Peltier, 1794 Medieval Exegesis, vol. 3 Henri de Lubac, 2009-09-01 For many years biblical scholars were convinced that the Middle Ages was marked by a so called pre critical understanding of the Bible with only a handful of isolated exceptions like Andrew of St Victor popping up as precursors of the historical critical method Here however Henri de Lubac draws on extensive documentation to demonstrate that even among the Victorines traditional exegesis involving an interplay between the literal and spiritual senses of Scripture is a constant throughout medieval exegesis The one exception a radically important one de Lubac readily admits was Joachim of Flora whose doctrine is considered in the final chapter of this volume This third English volume of de Lubac s monumental Medieval Exegesis covers volume 2 part 1 of his French volume and includes both the original Latin notes and an English version of the sources Elements of the Roman History, in English and French William Cobbett, 1829 Reparation, Restitution, and the Politics of Memory / Réparation, restitution et les politiques de la mémoire Mario Laarmann, Clément Ndé Fongang, Carla Seemann, Laura Vordermayer, 2023-04-03 Over the past roughly two decades the interconnected concepts of reparation restitution and commemorative culture have gained renewed momentum in academic discourse as much as in activist artistic and political contexts This development insists on a critique of the material and systemic conditions of societies and global relations In their 2018 report on the restitution of looted cultural artifacts for example Benin and Felwine Sarr discuss restitutions in the light of a new ethics of relations Individual acts of restitution but also the processes of material and immaterial reparation that go with them are viewed as mediators in the by definition irreparable legacy of colonialism and its present repercussions A new ethics of relations might even go beyond anthropocentrism The destruction of nature in the Anthropocene and the destruction of humanity that is colonialism both require a fundamental questioning of the premises of western modernity and a radically different relationship to the world The present volume aims to examine different discourses and practices of reparation bringing together perspectives from cultural studies memory studies post or decolonial studies as well as literary studies Chapters from these disciplines are complemented by contributions from the fields of philosophy art and literature in order to explore the multiple facets of reparation With contributions by Kader Attia Lucia della Fontana Ibou Coulibaly Diop Alexandre Gefen Hannah Grimmer hnyongwa Helena Janeczek Markus Messling Clement Nd Fongang Aurélien Kalisky Fabiola Obame Angelica Pesarini Aurore Reck Olivier Remaud Patricia Oster Stierle Sahra Rausch Igiaba Scego Ibrahima Sene Christiane Solte Gresser Jonas Tinius Narratives of fear and safety Kaisa Kaukiainen, Kaisa Kurikka, Hanna Mäkelä, Elise Nykänen, Sanna Nyqvist, Juha Raipola, Anne Riippa, Hanna Samola, 2020-09-01 The essays in this edited volume written in English and French tackle the intriguing problems of fear and safety by analysing their various meanings and manifestations in literature and other narrative media The articles bring forth new cross cultural interpretations on fear and safety through examining what kinds of genre specific means of world making narratives use to express these two affectivities The articles also show how important it is to study these themes in order to understand challenges in times of global threats such as the climate crisis The main themes of the book are approached from various theoretical perspectives as related to their literary and cultural representations Recent trends in research such as affect and risk theory serve as the basis for the discussion The articles in the volume also draw from disciplines such as gender studies and trauma studies to examine the threats posed by collective fears and aggression on individuals lives and propose ways of coping with fear These themes are addressed also in articles analysing new adaptations of old myths that retell stories of the past Many of the articles in the volume discuss apocalyptic and dystopian narratives that currently permeate the entire cultural landscape Dystopian narratives do not only deal with future threats such as totalitarianism technocracy or environmental disasters but also suggest alternative ways of being and new hopes in the form of political resistance Writers in Conflict in Sixteenth-century France Malcolm Quainton, 2008 Text in English with some contributions in French Histoire et méthode à la Renaissance Marie-Dominique Couzinet, 1996 *Études de Littérature Et d'art: sér.] L'art avant Louis XIV. become ubiquitous in recent years In the age of trauma culture art and literature have a new purpose to do justice to console comfort and heal Drawing on works of twenty first century French language literature this monograph shows how literature can not only serve as a means of personal development but expand our capacity for empathy help repair the brokenness implied in victimhood and redress individual and collective traumas Centered on a critical reflection on discourses of repair and reparations it questions the canonical theories on the functions of literature and proposes a new way of writing and reading literary history Praise Repair the World is an invigorating and essential call to arms The modern category of the literary it declares is being outpaced by the contemporary uses of literature as a medium of exorcism empathy reparation testimony commemoration existential renewal and ethical or political connectivity Neither celebrating nor condemning such uses Gefen models a much needed style of criticism interdisciplinary pragmatic relational that comes to grips with their importance Rita Felski the John Stewart Bryan Professor and Professor of English at the University of Virginia USA In an era where self help memoir and autobiography command more than their fair share of publisher s lists in France it s tempting some fifty years after post structuralism s heyday to ascribe an impending death of literature to a taste for narcissistic exhibitionism in French literary culture But why bemoan the waning relevance of the question what is literature asks Alexandre Gefen when evidence abounds in the new century that literary writing increasingly posits itself as a restorative reparative act In the best instances authors who give form to embodied experience imaginatively forge with their readers empathetic bonds of the sort that secular and religious institutions long sustained Repair the World is not only a capacious study of writers who hail from surprisingly broad sectors of French society from health and social workers to skilled laborers journalists and educators it s a situated call for a pragmatics of reading that makes of each book an intervention into the fabric of the real Harnessing sources in affect theory trauma studies ethics and cognitive science Alexandre Gefen performs a critically reparative act all his own reminding us that the notion of literature as autonomous object was itself a historical construct in short an ideology Reading and writing have always conjoined care for the self and care for others and it s upon that reciprocity that the communities of sense of tomorrow can flourish in a spirit of reparative humanism Derek Schilling Professor of French Director of the Centre Louis Marin Department of Modern Languages and Literatures Johns Hopkins University USA Alexandre Gefen s wide ranging thought provoking study takes stock of a paradigm shift in contemporary French literature away from a model of autonomy and intransitivity to ways of writing and reading that seek to repair restore reassure and rebuild From the varied forms of expressivity found in self narratives to the empathetic projections of fiction Repair the World maps out an expanding literary territory that seeks not critical negativity but rather the power to intervene for good in individual and collective life While reserving judgment on the actual extent of literature s effects Gefen demonstrates that contemporary projects and discourses undeniably center the therapeutic and remediative uses of literature With its nuanced readings and keen insights Repair the World has been rightly influential in France its powerful diagnosis of contemporary sensibilities resonates far beyond revealing both the promises and predicaments of literature in the twenty first century Alison James Professor of French and Chair of the Department of Romance Languages and Literatures at the University of Chicago USA What would it mean to ask Sartre's post war question What is literature in the 21st century In this wonderful essay Alexandre Gefen argues convincingly that the main purpose of literature today is to repair a broken world and memorialise forgotten lives Taking examples from predominantly contemporary French literature he proposes that literature as therapy has replaced religions of salvation a politics of emancipation and formal experimentation Today literature's mission is to heal traumatised individuals and communities resurrect the lives of the vulnerable and commemorate their deeds in the face of the forces of oblivion For Gefen Patrick Modiano's Dora Bruder 1997 is the contemporary literary archetype of these lost identities to be rehabilitated and reinhabited Gefen describes this new role for literature without taking sides the writing is lucid compelling and non partisan In an age of victimhood testimony empathy self expression and identity Gefen's reparative paradigm is as persuasive as Sartre's political version in the age of ideology Max Silverman Professor of Modern French Studies University of Leeds UK Savoirs et littérature Daniel Minary, 1997 La représentation de la vie psychique dans les récits factuels et fictionnels de l'époque classique Marc Hersant, Catherine Ramond, 2015-07-14 La représentation de la vie psychique dans les récits factuels et fictionnels de l'époque classique rassemble des études de spécialistes de l'histoire au sens large incluant les Mémoires ou l'autobiographie et de la fiction narrative des XVIIe et XVIIIe siècles Cet ouvrage traite une question théorique rarement appliquée la première modernité l'entre dans l'intériorité des personnages ce que Dorrit Cohn a appelée la transparence intérieure est elle réservée la seule fiction Permet elle d'établir une ligne de partage claire entre récit factuel et récit de fiction une époque où se multiplient des catégories mouvantes et hybrides telles les pseudo-mémoires les romans-mémoires ou les nouvelles historiques
