Art And Cartography Six Historical Essays:

Art and Cartography David Woodward, 1987-02 The contributors Svetlana Alpers Samuel Y Edgerton Jr Ulla Ehrensvar Juergen Schulz James A Welu and David Woodward examine the historical links between art and cartography from varied perspectives Art and Cartography, 1987 Cartography in France, 1660-1848 Josef Konvitz, 1987 French scientists engineers and public officials were responsible for the most important and distinctive innovations in cartography in eighteenth century Europe By expanding the analytical uses of maps by establishing unprecedented standards of accuracy and by nurturing institutional frameworks to sustain mapping projects over many years the French contributed to one of the central concepts of modern times that man through direct observation and accumulated information can better understand and manage his affairs Concentrating on how and why new concepts and techniques of making and using maps were introduced Josef Konvitz skillfully traces the modernization of cartography during the French Enlightenment The story he unfolds is not merely a narrative of who did what but an analysis of how the map itself influenced attitudes toward the land and the consequent effects on planning and the development of resources Throughout Konvitz demonstrates the significant relationship between cartography and political economic and military life He emphasizes efforts to enlarge the practical applications of maps in government and the impact of government policy on the evolution of cartography Early American Cartographies Martin Brückner, 2012-12-01 Maps were at the heart of cultural life in the Americas from before colonization to the formation of modern nation states The fourteen essays in Early American Cartographies examine indigenous and European peoples creation and use of maps to better represent and understand the world they inhabited Drawing from both current historical interpretations and new interdisciplinary perspectives this collection provides diverse approaches to understanding the multilayered exchanges that went into creating cartographic knowledge in and about the Americas In the introduction editor Martin Bruckner provides a critical assessment of the concept of cartography and of the historiography of maps The individual essays then range widely over space and place from the imperial reach of Iberian and British cartography to indigenous conceptualizations including dirty ephemeral maps and star charts to demonstrate that pre nineteenth century American cartography was at once a multiform and multicultural affair This volume not only highlights the collaborative genesis of cartographic knowledge about the early Americas the essays also bring to light original archives and innovative methodologies for investigating spatial relations among peoples in the western hemisphere Taken together the authors reveal the roles of early American cartographies in shaping popular notions of national space informing visual perception animating literary imagination and structuring the political history of Anglo and Ibero America The contributors are Martin Bruckner University of Delaware Michael J Drexler Bucknell University Matthew H Edney University of Southern Maine Jess Edwards Manchester Metropolitan University Junia Ferreira Furtado Universidade Federal de Minas Gerais Brazil William Gustav Gartner University of Wisconsin Madison Gavin Hollis Hunter College of the City University of New York

Scott Lehman independent scholar Ken MacMillan University of Calgary Barbara E Mundy Fordham University Andrew Newman Stony Brook University Ricardo Padron University of Virginia Judith Ridner Mississippi State University The Sovereign Map Christian Jacob, 2006-10-15 Publisher Description City/Stage/Globe D.J. Hopkins, 2013-09-13 This interdisciplinary study theorizes the interaction of individual performance and social space Examining three categories of space the urban the theatrical and the cartographic this volume considers the role of performance in the production and operation of these spaces during a period in London s history defined roughly by the life of Shakespeare City Stage Globe not only organizes a selection of plays pageants maps and masques in the historical and cultural contexts in which they emerged but also uses performance theory to locate the ways in which these seemingly ephemeral events contributed to lasting change in the spatial concepts and physical topography of early modern London The Cosmographia of Sebastian Münster Matthew McLean, 2016-03-23 Sebastian Münster s Cosmographia was an immensely influential book that attempted to describe the entire world across all of human history and analyse its constituent elements of geography history ethnography zoology and botany First published in 1544 it went through thirty five editions and was published in five languages making it one of the most important books of the Reformation period Beginning with a biographical study of Sebastian Münster his life and the range of his scholarly work this book then moves on to discuss the genre of cosmography The bulk of the book however deals with the Cosmographia itself offering a close reading of the 1550 Latin edition the last and definitive edition worked upon by Münster By analysing the contents of the Cosmographia it attempts to recreate how the world of the sixteenth century appeared to a scholar living in Basel and understand what he saw and heard Through this examination of Münster his publications and scholarly networks the conflicts and continuities between medieval scholarly traditions and the widening horizons of the sixteenth century are explored and revealed Of interest to scholars of humanist culture the Reformation and book history this ambitious work throws into relief previously overlooked aspects of the intellectual and religious culture of the time Looking for Longitude Katy Barrett, 2022-11-17 Why make a joke out of a niche and complex scientific problem That is the question at the heart of this book which unearths the rich and surprising history of trying to find longitude at sea in the eighteenth century Not simply a history on water this is the story of longitude on paper of the discussions satires diagrams engravings novels plays poems and social anxieties that shaped how people understood longitude in William Hogarth s London We start from a figure in one of Hogarth s prints a lunatic incarcerated in the madhouse of A Rake s Progress in 1735 to unpick the visual mental and social concerns which entwined around the national concern to find a solution to longitude Why does longitude appear in novels smutty stories political critiques copyright cases religious tracts and dictionaries as much as in government papers This sheds new light on the first government scientific funding body the Board of Longitude established to administer vast reward money for anyone who found a means of accurately measuring longitude at sea Meet the cast of characters involved in the search for longitude from famous novelists

and artists to almost unknown pamphleteers and inventors and see how their interactions informed the fate of longitude's most famous pursuer the clockmaker John Harrison

Fundamentals of Cartography (Second Revised and Enlarged Edition) R.P. Misra, 2014-01-01 The first edition of Fundamentals of Cartography was published in 1969 by Prasara University of Mysore It was reprinted by the Concept Publishing Company New Delhi in While the book remained in currency the cartographic processes changed drastically when information technology brought a sea of change in the sources of information drafting of maps and printing processes Drawing maps by hand became obsolete surveying whether ground or aerial was no longer the only major source of information In view of these changes it became necessary to bring out a new edition Realising that unless one knows directions scales projections coordinates ground and air surveys one would fail to understand the proper use of modern information technology in the drawing the maps Thus the contents of 1969 edition are retained and new chapters have been added to update the book In Part II of the book a chapter on Remote Sensing and Satellite Imagery has been added and Part V contains chapters on Computer Aided Cartography Geographic Information System GIS Land Information System LIS and Global Positioning System GPS

The Cartographic State Jordan Branch, 2014 This book describes the emergence of the territorial state and examines the role that cartography has played in shaping its linear boundaries

Intellectual and Imaginative Cartographies in Early Modern England Patrick Murray, 2022-08-05 Taking as its focus an age of transformational development in cartographic history namely the two centuries between Columbus's arrival in the New World and the emergence of the Scientific Revolution this study examines how maps were employed as physical and symbolic objects by thinkers writers and artists It surveys how early modern people used the map as an object whether for enjoyment or political campaigning colonial invasion or teaching in the classroom Exploring a wide range of literature from educational manifestoes to the plays of Marlowe and Shakespeare it suggests that the early modern map was as diverse and various as the rich culture from which it emerged and was imbued with a whole range of political social literary and personal impulses Intellectual and Imaginative Cartographies in Early Modern England 1550-1700 will appeal to all those interested in the History of Cartography

Rome Measured and Imagined Jessica Maier, 2015-05-07 At the turn of the fifteenth century Rome was in the midst of a dramatic transformation from what the fourteenth century poet Petrarch had termed a crumbling city populated by broken ruins into a prosperous Christian capital Scholars artists architects and engineers fascinated by Rome were spurred to develop new graphic modes for depicting the city and the genre known as the city portrait exploded In Rome Measured and Imagined Jessica Maier explores the history of this genre which merged the accuracy of scientific endeavor with the imaginative aspects of art during the rise of Renaissance print culture Through an exploration of works dating from the fifteenth to the eighteenth centuries her book interweaves the story of the city portrait with that of Rome itself Highly interdisciplinary and beautifully illustrated with nearly one hundred city portraits Rome Measured and Imagined advances the scholarship on Renaissance Rome and print culture in fascinating ways Mapping Latin America Jordana Dym, Karl Offen, 2011-12-01 For many a map is nothing more than a tool used to determine the location or distribution of something a country a city or a natural resource But maps reveal much more to really read a map means to examine what it shows and what it doesn't and to ask who made it why and for whom The contributors to this new volume ask these sorts of questions about maps of Latin America and in doing so illuminate the ways cartography has helped to shape this region from the Rio Grande to Patagonia In Mapping Latin America Jordana Dym and Karl Offen bring together scholars from a wide range of disciplines to examine and interpret more than five centuries of Latin American maps Individual chapters take on maps of every size and scale and from a wide variety of mapmakers from the hand drawn maps of Native Americans to those by famed explorers such as Alexander von Humboldt to those produced in today's newspapers and magazines for the general public The maps collected here and the interpretations that accompany them provide an excellent source to help readers better understand how Latin American countries regions provinces and municipalities came to be defined measured organized occupied settled disputed and understood that is how they came to have specific meanings to specific people at specific moments in time The first book to deal with the broad sweep of mapping activities across Latin America this lavishly illustrated volume will be required reading for students and scholars of geography and Latin American history and anyone interested in understanding the significance of maps in human cultures and societies The Medieval Expansion of Europe J. R. S. Phillips, 1998 Between the year 1000 and the middle of the fourteenth century a remarkable series of events unfolded as Europeans made contact with a very substantial part of the inhabited world much of it never previously known to or suspected by them Leif Ericsson and other Vikings from Greenland discovered North America European crusading armies established themselves in Syria and Palestine Marco Polo and other Italian merchants and missionaries such as John of Monte Corvino penetrated the dominions of the Mongol great Khans as far as China the Vivaldi brothers sought to open a sea route to India Jaime Ferrer was lured by dreams of locating the source of West African gold and the Atlantic island groups the canaries Madeira and the Azores were all discovered For this Clarendon Paperback edition Professor Phillips has added a new Foreword and Conclusion as well as a bibliographical essay surveying recent work in what is becoming a thriving area of research The Poetry of Place Louisa MacKenzie, 2011-04-23 The sixteenth century in France was marked by religious warfare and shifting political and physical landscapes Between 1549 and 1584 however the Pléiade poets including Pierre de Ronsard Joachim Du Bellay Remy Belleau and Antoine de Baïf produced some of the most abiding and irenic depictions of rural French landscapes ever written In The Poetry of Place Louisa Mackenzie reveals and analyzes the cultural history of French paysage through her study of lyric poetry and its connections with landscape painting cartography and land use history In the face of destructive environmental change lyric poets in Renaissance France often wrote about idealized physical spaces reclaiming the altered landscape to counteract the violence and loss of the period and creating in the process what Mackenzie following David Harvey terms spaces of hope This unique alliance of French Renaissance studies with cultural geography and eco criticism demonstrates that sixteenth century poetry created a powerful sense of place which continues to inform national and regional sentiment today

Venice & Antiquity Patricia Fortini Brown,1996-01-01 Inscriptions medals and travelers accounts on more learned humanist and antiquarian writings and most importantly on the art of the period Brown explores Venice s evolving sense of the past She begins with the late middle ages when Venice sought to invent a dignified civic past by means of object image and text Moving on to the fourteenth and fifteenth centuries she discusses the collecting and recording of antiquities and the incorporation of Roman forms

Advances in Cartography and GIScience. Volume 1 Anne Ruas,2011-05-02 This book is comprised of a selection of the best papers presented during the 25th International Cartography Conference which was held in Paris between 3rd and 8th July 2011 The scope of the conference covers all fields of relevant GIS and Mapping research subjects such as geovisualization semiotics SDI standards data quality data integration generalization use and user issues spatio temporal modelling and analysis open source technologies and web services digital representation of historical maps history of GIS and cartography as well as cartography for school children and education

Vision in Context Teresa Brennan,Martin Jay,2013-09-05 Vision and the gaze are key issues in the analysis of racism sexism and ethnocentrism In recent radical theory generally and French theory in particular vision has been seen as a means of control But this view is often unnuanced It bypasses questions such as Why is it that contemporary theories have been so critical of vision and generous towards listening in psychoanalysis and language in philosophy This collection of original essays brings together historical studies and contemporary theoretical perspectives on vision The historical papers focus in turn on Ancient Greece medieval theology the Renaissance the Enlightenment and the nineteenth century These historical studies are themselves thoroughly informed by poststructuralist theory They provide a rigorous background for several new exciting articles on vision and its bearings for feminism race sexual orientation film and art This collection is the first of its kind in juxtaposing historical and contemporary

Dosso Dossi Peter Humfrey,Dosso Dossi,Mauro Lucco,Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.),J. Paul Getty Museum,1998 Dosso s rich color schemes are akin to those of his fellow North Italian Titian he learned something about innovative composition from Raphael and about the force of the body from Michelangelo But his paintings have a very individual appeal In leafy natural surroundings containing an array of animals and heavenly bodies events unfold that are often enigmatic enacted by characters whose interrelationships elude definition

City Views in the Habsburg and Medici Courts Ryan E. Gregg,2018-12-10 In City Views in the Habsburg and Medici Courts Ryan E Gregg relates how Charles V Holy Roman Emperor and Duke Cosimo I of Tuscany employed city view artists such as Anton van den Wyngaerde and Giovanni Stradano to aid in constructing authority These artists produced a specific style of city view that shared affinity with Renaissance historiographic practice in its use of optical evidence and rhetorical techniques History has tended to see city views as accurate recordings of built environments Bringing together ancient and Renaissance texts archival material and fieldwork in the depicted locations Gregg demonstrates that a close knit school of city view artists instead manipulated settings to help persuade audiences of the truthfulness of their patrons official narratives
