Values, Religions and Education in Changing Societies Karin Sporre, Jan Mannberg, 2010-09-24 Education is a societal matter and takes place in relation to societal changes Today in many countries it has to grapple with diversity and differences brought about by migration and changes in gender relations Questions of values human rights and the role of religions are raised In this book scholars from Sweden Norway Germany Great Britain Canada Namibia and South Africa discuss the issues above Similarities as well as differences are highlighted The varied contributors engage in a North South dialogue Among the questions addressed are Can the Scandinavian countries be understood as more religious than their up to date seemingly secularist reputation has led us to believe How do some European Muslim Christian and secular pupils understand the religious education they receive Could a global citizenship education with a gendered understanding as an integral part be accomplished Diversity and social justice what does it take to theoretically integrate these two crucial parameters in education in South Africa and in Sweden The role of religious and values education under changing circumstances is explored through the diverse contributions that also challenge the hegemony of a Western understanding of democracy among other values The purpose of this is to assess what could now constitute global educational common ground

World Yearbook of Education 1998 David Hicks,Richard Slaughter,2012-09-10 One of the central roles of education is to prepare students for the future and yet its study is often a neglected issue This work focuses on the futures field as an educational resource using case studies from around the world and on the nature of education for sustainability Faith Schools and Society Jo Cairns,2011-10-20 Do faith schools have a place in a plural society Which types of school contribute most effectively to a plural society This fascinating monograph seeks to answer these questions and more by exploring the fit between personal spiritual and academic goals in contemporary educational experience and individual school cultures Jo Cairns a well respected authority on faith schools argues that educational ideology in plural societies has to find a way of recognizing and responding to the predicament of pluralism as it is experienced by individuals and communities This provocative and challenging book will undoubtedly stimulate debate among educationists across the world Adult Education and Theological Interpretations Peter Jarvis,Nicholas Walters,1993 Opening with a debate about the nature of learning as a religious phenomenon this book includes a collection of contributions based on the theme of the relationship between faith and knowledge Sense and Goodness Without God Richard Carrier,2005-02-23 If God does not exist then what does Is there good and evil and should we care How do we know what s true anyway And can we make any sense of this universe or our own lives Sense and Goodness answers all these questions in lavish detail without complex jargon A complete worldview is presented and defended covering every subject from knowledge to art from metaphysics to morality from theology to politics Topics include free will the nature of the universe the meaning of life and much more arguing from scientific evidence that there is only a physical natural world without gods or spirits but that we can still live a life of love meaning and joy A History of the Adult Education Movement in the United States Malcolm Shepherd Knowles,1994 This history of the adult education movement is liberally seasoned with footnotes and bibliographical references which can lead to other sources for further study if desired The book gives an insight into the role of adult education in shaping our national culture A comparative study of elite English-medium schools, public schools, and Islamic madaris in contemporary Pakistan Akhtar Hassan Malik,2015-04-12 This ethnographic study examines the role of differing school knowledge in reproducing various social classes in the society It was observed that an unequal availability of capital resources agents class habitus and the type of their cultural currency act as selection mechanisms that clearly favour some social groups over others. The ruling classes ensure the transfer of their power and privilege to their children by providing them with quality education in elite schools. The disadvantaged classes are excluded from these unique institutions by both social and economic sanctions. They have no other option than to educate their children either in public schools or Islamic madaris. As a result, inequitable educational opportunities consolidate the existing social class hierarchy.
