concepts which inform Bakhtin's world view as profoundly as they influence his biography

Arnett, 2008 This volume occasions a dialogue between major authors in the field who engage in a conversation on cosmopolitanism and provinciality from a communication ethics perspective There is no consensus on what constitutes communication ethics cosmopolitanism or provinciality the task is more modest and diverse and began with contributors being asked what the bias of their work suggests or offers for understanding the theme Communication Ethics Between Cosmopolitanism and Provinciality Rather than responding authoritatively each essay acknowledges the contributor's own work This book offers no answers but invites a conversation that is more akin to a beginning a joining an admission that there is more than me us or my kind of people theory or wisdom The book will be an excellent resource for instructors and for upper level undergraduate and graduate courses in communication

The Reading of

Theoretical Texts Peter Ekegren, 2002-01-04 Since the structuralist debates of the 1970s the field of textual analysis has largely remained the preserve of literary theorists. Social scientists while accepting that observation is theory laden have tended to take the meaning of texts as given and to explain differences of interpretation either in terms of ignorance or bias. In this important contribution to methodological debate Peter Ekegren uses developments within literary criticism, philosophy and critical theory to reclaim this study for the social sciences and to illuminate the ways in which different readings of a single text are created and defended.

Towards a New Material Aesthetics Alastair Renfrew, 2006 Set in the context of the various materialist approaches to literary aesthetics that emerged in the twentieth century Renfrew's study presents a new synthesis of the work of Mikhail Bakhtin 1895-1975 and his circle. Russian Formalism and elements of the official ideology of the early Soviet period. The book's central aim in offering such a synthesis is to negotiate the poles of postmodernist subjectivism and traditional materialism around which much current literary and critical theory has stagnated and as the title suggests to point the way towards a newly conceived material basis for textual and literary analysis.

Handbook of Phenomenology and Medicine S. Kay Toombs, 2012-12-06 As the fields of philosophy of medicine and bioethics have developed in the United States the philosophical perspective of phenomenology has been largely ignored. Yet the central conviction that informs this volume is that phenomenology provides extraordinary insights into many of the issues that are directly addressed within the world of medicine. Such issues include the nature of medicine itself, the distinction between immediate experience and scientific conceptualization, the nature of the body and the implications of embodiment in the realm of clinical practice, the meaning of health, illness and disease, the problem of intersubjectivity particularly with respect to achieving successful communication with another, the complexity of decision making in the clinical context and in the realm of medical ethics, the possibility of empathic understanding, the theory and method of clinical practice and the essential characteristics of the therapeutic relationship, i.e. the relationship between the sick person and the one who professes to help. Some of the authors who have contributed to this volume are philosophers, some are engaged in other academic disciplines and several are practicing healthcare professionals.

The Last Soviet Avant-Garde Graham Roberts, 1997-06-05 A comprehensive study of the OBERIU group of avant garde Soviet writers.

Late Soviet Culture Thomas Lahusen, Gene Kuperman, 1993 As the Soviet Union dissolved so did the visions of past and future that informed Soviet culture. With Dystopia left behind and Utopia forsaken where do the writers, artists and critics who once inhabited them stand? In an advancing present answers editor Thomas Lahusen. Just what that present might be in literature and film, criticism and theory, philosophy and psychoanalysis and in the politics that somehow speaks to all of these is the subject of this collection of essays. Leading scholars from the former Soviet Union and the West gather here to consider the fate of the people and institutions that constituted Soviet culture. Whether the speculative glance goes back to czarist Russia or Soviet Freudianism to the history of aesthetics or the sociology of cinema in the 1930s or forward to the market, Stalinism, one writer predicts or the open text of history another advocates a sense of immediacy or history in the making animates this volume Will social and cultural institutions now develop organically the authors ask or is the society faced with the prospect of even more radical reforms Does the present rupture mark the real moment of Russia's encounter with modernity The options explored by literary historians film scholars novelists and political scientists make this book a heady tour of cultural possibilities An expanded version of a special issue of South Atlantic Quarterly Spring 1991 with seven new essays Late Soviet Culture will stimulate scholar and general reader alike Contributors Katerina Clark Paul Debreczeny Evgeny Dobrenko Mikhail Epstein Renata Galtseva Helena Goscilo Michael Holquist Boris Kagarlitsky Mikhail Kuraev Thomas Lahusen Valery Leibin Sidney Monas Valery Podoroga Donald Raleigh Irina Rodnyanskaya Maya Turovskaya The Ethics of Nonfiction George H. Jensen, 2023-10-23 This book explores issues of identity ethics and epistemology that arise around the writing and reception of creative nonfiction It examines a range of different nonfiction forms including the personal essay and memoir and ethical questions that arise in relation to them such as truth claims the confessional mode counter narratives Drawing on the ideas of Bakhtin Nietzsche and Foucault examples from creative nonfiction writers such as Strayed and Knausgaard and the founding principles of the originators of the genre Seneca Augustine and Montaigne George Jensen argues that a limited conception of nonfiction leads to a limited view of its ethics Writing about the truth in an authentic way is more important than ever before and essential to this is the creation of the ethical subject Shakespeare, St Paul, and Dramatic Emancipation Randall Martin, 2025-09-04 Shakespeare St Paul and Dramatic Emancipation Disability Gender Race Ecology breaks new ground by revealing the playwright's dramatic reinvention of early modern Pauline texts and paratexts in a wide range of plays Their common thread is Pauline allusive characters who resist political social and or physical subjection and aspire with mixed degrees of failure and success to emancipated lives of fulfilled being and belonging Historically contextualized case studies of Henry VI Part Three and Richard III Twelfth Night The Comedy of Errors Pericles The Winter's Tale The Tempest and King John explore desires for freedom on authorial and theatrical as well as thematic levels They seek out new critical directions by bringing posttypological and postsecular Pauline Shakespeare into conversation with contemporary theories of disability gender race and ecocriticism A further original feature of the book is intertextual attention to parallel critical approaches to St Paul by several early modern women writers Shakespeare St Paul and Dramatic Emancipation rediscovers a polyvocal complex and emancipatory Paul as a significant career long resource for the playwright's innovative characterization and dramaturgy Shapes of Openness Matthew Leone, 2010-01-08 Bakhtin and Lawrence share remarkable affinities Bakhtinian dialogism is effectively a philosophy of potentiality and Lawrence or at least the Lawrence who authored Women in Love may well be its High Priest Both thinkers address questions of unity newness and the creative process In this study they enter into complementary genuinely Bakhtinian dialogue one in which The word in language is half someone else's One surprising result of this comparative examination is that some prevalent deeply damaging biases about Lawrence are undermined Is he a misogynist or is he essentially as he seems evidently to fear in Women in Love and rather consistently elsewhere an over compensating momma's boy Here Bakhtinian theory is used as a means of testing pertinent criticism of Lawrence and it provides a detailed conceptual basis for the readings of his fiction that follow Is Women in Love a Bakhtinian open totality How is dialogic openness as opposed to modernist indeterminacy a form shaping ideology of comic interrogation Is Women in Love not only open ended and unresolved but also about its open endedness or unfinalizability In methods and meanings in forming depths and explicit surfaces this study explores the sum and substance of the novel's dialogicality and finds that the shape of its dialogic openness is interrogative Indeed in Women in Love characters are identified by the self shaping questions they ask How much do you love me asks Gudrun of Gerald whose What do women want at the bottom like Ursula's Do you really love me have surprisingly revelatory depths Birkin's ludicrously encompassing and apocalyptic Is our day of creative life finished not only expresses a fundamental authorial narrative intention it simultaneously and self correctively mocks itself for so doing and does so in ways that may well suggest intuitive insights into the nature of Bakhtinian carnival laughter In large measure character in the Bakhtinian framework appropriated by this study is essentially a question personified one that is made to walk and talk so to speak within the intersecting chronotopes or time space zones of the novel Such ambulatory interrogations then either connect or fail to do so with other characters as questions in living conversation Women in Love achieves a polyphonic or dialogic openness one that Lawrence in his later fictions cannot always sustain Subsequent to it univocal simplifying organizations in his work supervene In his later fictions dialogic process collapses into a stenographic report upon completed dialogue over which the travel writer the poet or the messianic martyr preside There are nevertheless even in his later works happy exceptions to this diminution of dialogic vitality Lawrence's consummate dialogic openness of thought and expression can be discerned in the ambivalent laughter of The Captain's Doll of St Mawr and of The Man Who Loved Islands In these retrospective variations on earlier themes laughing openness of vision takes new unfinalizable or open shapes
