The Debate on the Constitution: Federalist and Antifederalist Speeches, Articles, and Letters During the Struggle over Ratification Vol. 1 (LOA #62) Various,1993-06-01 Here on a scale unmatched by any previous collection is the extraordinary energy and eloquence of our first national political campaign During the secret proceedings of the Constitutional Convention in 1787 the framers created a fundamentally new national plan to replace the Articles of Confederation and then submitted it to conventions in each state for ratification. Immediately a fierce storm of argument broke. Federalist supporters, Antifederalist opponents, and seekers of a middle ground strove to balance public order and personal liberty as they praised, condemned, challenged, and analyzed the new Constitution. Gathering hundreds of original texts by Franklin, Madison, Jefferson, Washington, and Patrick Henry, as well as many others less well known today, this unrivaled collection allows readers to experience firsthand the intense year-long struggle that created what remains the world's oldest working national charter. Assembled here in chronological order are hundreds of newspaper articles, pamphlets, speeches, and private letters written or delivered in the aftermath of the Constitutional Convention. Along with familiar figures like Franklin, Madison, Patrick Henry, Jefferson, and Washington, scores of less famous citizens are represented, all speaking clearly and passionately about government. The most famous writings of the ratification struggle, the Federalist essays of Hamilton and Madison, are placed in their original context alongside the arguments of able antagonists such as Brutus and the Federal Farmer. Part One includes press polemics and private commentaries from September 1787 to January 1788. That autumn, powerful arguments were made against the new charter by Virginian George Mason and the still unidentified Federal Farmer, while in New York newspapers the Federalist essays initiated a brilliant defense. Dozens of speeches from the state ratifying conventions show how the draft of a plan, nothing but a dead letter in Madison's words, had life and validity breathed into it by the voice of the people. Included are the conventions in Pennsylvania where James Wilson confronted the democratic skepticism of those representing the western frontier, and in Massachusetts where John Hancock and Samuel Adams forged a crucial compromise that saved the country from years of political convulsion. Informative notes, biographical profiles of all writers, speakers, and recipients, and a detailed chronology of relevant events from 1774 to 1804 provide fascinating background. A general index allows readers to follow specific topics, and an appendix includes the Declaration of Independence, the Articles of Confederation, and the Constitution with all amendments.

Beyond Confederation Richard Beeman, Stephen Botein, Edward C. Carter II, 2013-04-01. Beyond Confederation scrutinizes the ideological background of the U.S. Constitution, the rigors of its writing and ratification, and the problems it both faced and provoked immediately after ratification. The essays in this collection question much of the heritage of eighteenth-century constitutional thought and suggest that many of the commonly debated issues have led us away from the truly germane questions The authors challenge many of the traditional generalizations and the terms and scope of that debate as well The contributors raise fresh questions about the Constitution as it enters its third century What happened in Philadelphia in 1787 and what happened in the state ratifying conventions Why did the states barely ratify the Constitution What were Americans of the 1780s attempting to achieve The exploratory conclusions point strongly to an alternative constitutional tradition some of it unwritten much of it rooted in state constitutional law a tradition that not only has redefined the nature and role of the Constitution but also has placed limitations on its efficacy throughout American history The authors are Lance Banning Richard Beeman Stephen Botein Richard D Brown Richard E Ellis Paul Finkelman Stanley N Katz Ralph Lerner Drew R McCoy John M Murrin Jack N Rakove Janet A Riesman and Gordon S Wood The Documentary History of the Ratification of the Constitution Merrill Jensen, John P. America's Second Revolution Harlow Giles Unger,2007-09-01 The Declaration of Independence liberated one continent from domination by another but the Constitution revolutionized the world by entrusting citizens with rights never before in history granted to ordinary people Far from the genteel unity implied by the Constitution s opening words We the People the struggle to create and ratify this powerful document was as difficult as the fight for independence from Britain had been The road to independence had led straight to hell America was ablaze in anarchy and civil strife As civil war threatened George Washington called for a new constitution creating a powerful new federal government to restore order For the majority of Americans the new Constitution drafted in Philadelphia seemed a disaster creating a new American government with the same powers of taxation as the former British government and led by a president with powers to succeed himself indefinitely and become a monarch Former Virginia governor Patrick Henry cried out against such a central authority that could stifle state sovereignty Liberty will be lost and tyranny will result George Washington countered calling Henry an enemy of liberty The ratification process began and over the next nine months America warred with itself as each state joined in what became American s second revolution Just as the first revolution had brought Americans together the second threatened to rip the nation apart as Washington s Federalists battled Henry s Antifederalists Mobs ran riot in the streets of Philadelphia New York and Providence The wealthy elite supported the new Constitution and a strong central government while a majority of ordinary people opposed both and populist leaders such as Henry and New York governor George Clinton geared for violent conflict between the states to preserve state sovereignty By mid March 1788 eight of the nine states required for ratification of he Constitution had ratified But Virginia the largest and the wealthiest state stood firm with New York against union and without them the new nation would be as fragile as the parchment on which the Constitution had been written With the fate of the country in the balance Washington could only hope for a miracle to save the nation from all out civil war and disunion In America s Second Revolution award winning author Harlow Giles Unger tells the gripping story of that miracle the harrowing events that led up to it and the men who made it possible Rich and powerful they displayed humor sarcasm fire brilliance ignorance hypocrisy warmth anger bigotry and hatred Their struggle pitted friend against friend brother against brother father against son But in the end they helped create a new government a new nation and ultimately a new civilization
