Art (New York, N.Y.),2004 While art history has made room for the flurry of movements that emerged in the period following World War II the myriad artistic developments of the last thirty years have yet to be assigned firm historical categories

Drawing from the Modern 1975 2005 the final installment in a series of inaugural year exhibitions produced by the Department of Drawings attempts to tell a provisional story of the years from 1975 to the present as reflected through MoMA's singular drawings collection While making no claims to comprehensiveness the installation details both the blossoming of different art positions on a broad international scale in this era and the coming of age of drawing as an independent and for many artists primary mode of expression Organized chronologically and in loose clusters of artists working in the same milieu or vein of interest the exhibition features works by more than fifty artists including Bruce Nauman Gerhard Richter Martin Kippenberger Marlene Dumas Gabriel Orozco Kara Walker and Luc Tuymans Arshile Gorky Hayden Herrera,2003-01-01 Arshile Gorky traces the progress from apprentice to master of the man Andre Breton called the most important painter in American history Modernism for the Masses Jody Patterson,2020-11-17 A mural renaissance swept the United States in the 1930s propelled by the New Deal Federal Art Project and the popularity of Mexican muralism Perhaps nowhere more than in New York City murals became a crucial site for the development of abstract painting Artists such as Stuart Davis Arshile Gorky Willem de Kooning and Lee Krasner created ambitious works for the Williamsburg Housing Project Floyd Bennett Field Airport and the 1939 World's Fair Modernism for the Masses examines the public murals realized and unrealized of these and other abstract painters and the aesthetic controversy political influence and ideological warfare that surrounded them Jody Patterson transforms standard narratives of modernism by reasserting the significance of the 1930s and explores the reasons for the omission of the mural's history from chronicles of American art Beautifully illustrated with the artists murals and little known archival photographs this book recovers the radical idea that modernist art was a vital part of everyday life Modern Spirit W. Jackson Rushing,Kristin Makhholm,2013-08-08 The work of Chippewa artist George Morrison 1919 2000 has enjoyed widespread critical acclaim His paintings drawings prints and sculptures have been displayed in numerous public and private exhibitions and he is one of Minnesota's most cherished artists Yet because Morrison's artwork typically does not include overt references to his Indian heritage it has stirred debate about what it means to be a Native American artist This stunning catalogue featuring 130 color and black and white images showcases Morrison's work across a spectrum of genres and media while also exploring the artist's identity as a modernist within the broader context of twentieth century American and Native American art Born and raised near the Grand Portage Indian Reservation in Minnesota Morrison graduated from the Minnesota School of Art and the Art Students League in New York City He spent his early career mainly on the East Coast becoming one of the first Native American artists to exhibit his work extensively in New York Best known for his landscape paintings and wood collages he employed a variety of media paint wood ink and metal paper and canvas and developed a unique style that combined elements of cubism surrealism and

abstract expressionism In her foreword to Modern Spirit Cherokee artist Kay WalkingStick describes her personal association with Morrison and admiration for his authentic artistic vision Kristin Makhholm in her introduction to the volume explores Morrison's ties to Minnesota and his legacy within the history of Minnesota art and culture Then drawing on extensive primary research and Morrison's own writings W Jackson Rushing III offers an in depth analysis of Morrison's artistic evolution against the backdrop of evolving definitions of Indianness By expanding our understanding of Morrison's singular vision Modern Spirit invites readers to appreciate more deeply the beauty and complexity of his art

Abstract Expressionism at the Museum of Modern Art Ann Temkin,2010 More than sixty years have passed since the critic Robert Coates writing in The New Yorker in 1946 first used the term Abstract Expressionism to describe the richly coloured canvases of Hans Hofmann The name stuck and over the years it has come to designate the paintings and sculptures of artists as different as Jackson Pollock and Barnett Newman Willem de Kooning and Mark Rothko Lee Krasner and David Smith The achievements of this generation which put New York City on the map as the centre of the international art world are some of the 20th century's greatest masterpieces Beginning in mid 1940s under the aegis of Alfred H Barr Jr works by then little known American artists including Pollock de Kooning Smith Arshile Gorky and Adolph Gottlieb began to enter the Museum's collection These ambitious acquisition initiatives continued throughout the second half of the last century and produced a collection of Abstract Expressionist art with a breadth and depth unrivalled by any museum in the world With an essay by Ann Temkin Abstract Expressionism at The Museum of Modern Art celebrates the Museum's holdings from this epochal moment in the history of art and the institution like no other book

Graphic Modernism Art Institute of Chicago,2003 This exhibition catalog highlights a recent gift of works on paper to the Art Institute of Chicago from the Gecht family longtime Chicago collectors The catalog comprises 135 drawings prints and sculptures from the collection all of which embody a broad definition of Modernism The book spans two centuries and contains artists such as Cezanne and Van Gogh

as well as Mark Rothko and Philip Guston Toulouse Lautrec Matisse and Picasso form the backbone of the collection with nearly 30 works of art apiece Suzanne Folds McCullagh curator of prints drawings Art Inst of Chicago provides a short introductory essay that tracks the evolution of the collection Authored by a bevy of contributors the well written entries maintain a consistent tone and quality and strike a good balance between biographical information and interpretations of the work of art itself While the Gecht collection is certainly quite a boon for the institute it is not comprehensive enough in itself to make the catalog essential for all art libraries It does however belong on library shelves with strong modern art and graphics collections Kraig A Binkowski Delaware Art Museum Wilmington 135 colour illustrations Abstract

Expressionism Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), Lisa Mintz Messinger, 1992 Abstract Expressionist works on paper from the permanent collection of The Metropolitan Museum of Art are presented in this volume which documents the wealth of the Museum's holdings in that area Many of them are published here for the first time and several are recent additions to the collection All are illustrated in full page color reproductions that show the nuances of each work in great detail The Abstract Expressionists are best known for their paintings and sculptures and virtually all of the many publications about these artists concentrate on those large scale works This unique catalogue deals exclusively with their smaller more intimate works on paper providing many new insights about the routes that led to the Abstract Expressionists innovative artistic accomplishments The nineteen artists included are William Baziotes James Brooks Elaine de Kooning Willem de Kooning Arshile Gorky Adolph Gottlieb Philip Guston Gerome Kamrowski Franz Kline Robert Motherwell Barnett Newman Jackson Pollock Richard Pousette Dart Theodore Roszak Mark Rothko Anne Ryan David Smith Theodoros Stamos and Mark Tobey Each of them is discussed in a separate essay which encompasses information about the artist's background and development commentary about the importance of drawing in his or her oeuvre and an analysis of each work in the selection Also included in the essays is technical information about a number of the individual works that enhances understanding of the variety and originality of these artists media and techniques
