The New Monthly Magazine, 1856 Frances Burney, Dramatist Barbara Darby, 2014-10-17 The position Frances Burney 1752-1840 holds as a novelist journalist and letterwriter is now undisputed thanks to reevaluations of the canon in recent years Yet Burney was always intrigued by and wrote for the stage Though only one of Burney's dramas was performed in her lifetime Barbara Darby places the plays in the context of performance and feminist theory challenging past assertions about Burney that were based entirely on her novels and journals Darby maintains that in exposing the failure of such practices and institutions as courtship marriage family government and the church Burney's dramas often exceed her novels in the depth of their social commentary In her four comedies and four tragedies Burney uses stage space dialogue blocking and gesture to highlight the ways power is distributed among society's members According to Darby these plays show that the eighteenth century female experience was dominated by physical psychic and emotional regulation that included bodily punishment and the limitation of personal choice Placing Burney alongside other prominent female playwrights of the period Darby brings to light a substantial body of work revealing that Burney's drama was not a casual sideline to her novel writing Frances Burney Dramatist expands our appreciation of the extent to which eighteenth century women playwrights used the stage as a forum The Street Of Crocodiles Bruno Schulz, 2014-03-13 Complicity not only open our eyes to Bruno Schulz

but turn his densely impressionistic stories into a piece of vividly imaginative theatre Michael Billington Guardian The Street of Crocodiles is inspired by the life and stories of Polish writer Bruno Schulz 1892 1942 Originally co produced by Theatre de Complicité and the Royal National Theatre it opened at the Cottesloe in 1992 and toured all over the world until 1994 The original production was remounted in 1998 and played in New York Toronto Minneapolis and Tokyo before opening at the Queen's Theatre London in January 1999 This astounding production creates a vision of provincial Poland in the early part of the century as a restless ocean of unending flux the miracle of Complicité's interpretation of Schulz's stories is its ability to give specific theatrical life to this perceptual anarchy when you leave the theatre you expect the ground beneath your feet to give way New York Times Family Repository and Horticultural Cabinet ,1862 Miranda: a Tale of the French Revolution Sir Charles Augustus Murray,1850
