

MINDS ON – ART INQUIRY

- In small groups you will be given a piece of Indigenous art. You can look up the source on your phones to see it in colour if you wish.
 - Your job is to create questions based on this piece of art. Basically, what do you want to know?
 - Keep the concepts of worldview, creation stories/myth, values of land and place/exile in mind.

Art Inquiry:

The Language of Art Ann Pelo, 2007-07-16 Incorporate inquiry based practices into your early childhood classroom or family child care program Inspired by an approach to teaching and learning born in Reggio Emilia Italy The Language of Art emphasizes investigation anchored by drawing painting and other art activities It provides advice on setting up a studio space for art and inquiry studio explorations designed to give children a basic fluency in art suggestions for documenting children s developing fluency with art media and its use in inquiry guidelines for using children s new found fluency as a tool for investigation Even if you use a space not designed specifically for art instruction or even for an early childhood program The Language of Art shows how you can simply start where you are

Art Practice as Research Graeme Sullivan, 2005 This book will publish in a new edition on December 1 2009 We are no longer supplying instructors with complimentary review copies of this edition If you need an urgent desk copy of the existing edition for a class this semester please call 1 800 818 7243 and we will be pleased to process your request In this rich and layered reflection on visual arts practice as research Graeme Sullivan launches a passionate and convincing case that rewrites the definitions of art and research as it unapologetically claims for the visual arts the respect and admiration of the academy Jessica Hoffman Davis Harvard University Art Practice as Research Inquiry in the Visual Arts presents a compelling argument that the creative and cultural inquiry undertaken by artists is a form of research The text explores themes practices and contexts of artistic inquiry and positions them within the discourse of research Author Graeme Sullivan argues that legitimate research goals can be achieved by choosing different methods than those offered by the social sciences The common denominator in both approaches is the attention given to rigor and systematic inquiry Artists emphasize the role of the imaginative intellect in creating criticizing and constructing knowledge that is not only new but also has the capacity to transform human understanding The book is divided into three content areas that provide a unique framework for carrying out inquiry in the visual arts Contexts for Visual Arts Research is a historical review that positions the visual arts as a culturally grounded and institutionally bound area of artistic and educational inquiry Theorizing Visual Arts Practice presents the thesis that visual arts practice is a theoretically robust area of inquiry and a transformative approach to creating and critiquing knowledge Visual Arts Research Practices describes a range of strategies and approaches to planning and carrying out visual arts research is a historical review that positions the visual arts as a culturally grounded and institutionally bound area of artistic and educational inquiry Art Practice as Research is perfectly suited as a text for courses in art education the visual arts as well as general research methods courses in education and the humanities This will also be an invaluable reference for anyone with an interest in interdisciplinary research in the social sciences and the role of imaginative inquiry in human understanding A blog by Graeme Sullivan welcoming contributors interested in discussing ideas and sharing information about art as a form of research Praise for this text Sullivan challenges our assumptions about what constitutes research practices and in doing so presents a ground breaking analysis for visual arts practice as research This compelling image text book opens the possibilities for the construction of new forms of knowledge in our increasingly visual world Dipti Desai New York University Sullivan provides a timely and excellent introduction to the emerging field of visual cognition and educational research Pradeep A Dhillon University of Illinois Art Practice as Research is long overdue Graeme Sullivan eloquently crafts a methodology text and articulates for contemporary visual artist researchers how arts practices are in fact rich forms of research inquiry Rita L Irwin University of British Columbia Canada Sullivan s text is an important addition to the literature associated with research critical inquiry and arts education I wish that such a text would have been available at the time that I was working on my dissertation I will recommend it to my graduate students and colleagues Doug Blandy University of Oregon Art Practice moves through a description of accepted methods of research in the sciences A person interested in art research would be well served by the foundation Sullivan provides COMMUNICATION RESEARCH TRENDS Art Inquiry,1999 Art Practice as Research Graeme Sullivan,2010 Art Practice as Research Second Edition continues to present a compelling argument that the creative and cultural inquiry undertaken by artists is a form of research The text explores themes practices and contexts of artistic inquiry and positions them within the discourse of research Sullivan argues that legitimate research goals can be achieved by choosing different methods than those offered by the social sciences The common denominator in both approaches is the attention given to rigor and systematic inquiry Artists emphasize the role of the imaginative intellect in creating criticizing and constructing knowledge that is not only new but also has the capacity to transform human understanding Object, Image, Inquiry Elizabeth Bakewell,William O. Beeman,Carol McMichael Reese,Getty Art History Information Program,Brown University. Institute for Research in Information and Scholarship,1988 This series is a vehicle for texts generated through the experiences of writers scholars and artists who have been residents at the Getty Research Institute or involved in its programs What Happens in Art Matthew Lipman,1983 Art-based Research Shaun McNiff,1998-01-01 Art therapy and all of the other creative arts therapies have promoted themselves as ways of expressing what cannot be conveyed in conventional language Why is it that creative arts therapists fail to apply this line of thinking to research In this exciting and innovative book Shaun McNiff one of the field s pioneering educators and authors breaks new ground in defining and inspiring art based research He illustrates how practitioner researchers can become involved in art based inquiries during their educational studies and throughout their careers and shows how new types of research can be created that resonate with the artistic process Clearly and cogently expressed the theoretical arguments are illustrated by numerous case examples and the final part of the book provides a wealth of ideas and thought provoking questions for research This challenging book will prove invaluable to creative art therapy educators students and clinicians who wish to approach artistic inquiry as a way of conducting research It will also find a receptive audience within the larger research community where there is a rising commitment to expanding the theory and practice of research

Integrating artistic and scientific procedures in many novel ways this book offers fresh and productive visions of what research can be Notes Toward a Conditional Art Robert Irwin,2011 Devoted to the writings of this seminal post war American artist Fully half of these writings which span a period from the mid 1960s through the 1990s are published here for the very first time Dust jacket Arts-Based Methods in Education Research in Japan ,2022-02-22 This volume created by seventeen interdisciplinary authors brings together pioneering practices that introduce arts into education in Japan The field of research ranges from kindergarten primary and secondary school to liberal arts and postgraduate courses at university The chapters cover both formal and informal settings such as museums and after school programs The genres of art include visual art performance dance vocal music and drama Arts based or arts inspired methods help students artistic inquiry through creative or performative practices leading to new findings that might not otherwise be described Artistic practice makes students reflect on their own bodies emotions feelings ways of life and relationships with others which leads to creative thinking The volume is based on three new trends in art and education 1 the development of Arts Based Research in Japan since its introduction from abroad 2 the introduction of art practice into academic research in various disciplines and diverse educational settings and 3 the new trend in drama education and theatrical performance in Japan Each chapter inspires and provokes discussion among researchers and practitioners in various educational settings on the future direction of art education in Japan and around the world Artistic Thinking in the Schools Pamela Costes-Onishi,2019-07-11 This book examines current context specific trends and developments in empirical research on arts education and arts in education in order to evaluate and create responsive approaches to future global challenges By highlighting the centrality of the arts in advancing future orientations in education it offers a timely and valuable contribution to educational issues on preparing teachers and learners for the increasingly complex societal dynamics and unpredictable global economy A Glimpse at the Art of Japan James Jackson Jarves,1876 Revised Statutes of the United States, Passed at the First Session of the Forty-third Congress, 1873-74; Embracing the Statutes of the United States, General and Permanent in Their Nature, in Force an the First Day of December, One Thoosand Eight Hundred and Seventy-three, as Revised and Consolidated by Commissioners Appointed Under an Act of Congress (etc.). Mit 2 Suppl.-Vol [Anonymus AC10343482],1875 Marketing the Arts Finola Kerrigan,Chloe Preece,2022-12-20 With contributions from international scholars of marketing and consumer studies this renowned text engages directly with a range of contemporary themes including The importance of arts consumption and its socio cultural political and economic dimensions The impact of new technologies platforms and alternative artforms on the art market The importance of the aesthetic experience itself and how to research it The value of arts based methods The art versus commerce debate The artist as entrepreneur The role of the arts marketer as market maker This fully updated new edition covers digital trends in the arts and emerging technologies including virtual reality streaming services and branded entertainment It also broadens the scope of investigation beyond the West looking to film in emerging markets such as China music in Sub Saharan Africa and indigenous art in Australia Alongside in depth theoretical analysis this edition of Marketing the Arts takes inspiration from the creativity inherent in current artistic practice to demonstrate a plurality of approaches and methodologies Marketing the Arts Breaking Boundaries is core reading for advanced undergraduate and postgraduate students studying arts marketing and management Online resources include chapter by chapter PowerPoint slides and questions for class discussion An Apprehensive Aesthetic Andrew McNamara,2009 The book was awarded The Art Association of Australia and New Zealand Book Prize in 2010 Art continues to bemuse and confuse many people today Yet its critical analyses are saturated with daunting analyses of contemporary art s exhaustion its predictability or its absorption into global commercial culture In this book the author seeks to clarify this apprehensive perception of art He argues it is a consequence not only of confounding art works but also of the paradoxical impetus of a culture of modernity By positively reassessing the perplexing or apprehensive features of cultural modernity as well as of aesthetic inquiry this book rede nes the ambitions of art in the wake of this legacy In the process it challenges many familiar approaches to art inquiry in order to offer a new understanding of the aesthetic social and cultural aspirations of art in our time Climate Change and Environmental Concerns: Breakthroughs in Research and Practice Management Association, Information Resources,2018-04-06 The existence of the human race has created inevitable effects on our surrounding environment To prevent further harm to the world s ecosystems it becomes imperative to assess mankind s impact on and create sustainability initiatives to maintain the world s ecosystems Climate Change and Environmental Concerns Breakthroughs in Research and Practice is a comprehensive reference source for the latest scholarly material on the environmental effects of climate change on human health and the mitigation of climate change on both a local and global level Highlighting a range of pertinent topics such as sustainable land use greenhouse gas effects and environmental education this publication is ideally designed for policy makers professionals government officials upper level students and academics interested in emerging research on climate change An Audience of Artists Catherine Craft,2012-05-30 An Audience of Artists turns this time line for the postwar New York art world on its head presenting a new pedigree for these artistic movements Drawing on an array of previously unpublished material Catherine Craft reveals that Neo Dada far from being a reaction to Abstract Expressionism actually originated at the heart of that movement s concerns about viewers originality and artists debts to the past and one another Furthermore she argues the original Dada movement was not incompatible with Abstract Expressionism In fact Dada provided a vital historical reference for artists and critics seeking to come to terms with the radical departure from tradition that Abstract Expressionism seemed to represent Tracing the activities of artists such as Robert Motherwell Barnett Newman and Jackson Pollock alongside Marcel Duchamp s renewed embrace of Dada in the late 1940s Craft explores the challenges facing artists trying to work in the wake of a destructive world war and the paintings objects writings and installations that resulted from their efforts Jacket Handbook of
