A Concise Companion to Contemporary British Fiction James F. English, 2008-04-15 A Concise Companion to Contemporary British Fiction offers an authoritative overview of contemporary British fiction in its social political and economic contexts Focuses on the fiction that has emerged since the late 1970s roughly since the start of the Thatcher era Comprises original essays from major scholars Topics range from the rise and fall of the postcolonial novel to controversies over the celebrity author The emphasis is on the whole fiction scene from bookstores and prizes to the changing economics of film adaptation Enables students to read contemporary works of British fiction with a much clearer sense of where they fit within British cultural life Writing Woman, Writing Place Sue Kossew, 2004-06 This book analyses the ways in which contemporary women writers in the two settler colonies of Australia and South Africa explore notions of self identity and place in their fiction Representing Poverty in the Anglophone Postcolonial World Verena Jain-Warden, Barbara Schmidt-Haberkamp, 2021-06-07 Originally a concern primarily of social studies and economics poverty has emerged as a significant thematic focus and analytical tool in literary and cultural studies in the last two decades The new poverty studies are dedicated to analyzing representations of poverty and the poor in literature and the visual arts in the news media and in social practices They aim at exploring the frameworks of representation that impact the affective and ethical responses of audiences to disenfranchised groups such as the poor The contributions to this volume focus on representations of poverty in the Anglophone postcolonial world exploring for example contemporary discourses on poverty in the UK filmic representations of Nairobi slums or the agency of the poor in literature from India Utopianism in Postcolonial Literatures Bill Ashcroft, 2016-11-10 Postcolonial Studies is more often found looking back at the past but in this brand new book Bill Ashcroft looks to the future and the irrepressible demands of utopia The concept of utopia whether playful satire or a serious proposal for an ideal community is examined in relation to the postcolonial and the communities with which it engages Studying a very broad range of literature poetry and art with chapters focussing on specific regions Africa India Chicano Caribbean and Pacific this book is written in a clear and engaging prose which make it accessible to undergraduates as well as academics This important book speaks to the past and future of postcolonial scholarship The Encyclopedia of Twentieth-Century Fiction, 3 Volume Set Brian W. Shaffer, 2011-01-18 This Encyclopedia offers an indispensable reference guide to twentieth century fiction in the English language With nearly 500 contributors and over one million words it is the most comprehensive and authoritative reference guide to twentieth century fiction in the English language Contains over 500 entries of 1000 3000 words written in lucid jargon free prose by an international cast of leading scholars Arranged in three volumes covering British and Irish Fiction American Fiction and World Fiction with each volume edited by a leading scholar in the field Entries cover major writers such as Saul Bellow Raymond Chandler John Steinbeck Virginia Woolf A S Byatt Samuel Beckett D H Lawrence Zadie Smith Salman Rushdie V S Naipaul Nadine Gordimer Alice Munro Chinua Achebe J M Coetzee and Ng g Wa Thiong o and their key works Examines the genres and sub genres of fiction in English across the twentieth century including crime fiction Sci Fi chick lit the noir novel and the avant garde novel as well as the major movements debates and rubrics within the field such as censorship globalization modernist fiction fiction and the film industry and the fiction of migration diaspora and exile Cheeky Fictions ,2005-01-01 Humour is a key feature laughter a central element disrespect a vital textual strategy of postcolonial transcultural practice Devices such as irony parody and subversion can be subsumed under an interventionist stance and have accordingly received some critical attention But literary and cultural postcolonial criticism has been marked by a restraint verging on the pious towards the wider significance and functions of laughter This collection transcends such orthodoxies laughter can constitute an intervention but it can also function otherwise The essays collected here take an interest in the strategic use of what can loosely be termed laughter in all its manifestations Examining postcolonial transcultural practice from a range of disciplinary and methodological perspectives this study seeks to analyse laughter and the postcolonial in their complexity For the first time then this collection gathers a group of international specialists in postcolonial transcultural studies to analyse the functions of laughter the comic and humour in a wide range of cultural texts Contributors work on texts from Africa Asia Australia North America the Caribbean and Britain reading work by authors such as Zakes Mda Timothy Mo VS Naipaul and Zadie Smith This interdisciplinary collection is a contribution to both postcolonial studies and humour theory Companion to the New Literatures in English Christa Jansohn,2002 The English Studies Book Rob Pope,2005-10-05 The English Studies Book is uniquely designed to support students and teachers working across the full range of language literature and culture Combining the functions of study guide critical dictionary and text anthology it has rapidly established itself as a core text on a wide variety of degree programmes nationally and internationally Revised and updated throughout features of the second edition include a new prologue addressing changes and challenges in English Studies substantial entries on over 100 key critical and theoretical terms from absence and author to text and versification with new entries on creative writing travel writing and translation practical introductions to all the major theoretical approaches with new sections on aesthetics ethics ecology and sexuality a rich anthology of literary and related texts from Anglo Saxon to Afro Caribbean with fresh selections representing the sonnet haiku slave narratives and science fiction and with additional texts by Elizabeth Barrett Browning Charles Darwin Ian McEwan Margaret Atwood Amy Tan and others handy frameworks and checklists for close reading research essay writing and other textual activities including use of the Internet Rastafari and the Arts Darren J. N. Middleton,2015-02-11 Drawing on literary musical and visual representations of and by Rastafari Darren J N Middleton provides an introduction to Rasta through the arts broadly conceived The religious underpinnings of the Rasta movement are often overshadowed by Rasta s association with reggae music dub and performance poetry Rastafari and the Arts An Introduction takes a fresh view of Rasta considering the relationship between the artistic and religious dimensions of the movement in depth Middleton s analysis complements current introductions to Afro Caribbean religions and offers an engaging example of the role of popular culture in illuminating the beliefs and practices of emerging religions Recognizing that outsiders as well as insiders have shaped the Rasta movement since its modest beginnings in Jamaica Middleton includes interviews with members of both groups including Ejay Khan Barbara Makeda Blake Hannah Geoffrey Philp Asante Amen Reggae Rajahs Benjamin Zephaniah Monica Haim Blakk Rasta Rocky Dawuni and Marvin D Sterling Tributes to Derek Walcott, 1930-2017 Helen Goethals, Eric Doumerc, 2022-07-06 Coming some five years after the death of poet playwright teacher and painter Derek Walcott this book brings together essays memoirs and creative work addressing many aspects of his life and work 20 years after Walcott became the first Caribbean writer to win the Nobel Prize for Literature this volume gathers renowned and emerging poets friends theatre critics and artists to lay bare their own relationship with a larger than life figure and cast their various light on his by no means unproblematic legacy Beginning Postcolonialism John McLeod, 2000-07-07 Postcolonialism has become one of the most exciting expanding and challenging areas of literary and cultural studies today Designed especially for those studying the topic for the first time Beginning Postcolonialism introduces the major areas of concern in a clear accessible and organized fashion It provides an overview of the emergence of postcolonialism as a discipline and closely examines many of its important critical writings Absolutely Postcolonial Peter Hallward, 2001 This innovative book provides an incisive critique of well established positions in postcolonial theory and a dramatic expansion in the range of interpretative tools available Peter Hallward gives substantial readings of four significant writers whose work invites to varying degrees a singular interpretation of postcolonialism Edouard Glissant Charles Johnson Mohammed Dib and Severo Sarduy Using a singular interpretation of postcolonialism is central to the argument this book makes and to understanding the postcolonial paradigm Lies that Tell the Truth Anne C. Hegerfeldt, 2005 Magic realism has long been treated as a phenomenon restricted to postcolonial literature Drawing on works from Britain Lies that Tell the Truth compellingly shows how magic realist fiction can be produced also at what is usually considered to be the cultural centre without forfeiting the mode s postcolonial attitude and aims A close analysis of works by Angela Carter Salman Rushdie Jeanette Winterson Robert Nye and others reveals how the techniques of magic realism generate a complex critique of the West s rational empirical worldview from within a Western context itself Understanding magic realism as a fictional analogue of anthropology and sociology Lies that Tell the Truth reads the mode as a frequently humorous but at the same time critical investigation into people s attempts to make sense of their world By laying bare the manifold strategies employed to make meaning magic realist fiction indicates that knowledge and reality cannot be reduced to hard facts but that people s dreams and fears ideas stories and beliefs must equally be taken into account Diasporic Literature and Theory - Where Now? Mark Shackleton, 2009-03-26 The theoretical innovations of Edward Said Homi Bhabha Gayatri Spivak Stuart Hall Paul Gilroy James Clifford and others have in recent years vitalized postcolonial and diaspora studies challenging ways in which we understand culture and developing new ways of thinking beyond the confines of the nation state The articles in this volume look at recent developments in diasporic literature and theory alluding to the work of seminal diaspora theoreticians but also interrogating such thinkers in the light of recent cultural production including literature film and visual art as well as recent world events The articles are organized in pairs offering alternative perspectives on crucial aspects of diaspora theory today Celebration or Melancholy Gender Biases and the Canon of Diasporic Literature Diasporas of Violence and Terror Time Place and Diasporic Home and Border Crossings A number of the articles are illustrated by discussions of particular authors such as Caryl Phillips Salman Rushdie and Michael Ondaatje and the range of reference found in this volume covers writing from many parts of the world including contemporary Chicana visual art Asian diaspora writers and Black British Afro Caribbean Native North American and African writing
