Armcor James P. McWilliams, 1989 How the US Arms Embargo of 1977 has resulted in a powerful armaments industry in South Africa Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR The Political Economy of South Africa's Post-apartheid Transition Benjamin Fine, 2025-05-26 South Africa's post apartheid transition has proven disastrous It is marked by the emergence of a black elite of enriched capitalists out of the globalisation neoliberalisation and financialisation of the economy in general and of its Minerals Energy and Financial Complex in particular By contrast inequalities poverty and failing social provision have persisted Recent attention has shifted to how this disastrous trajectory was initiated some suggesting a lack of available alternative policy options at the time of transition This is shown to be false with a full range of progressive alternatives being rejected with corresponding consequences from state capture to electoral defeat

Disarmament and Defence Industrial Adjustment in South Africa Peter G. Batchelor, Susan Willett, 1998 Peter Batchelor and Susan Willett analyse the response of the South African defence industry to drastic cuts in military expenditure and the demilitarization of society since the end of the cold war and apartheid and the stabilization of the regional security situation The new ANC led government is seeking to use the resources released the peace dividend to restructure and revitalize the country's industrial base and to support reconstruction development and redistribution A lively debate on the country's security needs and strategic doctrine is under way As in other countries strategies of industrial diversification and conversion have met with limited success In the absence hitherto of any coherent government policy on defence industrial adjustment significant skills and technologies have been lost or wasted This book provides a historical analysis of South Africa's unique opportunity to develop new and innovative policies on defence and security matters the arms industry and arms exports and makes a valuable contribution to the international debate on the relationship between disarmament and development South Africa's Defence Industry Greg Mills, Martin Edmonds, 2001 Twentieth-Century South Africa Bill Freund, 2019 This unique history highlights South Africa's complex and dynamic attempt to build a developmental state an attempt that ultimately faltered South Africa's Armaments Industry Dan Henk, 2006-06-22 In 1994 with the advent of majority rule the new South African government faced the hopeful yet sobering task of negotiating the country's past while crafting its future Included in this process was South Africa's armaments industry which had been an important pillar of t

Cold War in Southern Africa Sue Onslow, 2009-09-10 This edited volume examines the complexities of the Cold War in Southern Africa and uses a range of archives to develop a more detailed understanding of the impact of the Cold War environment upon the processes of political change In the aftermath of European decolonization the struggle between white minority governments and black liberation movements encouraged both sides to appeal for external support from the two superpower blocs Cold War in Southern Africa highlights the importance of the global ideological environment on the perceptions and consequent behaviour of the white minority regimes the Black Nationalist movements and the newly independent African nationalist governments Together they underline the variety of archival sources on the history of Southern Africa in the Cold War and its growing importance in Cold War Studies This volume brings together a series of essays by leading scholars based on a wide range of sources in the United States Russia Cuba Britain Zambia and South Africa By focussing on a range of independent actors these essays highlight the complexity of the conflict in Southern Africa a battle of power blocs of systems and ideas which intersected with notions and practices of race and class This book will appeal to students of cold war studies US foreign policy African politics and International History Sue Onslow has taught at the London School of Economics since 1994 She is currently a Cold War Studies Fellow in the Cold War Studies Centre

Landmines Physicians for Human Rights (U.S.),1993 10 The future of Landmines From Defence to Development International Development Research Centre (Canada),Group for Environmental Monitoring (Johannesburg, South Africa),1998 From Defence to Development Redirecting military resources in South Africa Arms Industry Limited Herbert Wulf,1993 Arms Industry Limited is an empirical account of the size and structure of the world arms industry with special case studies of the United States the former Soviet Union Canada countries in both Western and Central Europe and countries in the less developed world and in the Asia Pacific region The book describes the various strategies which arms producing companies have adopted in order to meet the challenges and commitments of the post cold war world Governments are in the process of restructuring national armed forces and revising military equipment procurement plans Military budgets are tighter in many parts of the world affecting national arms production and arms exports The most common company strategies are to reduce the size of the firm and lay off employees to mothball production facilities to transnationalize firms and to convert firms to non military production While there are counter pressures to a decrease in the production and export of arms in the future companies will probably have to reduce their production capacities and number of employees even further The strong international pressure on governments to regulate arms exports particularly since the 1991 Persian Gulf War is also examined by the international group of experts who have contributed the case studies in the volume From Defense to Development? Sean M. DiGiovanna,Ann Markusen,2003-09-11 This impressive book tracks the progress of twelve countries on five continents in moving resources from defense to civilian activity in the 1990 s Based on intensive field research thanks to its truly international array of contributors the book addresses each country with an impressive standard of scholarship This accessible book is written i The Economics of Conflict and Peace Jurgen Brauer,William G. Gissy,2017-07-05 A collection of original research papers on economic aspects of conflict and peace including a number of papers on developing nations The Economics of Regional Security Jurgen Brauer,Keith

Hartley,2013-03-07 This important book explores the threats and challenges to regional security for Nato in the Mediterranean and in the sub Saharan countries namely southern Africa Written and edited by leading researchers the volume s significance lies in its demonstration of how concepts from economics and other social science disciplines can be applied to important issues of defence conflict and peace at the regional level How South Africa Built Six Atom Bombs and Then Abandoned Its Nuclear Weapons Program Al J. Venter,2008 Apartheid Guns and Money Hennie van Vuuren,2019-03-01 This is an expos of the machinery created in defense of apartheid and the people who made this possible heads of states arms dealers aristocrats plutocrats senators bankers spies journalists and members of secret lobby groups The African Communist ,1990 Towards a Brave New Arms Industry? Richard Bitzinger,2014-08-27 In the post Cold War era most countries have been forced to radically reduce their arms industries and abandoned self sufficiency in favour of a subordinate role in an increasingly globalized worldwide defence industry This has significant implications for the future of armaments production for proliferation and for arms control Total Onslaught Paul Moorcraft,2018-08-30 The end of the Second World War may have heralded peace in Europe but conflicts in Southern Africa were about to begin The imperial powers were weakened by the cost of war and a string of wars challenged colonial rule in countries such as Namibia Angola and Rhodesia Once independence was achieved civil wars between rival factions unfamiliar with democratic principles resulted Liberation movements such as those in South Africa demanded self rule and end to Apartheid Tribal feuds corruption and the ambitions of dictators led to more conflicts such as the protracted fighting in the Congo These were wars that ran on until both sides were exhausted often only to be re kindled after short periods of uneasy peace The cost in human and material terms has been devastating and in too many cases remain so Economic development has been frustrated and the result is often poverty abuse and genocide The Author who knows Southern Africa as a native is superbly equipped to tell this fascinating if tragic record
