

High Street, c. 1970. The smaller building to the right is now a restaurant. Nos 24 and 27 have undergone several extensions including the front elevation. It is likely that all the five houses (nos 23 to 27) were built for merchants because each house has a shop front. In nos 24 and 27 there are often, small trap doors, probably once used for the storage of merchandise. The walls and ceilings are of lath and plaster. (Westbury Manor Museum)
