Indigenous Schooling in the Modern World Neil Hooley,Oksana Razoumova,Lois Peeler,2021-10-25 This book supports the formal education of all Indigenous children who live in different circumstances in different countries It takes Indigenous philosophy as its starting point while recognising that in many colonial and post colonial circumstances Indigenous knowledge culture and language may not be valued For this reason Indigenous and non Indigenous theorists and authors are included to demonstrate the recognised links between Indigenous and non Indigenous understandings and practices of culture knowledge and learning and therefore common approaches to formal education Chapters are arranged in an integrated fashion to discuss contextual issues regarding global political and economic influences and the notion of what it means to participate fully in society Australasian Manufacturer ,1939 Regulatory Law Mr. Rohit Manglik,2024-03-08 EduGorilla Publication is a trusted name in the education sector committed to empowering learners with high quality study materials and resources Specializing in competitive exams and academic support EduGorilla provides comprehensive and well structured content tailored to meet the needs of students across various streams and levels

Healthization Susanna Trnka,2025-09-30 What does it mean to be healthy Is it a measure of physical illness of a mental health condition or of emotional control In twenty first century Aotearoa New Zealand it is all of the above Being healthy in this country requires an investment of extensive work resources and time Because while it encompasses the above categories for many young people in Aotearoa New Zealand health also extends to having strong trusted friendships to feeling that one s emotions are being recognized while recognizing the emotions of others Health for these youth may also consist of creating a daily space for mindfulness while maintaining productivity working up the motivation to work out quantifying and graphing nutrition stats being able to talk openly about one s mental health and maybe even wearing the right lipstick These activities are particularly salient in Aotearoa New Zealand where the past forty years have witnessed a growing emphasis on the importance of patient self responsibility and where the state has invested heavily in health even introducing a wellbeing budget that tracks the economy via wellbeing measures All of these activities add up to a concept and a worldview that anthropologist Susanna Trnka conceptualizes as healthization Through this framework managing one s emotions keeping one s sense of balance and tracking the number of miles run swum or bicycled become overlapping all consuming activities to the point of almost encompassing life itself By analyzing ethnographic interviews with young people Trnka reveals the emotional financial and deeply personal ideas at stake as understandings of health shift in the minds of young people Often at the vanguard of new trends in mental health physical fitness and digital health technologies the youth in Aotearoa New Zealand enact what it means to be well in the twenty first century New Zealand Dairy Produce Exporter ,1941 Parliamentary Debates New Zealand. Parliament,1985 Enacting the Security Community Stéphanie Martel,2022-07-12 Enacting the Security Community illuminates the central role of discourse in the making of security communities through a case study of the Association of Southeast Asian Nations ASEAN Despite decades of discussion scholars of political science and international relations have long struggled to identify what kind of security community ASEAN is striving to become Talk about security St phanie Martel argues in this innovative study is more than empty rhetoric It is precisely through discourse that ASEAN is brought into being as a security community Martel analyzes the epic narratives that state and non state actors tell about ASEAN s journey to becoming a security community featuring a colorful cast of heroes and monsters Chapters address a wide spectrum of current regional security concerns from the South China Sea disputes to the Rohingya crisis and nontraditional challenges like natural disasters and pandemics Through fieldwork and in depth interviews with practitioners Martel provides clear evidence that discourse is key to sustaining regional organizations like ASEAN Enacting the Security Community is an incisive contribution to debates among scholars and practitioners about security communities as well as the role of discourse in the study of world politics and essential reading for students of Southeast Asian international relations politics and security New Zealand Geographer ,1953 The New Zealand Beekeepers' Journal ,1922 New Zealand Beekeepers' Journal ,1917 A Global Environmental History of Coastal Dunes Joana Gaspar de Freitas,2024-10-28 This book provides a holistic perspective on coastal dunes highlighting new insights into present day challenges to show that narratives along with numbers graphics and computer models have a role to play in climate change science policymaking and citizenship awareness Adopting a cross disciplinary approach this book combines fiction history and science to discuss past present and future ways of living in coastal areas Dunes are hybrid environments a combination of natural elements and human agency they tell stories of values traditional wisdom institutions empires technology vulnerabilities coastal management adaptation and sustainability Drawing on the past Joana Gaspar de Freitas unpacks a diverse and fascinating history of dunes linking knowledge methods and approaches from several case studies across the world including France Portugal Brazil Mozambique New Zealand USA and the UK The book connects the bio geophysics of global change with the main driver of transformation human agency to integrate and address nature society issues taking human and nonhuman agents into account In following the choices paths and strategies that created today s coastal landscapes the book generates greater awareness and understanding of how to shape coastal futures This is an engaging original and fundamentally important book that fills a gap in our knowledge of cities infrastructure economies and cultures built on shorelines A key
