Air Force Academy United States.
