strong wind from the northeast and I thought it had frozen together solid All went well till I was about a quarter of a mile from the landing point Then the wind suddenly fell and I noticed that I was travelling over loose sish which was like porridge and probably many feet deep By stabbing down I could drive my whip handle through the thin coating of young ice that was floating on it The sish ice consists of the tiny fragments Adrift on an Ice Pan Sir Wilfred,2021-09-11 Book Excerpt f ice right to the landwash There were great gaping chasms between the enormous blocks which we call pans and half a mile out it was all clear water An island three miles out had preserved a bridge of ice however and by crossing a few cracks I managed to reach it From the island it was four miles across to a rocky promontory a course that would be several miles shorter than going round the shore Here as far as the eye could reach the ice seemed good though it was very rough Obviously it had been smashed up by the sea and then packed in again by the strong wind from the northeast and I thought it had frozen together solid All went well till I was about a quarter of a mile from the landing point Then the wind suddenly fell and I noticed that I was travelling over loose sish which was like porridge and probably many feet deep By stabbing down I could drive my whip handle through the thin coating of young ice that was floating on it The sish ice consists of the tiny fragments Read More Adrift on an Ice-Pan... - Primary Source Edition Sir Wilfred Thomason Grenfell,2013-10 This is a reproduction of a book published before 1923 This book may have occasional imperfections such as missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc that were either part of the original artifact or were introduced by the scanning process We believe this work is culturally important and despite the imperfections have elected to bring it back into print as part of our continuing commitment to the preservation of printed works worldwide We appreciate your understanding of the imperfections in the preservation process and hope you enjoy this valuable book The below data was compiled from various identification fields in the bibliographic record of this title This data is provided as an additional tool in helping to ensure edition identification Adrift On An Ice pan Riverside Literature Series Sir Wilfred Thomason Grenfell Houghton Mifflin 1909 Newfoundland and Labrador Adrift on an Ice-Pan (Classic Reprint) Wilfred Thomason Grenfell,2015-07-14 Excerpt from Adrift on an Ice Pan Army killed at Lansdown in iga in defence of King Charles Four wheels to Charles s wain Grenville Trevanion Slanning Godolphin slain About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Adrift on an Ice-Pan Wilfred Thomason Grenfell,2018-08-12 Adrift on an Ice Pan by Wilfred Thomason Grenfell A citizen of Britain is before you once a student in this University now better known to the people of the New World than to our own This is the man who fifteen years ago went to the coast of Labrador to succor with medical aid the solitary fishermen of the northern sea in executing which service he despised the perils of the ocean which are there most terrible in order to bring comfort and light to the wretched and sorrowing Thus up to the measure of human ability he seems to follow if it is right to say it of any one in the footsteps of Christ Himself as a truly Christian man Rightly then we praise him by whose praise not he alone but our University also is honored I present to you Wilfred Thomason Grenfell that he may be admitted to the degree of Doctor in Medicine HONORIS CAUSA We are delighted to publish this classic book as part of our extensive Classic Library collection Many of the books in our collection have been out of print for decades and therefore have not been accessible to the general public The aim of our publishing program is to facilitate rapid access to this vast reservoir of literature and our view is that this is a significant literary work which deserves to be brought back into print after many decades The contents of the vast majority of titles in the Classic Library have been scanned from the original works To ensure a high quality product each title has been meticulously hand curated by our staff Our philosophy has been guided by a desire to provide the reader with a book that is as close as possible to ownership of the original work We hope that you will enjoy this wonderful classic work and that for you it becomes an enriching experience

Once Upon a Time Sheila Egoff, 2005-09-01 In Once Upon a Time My Life with Children's Books Sheila Egoff tells the story of her working life from her early voracious reading through all her significant contributions to libraries in Canada and to our national understanding of our own literature for children She brings both a critical eye and a personal touch to this book which reads as a memoir and as an account of important developments in Canadian writing and librarianship In this time of cuts to budgets for books and for librarians there is much here to reflect upon

Adrift on an Ice-Pan ... Illustrated from Photographs by Dr. Grenfell and Others. [With a Biographical Sketch by Clarence John Blake.] Sir Wilfred Thomason GRENFELL, Clarence John BLAKE, 1910

Jessie Luther at the Grenfell Mission Jessie Luther, 2001 Strongly influenced by the arts and crafts movement the New England artist Jessie Luther began her crafts career as director of the Labor Museum at Hull House Chicago at the invitation of the social reformer Jane Addams In 1906 she was recruited by Dr Wilfred Grenfell the medical missionary to teach weaving to women at St Anthony a small community at the northern tip of Newfoundland and for four years she painstakingly laid the groundwork for a variety of craft industries Jessie Luther at the Grenfell Mission is an annotated edition of a travel journal that Luther wrote from 1906 to 1910
