H. Bleaney, Pablo García Suárez, 2012 Following the tradition and style of the acclaimed Index Islamicus the editors have created this new Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World The editors have surveyed and annotated a wide range of books and articles from collected volumes and journals published in all European languages except Turkish between 1906 and 2011 This comprehensive bibliography is an indispensable tool for everyone involved in the study of material culture in Muslim societies Ideas About Art Kathleen K. Desmond, 2011-05-06 Ideas About Art is an intelligent accessible introductory text for students interested in learning how to think about aesthetics It uses stories drawn from the experiences of individuals involved in the arts as a means of exposing readers to the philosophies theories and arguments that shape and drive visual art An accessible story driven introduction to aesthetic theory and philosophy Prompts readers to develop independent ideas about aesthetics this is a guide on how to think not what to think Includes discussions of non western contemporary and discipline specific theories Examines a range of art based dilemmas across a wide variety of disciplines from art and design and law to visual and museum studies TV by Design Lynn Spigel, 2008 From the Publisher While critics have long disparaged commercial television as a vast wasteland TV has surprising links to the urbane world of modern art that stretch back to the 1950s and 60s during that era the rapid rise of commercial television coincided with dynamic new movements in the visual arts a potent combination that precipitated a major shift in the way Americans experienced the world visually TV by Design uncovers this captivating story of how modernism and network television converged and intertwined in their mutual ascent during the decades of the cold war Whereas most histories of television focus on the way older forms of entertainment were recycled for the new medium Lynn Spigel shows how TV was instrumental in introducing the public to the latest trends in art and design Abstract expressionism pop art art cinema modern architecture and cutting edge graphic design were all mined for staging techniques scenic designs and an ever growing number of commercials As a result TV helped fuel the public craze for trendy modern products such as tailfin cars and boomerang coffee tables that was vital to the burgeoning postwar economy And along with influencing the look of television many artists including Eero Saarinen Ben Shahn Saul Bass William Golden and Richard Avedon also participated in its creation as the networks put them to work designing everything from their corporate headquarters to their company cufflinks Dizzy Gillespie Ernie Kovacs Duke Ellington and Andy Warhol all stop by in this imaginative and winning account of the ways in which art television and commerce merged in the first decades of the TV age

Trading on Art Sarah E.K. Smith, 2025-05-01 The 1989 Canada US Free Trade Agreement and 1994 North American Free Trade Agreement reinvented the concept of North America as a cohesive whole united by free trade But within the bold concept of continental unity lay a paradox While art was mobilized to frame the new narrative culture itself was explicitly excluded from the agreements that implemented this vision Trading on Art brings culture to the fore by examining how artworks exhibitions and museum programs from the 1980s to 2010

mediated North American free trade from government supported cultural diplomacy initiatives to activist art that confronted impending US hegemony Sarah E K Smith reveals how Canadian artists engaged with contested and reflected on free trade paying particular attention to the ways in which art was used to forge ties between Canada and Mexico and to circulate ideas about North American identity Her nuanced analysis convincingly makes the case for the centrality of art in conceptualizing continental unity
