Hunting the Collectors Susan Cochrane, Max Quanchi, 2014-11-10 This volume investigates Pacific collections held in Australian museums art galleries and archives and the diverse group of 19th and 20th century collectors responsible for their acquisition The nineteen essays reveal varied

personal and institutional motivations that eventually led to the conservation preservation and exhibition in Australia of a remarkable archive of Pacific Island material objects art and crafts photographs and documents Hunting the Collectors benchmarks the importance of Pacific Collections in Australia and is a timely contribution to the worldwide renaissance of interest in Oceanic arts and cultures The essays suggest that the custodial role is not fixed and immutable but fluctuates with the perceived importance of the collection which in turn fluctuates with the level of national interest in the Pacific neighbourhood This cyclical rise and fall of Australian interest in the Pacific Islands means many of the valuable early collections in state and later national repositories and institutions have been rarely exhibited or published But as the authors note enthusiastic museum anthropologists curators collection managers and university based scholars across Australia and worldwide have persisted with research on material collected in the Pacific This volume is a very important one for anyone studying the art and material culture of the Pacific It focuses on collections now in Australia Even those well versed in museum collections from the Pacific will learn about many important but little known collectors as well as better known figures like the anthropologists F E Williams and Thomas Farrell the husband of Queen Emma This will be a treat for students and specialist alike Professor Robert L Welsch University of Dartmouth Pacific Arts ,2002 Dancing with Difference Linda Ashley,2012-12-09 As the global vicissitudes of migration unfold so does ethnic difference in the classroom and this book offers a timely examination of teaching about culturally different dances At a time when the world of dance is on the one hand seemingly becoming more like fusion cookery there is another faction promoting isolation and preservation of tradition How if at all may these two worlds co exist in dance education Understanding teaching about culturally different dances from postmodern postcolonial pluralist and critical perspectives creates an urgent demand to develop relevant pedagogy in dance education What is required to support dance educators into the next phase of dance education so as to avoid teaching from within a Eurocentric creative dance model alone An ethnographic investigation with teachers in New Zealand lays a foundation for the examination of issues challenges and opportunities associated with teaching about culturally different dances Concerns and issues surrounding notions of tradition innovation appropriation interculturalism social justice and critical pedagogy emerge Engaging with both practice and theory is a priority in this book and a nexus model in which the theoretical fields of critical cultural theory semiotics ethnography and anthropology can be activated as teachers teach is proposed as informing approaches to teaching about culturally different dances Even though some practical suggestions for teaching are presented the main concern is to motivate further thinking and research into teaching about dancing with cultural difference Cover photo Photo credit lester de Vere photography ltd Dancing with Difference 2009 Directed and co choreographed for AUT University Bachelor of Dance by Linda Ashley with Jonelle Kawana Yoon jee Lee Keneti Muaiava Aya Nakamura Siauala Nili Valance Smith Sakura Stirling and dancers Won first prize in the 2009 Viva Eclectika Aotearoa s Intercultural Dance and Music Biennial Challenge run by NZ Asia Association Inc NZ and the NZ
