Sotheby's, 1974      Law, Ethics, and the Visual Arts John Henry Merryman, Albert Edward Elsen, Stephen K.
Urice, 2007-01-01 This book describes the collisions between the art world and the law with a critical eye through a combination of primary source materials excerpts from professional and art journals and extensive textual notes Topics analysed include the fate of works of art in wartime the international trade in stolen and illegally exported cultural property artistic freedom censorship and state support for art and artists copyright droit moral and droit de suite the artist's professional life and death collectors in the art market income and estate taxation charitable donations and works of art and art museums and their collections The authors are recognised experts in the field who have defined the canon in many aspects of art law      A New Economic Theory of Public Support for the Arts Arnaldo Barone, 2015-12-14 Should the arts receive public support Can the arts survive in a modern capitalist society Can economics shed light on the nature of public support and whether there is a rationale for public intervention This book undertakes to examine these questions as it explores the ways government and public resources are used to support the arts This book applies a Veblenian approach to understanding economic development to investigate public support for the arts in an effort to determine whether this approach can elucidate economic rationales for public support Divided into three parts the first provides basic information on public support for the arts by surveying support in the United States and Australia Part two includes a neoclassical overview of the topic while part three presents Veblen's ideas on economic development This book will be of interests to researchers concerned with cultural and institutional economics as well as political economy      Pedigree and Panache Shireen Huda, 2008-04-01 Art auctions have long captured the public imagination They regularly make news headlines and have become synonymous with glamour money and social distinction The marketing of auction houses and the works they sell has resulted in firms attaining authoritative positions and the ability both to influence and reflect collecting tastes Pedigree and panache is the first comprehensive history of the art auction in Australia In this fascinating work Shireen Huda investigates the construction of the glamorous reputation of art auctions and art auction houses Featuring absorbing case studies of key art auctions and major art auction houses in Australia including Christies Sothebys and Deutscher Menzies the work provides an overview of the origin and international development of art auctions The development of the Australian marketplace is then explored detailing colonial inception and continuing until Christies withdrawal of its saleroom presence in 2006
