A Digest of Reported Cases in the Supreme Court, Court of Insolvency, and the Courts of Mines of the Colony of Victoria James Grattan Eagleson, J. S. Wasley, 1893 The Administration of Justice in British India William Hook Morley, 1858 The Oxford Handbook of Administrative Justice Marc Hertogh, Richard Kirkham, Robert Thomas, Joe Tomlinson, 2022 The core animating feature of administrative justice scholarship is the desire to understand how justice is achieved through the delivery of public services and the actions inactions and decision making of administrative bodies The study of administrative justice also encompasses the redress systems by which people can challenge administrative bodies to seek the correction of injustices For a long time now scholars have been interested in administrative justice but without necessarily framing their work as such Rather than existing under the rubric of administrative justice much of the research undertaken has existed within sub categories of disciplines such as law sociology public policy politics and public administration Consequently although aspects of the topic have attracted rich contributions across such disciplines administrative justice has rarely been studied or taught in a manner that integrates these areas of research more systematically This Handbook signals a major change of approach Drawing together a group of world leading scholars of administrative justice from a range of disciplines The Oxford Handbook of Administrative Justice shows how administrative justice is a vibrant complex and contested field that is best understood as an area of inquiry in its own right rather than through traditional disciplinary silos The Administration of Justice in Great Britain Caleb Perry Patterson, 1936 The Administration of Justice in the United Kingdom and the United States Ib Emil Bailey, 1970 The Administration of Justice in Criminal Matters (in England and Wales) George Glover Alexander, 1915

Administrative Justice and Asylum Appeals Robert Thomas, 2011-01-18 FIRST PRIZE WINNER OF THE SLS BIRKS PRIZE FOR OUTSTANDING LEGAL SCHOLARSHIP 2011 How are we to assess and evaluate the quality of the tribunal systems that do the day to day work of adjudicating upon the disputes individuals have with government This book examines how the idea of adjudicative quality works in practice by presenting a detailed case study of the tribunal system responsible for determining appeals lodged by foreign nationals who claim that they will be at risk of persecution or ill treatment on return to their country of origin Over recent years the asylum appeal process has become a major area of judicial decision making and the most frequently restructured tribunal system Asylum adjudication is also one of the most difficult areas of decision making in the modern legal system Integrating empirical research with legal analysis this book provides an in depth study of the development and operation of this tribunal system and of asylum decision making The book examines how this particular appeal process seeks to mediate the tension between the competing values under which it operates There are chapters examining the organisation of the tribunal system its procedures the nature of fact finding in asylum cases and the operation of onward rights of challenge An examination as to how the tensions inherent in the idea of administrative justice are manifested in the context of a tribunal system responsible for making potentially life or death decisions this book fills a gap in the literature and will be of value to those interested in administrative law and asylum adjudication The Times Parliamentary Debates ,1890 Sessional Papers ... of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario ... Ontario.
