

Teacher's Guide Grade 2

The components of the course are as follows:

- Pupil's Book

The pupil's book consists of twenty units. Every fourth unit being a revision unit. Each unit starts with listening task represented by a dialogue then it is followed by a speaking task encouraging learners to speak, then read and write.

- Workbook

The workbook contains a range of exercises. It begins with practice through enjoyable activities such as drawing lines to accustom pupils to write from left to right. Then pupils trace and copy the letters and are encouraged to think about their sounds. At the end of the book, there is a handwriting file to reinforce pupils' writing skill.

- Teacher's guide

The teacher's guide contains easy-to-follow instructions that help teachers implement the lessons.

- Audio materials

The aim of the course

This course stimulates the pupils interest in learning English and acquiring language through active participation in songs, games, projects, puzzles and other enjoyable activities.

Types of activities in the pupil's book:

Listen and repeat.

Pupils listen to the audio while following the pictures in the dialogues. After listening to the cassette at least twice, pupils repeat the dialogue one sentence a time.

English Language Arts, Grade 10 Module 2 PCG Education, 2015-12-14 Paths to College and Career Jossey Bass and PCG Education are proud to bring the Paths to College and Career English Language Arts ELA curriculum and professional development resources for grades 6-12 to educators across the country. Originally developed for EngageNY and written with a focus on the shifts in instructional practice and student experiences, the standards require Paths to College and Career includes daily lesson plans, guiding questions, recommended texts, scaffolding strategies, and other classroom resources. Paths to College and Career is a concrete and practical ELA instructional program that engages students with compelling and complex texts. At each grade level, Paths to College and Career delivers a yearlong curriculum that develops all students' ability to read closely and engage in text-based discussions, build evidence-based claims and arguments, conduct research, and write from sources, and expand their academic vocabulary. Paths to College and Career's instructional resources address the needs of all learners, including students with disabilities, English language learners, and gifted and talented students. This enhanced curriculum provides teachers with freshly designed Teacher Guides that make the curriculum more accessible and flexible, a Teacher Resource Book for each module that includes all of the materials educators need to manage instruction, and Student Journals that give students learning tools for each module and a single place to organize and document their learning. As the creators of the Paths ELA curriculum for grades 6-12, PCG Education provides a professional learning program that ensures the success of the curriculum. The program includes Nationally recognized professional development from an organization that has been immersed in the new standards since their inception. Blended learning experiences for teachers and leaders that enrich and extend the learning. A train-the-trainer program that builds capacity and provides resources and individual support for embedded leaders and coaches. Paths offers schools and districts a unique approach to ensuring college and career readiness for all students, providing state-of-the-art curriculum and state-of-the-art implementation.

Hands-On English Language Learning: Early Years Jennifer E. Lawson, 2009-09-04 The Hands On English Language Learning program is a resource for classroom teachers, specialist teachers working with English language learners, and other educational professionals who support these students. To assist your students in developing language skills, this resource includes specific curricular connections for each lesson to identify links to subject area themes in language arts, mathematics, science, social studies, health, physical education, and the arts. Integrated class activities to promote learning in context for all students in the classroom. Suggested activities focus on curricular topics in all subject areas while supporting English language learners. Relevant topics such as the classroom and school, clothing, food, hobbies, and interests, plants and animals of Canada, the world, and the environment. Age-appropriate, high-interest learning activities that foster the development of essential English language vocabulary and skills in listening, speaking, reading, writing, viewing, and representing activities in keeping with the philosophy of all Portage Main Press Hands On programs that are student-centred.
