Around My House:

That's My House Christie Amoyo, 2022-04-30 For so long I thought God didn't care about my family's finances. Boy was I wrong. As I read the Bible about His provision for us, there came a shift in my head and then in my heart. I realized that He is our true provider. God has no limits and we need to believe in His provision for us in every area of our lives. No dream or vision is too big for Him and you'll never find out what He actually wants you to do with your finances until you ask Him. Then you will be amazed at how He uses it to answer your prayers and the prayers of others. We have to start somewhere. It takes many little steps for us to see the fullness of what He wants for us. Your finances can be a turning point in your relationship with God. As you physically take steps to trust Him, you will see a physical manifestation of the harvest of blessings in your life.

Repair My House Michael H. Crosby, 2012 Repair my house. From a crucifix in a ruined chapel, St. Francis heard this instruction which set him on a mission of evangelical renewal. In the light of unprecedented crisis afflicting the Catholic church, Michael Crosby calls us all to undertake a wholesale project of repair and renewal. The crisis is visible in the sex abuse scandal and the questions it has raised about internal structures of authority and clerical culture. Meanwhile, a spate of new atheists has challenged traditional worldviews. The percentage of those identifying themselves as former Catholics grows at an alarming rate. In response, Fr. Crosby sees a challenge to return to the core evangelical message of Jesus Christ. This message is supported, not contradicted, by discoveries in science and cosmology. He envisions a new way of being Catholic and a set of practices that draws on the contemplative, compassionate, and life-giving spirit of the Kingdom that God's will may be realized on earth as it is in heaven.

My House Is Killing Me! Jeffrey C. May, Connie L. May, 2020-12-01 Whether you have allergies or asthma or you just want to avoid exposures to indoor contaminants and allergens, this book will teach you how to have a healthier home. In this thoroughly revised edition of My House Is Killing Me, Jeffrey C. and Connie L. May draw on the dramatic personal stories of their clients to help readers understand the links between indoor environmental conditions and human health. Explaining how air conditioning, finished basements, and other home features affect indoor air quality, the authors offer a step-by-step approach to identifying, controlling, and even eliminating the sources of indoor pollutants and allergens. This new edition includes more than 60 color photographs, expanded coverage on the dangers posed by volatile organic compounds (VOCs) produced by such common items as paint, carpet, and household cleaning products, up-to-date information on the potential risks of installing spray polyurethane foam (SPF) insulation, completely new case studies of people who improved their indoor air quality by following the authors' advice, brand new chapters including Trojan Horse Allergens, The Three Ps: Pets, Pests, and People, Indoor Air Quality in Multi-Unit Buildings, and Testing and Remediation. Reading My House Is Killing Me lets you see your house the way an expert would. Along with offering a wealth of practical advice and proven solutions for various problems, the Mays include a glossary of terms and a list of valuable resources. This book is a must for all home occupants as well as perfect for those contemplating moving to or purchasing a property. Help! I Can't
