Memoirs of a Dada Drummer Richard Huelsenbeck, 1991-06-06 Huelsenbeck's memoirs bring to life the concerns intellectual artistic and political of the individuals involved in the Dada movement and document the controversies within the movement and in response to it Manifesto Mary Ann Caws, The first anthology of its kind Manifesto features over two hundred artistic and cultural manifestos from a wide range of countries The manifesto a public statement that sets forth the tenets of a forthcoming existing or potential movement or ism or that plays on the idea of one became in various modernisms a crucial and forceful vehicle for artists writers and other intellectuals to express their ideas about the direction of aesthetics and society Included in this collection are texts ranging from Kurt Schwitters's Cow Manifesto to those written in the name of well known movements imagism cubism surrealism symbolism vorticism projectivism and less well known ones lettrism acmeism concretism rayonism Also covered are expressionist Dada and futurist movements from French Italian Russian Spanish and Latin American perspectives as well as local movements such as Brazilian hallucinism Influential startling unsettling amusing and continually engaging these modernist manifestos give voice to a fascinating array of ideas and opinions that will prove invaluable to scholars and students of nineteenth and twentieth century art literature and culture

The Dada Painters and Poets Robert Motherwell, 1989 Presents a collection of essays manifestos and illustrations that provide an overview of the Dada movement in art describing its convictions antics and spirit through the words and art of its principal practitioners Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1974 The Madness of Vision Christine Buci-Glucksmann, 2013-01-27 Christine Buci Glucksmann's The Madness of Vision is one of the most influential studies in phenomenological aesthetics of the baroque Integrating the work of Merleau Ponty with Lacanian psychoanalysis Renaissance studies in optics and twentieth century mathematics the author asserts the materiality of the body and world in her aesthetic theory All vision is embodied vision with the body and the emotions continually at play on the visual field Thus vision once considered a clear uniform and totalizing way of understanding the material world actually dazzles and distorts the perception of reality In each of the nine essays that form The Madness of Vision Buci Glucksmann develops her theoretical argument via a study of a major painting sculpture or influential visual image Arabic script Bettini's The Eye of Cardinal Colonna Bernini's Saint Teresa and his 1661 fireworks display to celebrate the birth of the French dauphin Caravaggio's Judith Beheading Holofernes the Paris arcades and Arnulf Rainer's self portrait among others and deftly crosses historical national and artistic boundaries to address Gracian's El Criticón Monteverdi's opera Orfeo the poetry of Hafiz John Donne and Baudelaire as well as baroque architecture and Anselm Kiefer's Holocaust paintings In doing so Buci Glucksmann makes the case for the pervasive influence of the baroque throughout history and the continuing importance of the baroque in contemporary arts The Hermetic Marriage of Art and Alchemy Marlene Seven Bremner, 2023-06-27 An initiatory and practical guide to creative alchemy Shares hermetic and alchemical techniques for liberating creative expression and looks at the zodiacal and planetary timing of creative operations Explains how to work with and transmute alchemical energies for increased levels of insight intuition and imaginative expression Explores the connections between Surrealism and alchemy as well as the rich and complicated symbolism of alchemical art In this initiatory guide to the Hermetic art of alchemy artist Marlene Seven Bremner reveals how the alchemical opus the Great Work offers a practical means for liberating the authentic creator within and attaining gnosis or true self knowledge Exploring the connections between Surrealism and alchemy as well as the rich and complicated symbolism of alchemical art Bremner elucidates how both Surrealism and alchemy seek to unfetter the imagination and dissolve the boundaries between dream and reality thus reconciling the conscious and unconscious minds She details how the three principles salt sulfur and mercury the four elements and the seven planets interact together and within the self in creative alchemy and she explains how to work with and transmute these energies for increased levels of insight intuition and imaginative expression The author shares practical Hermetic and alchemical techniques for liberating creative expression and clearing energetic obstructions that prevent us from reaching our higher potential She also looks at the zodiacal and planetary timing of creative operations Revealing how the stages of alchemical transmutation are relevant to the creative process the author shows how the initiate comes to experience for themselves the relationship between consciousness and matter which is the essence of alchemical teachings By creating one transmutes spiritual energies through matter for greater self knowledge and awakening Allowing you to truly realize your own creative power this in depth guide to creative alchemy shows how the alchemical path attunes the Self to the rhythms of the spheres so that one is naturally creating in time with the seasons and zodiac signs and in harmony with elemental forces and planetary influences

A Companion to Dada and Surrealism David Hopkins, 2022-01-06 This excellent overview of new research on Dada and Surrealism blends expert synthesis of the latest scholarship with completely new research offering historical coverage as well as in depth discussion of thematic areas ranging from criminality to gender This book provides an excellent overview of new research on Dada and Surrealism from some of the finest established and up and coming scholars in the field Offers historical coverage as well as in depth discussion of thematic areas ranging from criminality to gender One of the first studies to produce global coverage of the two movements it also includes a section dealing with the critical and cultural aftermath of Dada and Surrealism in the later twentieth century Dada and Surrealism are arguably the most popular areas of modern art both in the academic and public spheres

Acrobatic Modernism from the Avant-garde to Prehistory Jed Rasula, 2020 Moving through a vast geographical cultural and artistic terrain and juxtaposing numerous modernist works this volume explores the multiplicity of modernism and provides in depth case studies including of James Joyce's Finnegans Wake the reception of jazz music in Europe and the Cubist movement in the visual arts

Crisis Sascha Bru, Kate Kangaslahti, Li Lin, Iveta Slavkova, David Ayers, 2022-09-06 Notions of crisis have long charged the study of the European avant garde and modernism reflecting the often turbulent nature of their development Throughout their history the avant garde and modernists have both confronted and instigated crises be they economic or political aesthetic or philosophical collective or individual local or global short or perennial The seventh volume in the series European Avant Garde and Modernism Studies addresses the myriad ways in which the avant garde and modernism have responded and related to crisis from the late nineteenth to the twenty first century How have Europe s avant garde and modernist movements given aesthetic shape to their crisis laden trajectory Given the many different watershed moments the avant garde and modernism have faced over the centuries what common threads link the critical points of their development Alternatively what kinds of crises have their experimental practices and critical modes yielded The volume assembles case studies reflecting upon these questions and more from across all areas of avant garde and modernist activity including visual art literature music architecture photography theatre performance curatorial practice fashion and design An Audience of Artists Catherine Craft,2012-05-30 An Audience of Artists turns this time line for the postwar New York art world on its head presenting a new pedigree for these artistic movements Drawing on an array of previously unpublished material Catherine Craft reveals that Neo Dada far from being a reaction to Abstract Expressionism actually originated at the heart of that movement s concerns about viewers originality and artists debts to the past and one another Furthermore she argues the original Dada movement was not incompatible with Abstract Expressionism In fact Dada provided a vital historical reference for artists and critics seeking to come to terms with the radical departure from tradition that Abstract Expressionism seemed to represent Tracing the activities of artists such as Robert Motherwell Barnett Newman and Jackson Pollock alongside Marcel Duchamp s renewed embrace of Dada in the late 1940s Craft explores the challenges facing artists trying to work in the wake of a destructive world war and the paintings objects writings and installations that resulted from their efforts Jacket

The Organic Line Irene V. Small,2024-10-08 A major rethinking of twentieth century abstract art mobilized by the work of Brazilian artist Lygia Clark What would it mean to treat an interval of space as a line thus drawing an empty void into a constellation of art and meaning laden things In this book Irene Small elucidates the signal discovery of the Brazilian artist Lygia Clark in 1954 a fissure of space between material elements that Clark called the organic line For much of the history of art Clark s discovery much like the organic line has escaped legibility Once recognized however the line has seismic repercussions for rethinking foundational concepts such as mark limit surface and edge A spatial cavity that binds discrepant entities together the organic line transforms planes into flexible topologies borders into membranes and interstices into points of connection As a paradigm the organic line has profound historiographic implications as well inviting us to set aside traditional notions of influence and origin in favor of what Small terms weak links and plagiotropic relations These fragile oblique and transversal ties have their own efficacy and Small s innovative readings of canonical modernist works such as Kazimir Malevich s Black Square John Cage s 4 33 and Le Corbusier s machine habiter as well as contemporary works by such artists as Adam Pendleton Ricardo Basbaum and Mika Rottenberg reveal the organic line s remarkable potential as an analytic instrument Mobilizing a rich repertoire of archival sources and moving across multiple chronologies geographies and disciplines this book invites us to envision modernism not as a stable construct defined by centers and peripheries inclusions and exclusions but as a topological field of interactive destabilizing tensions More than a history of a little known artistic device The Organic Line Toward a Topology of Modernism is a user's guide and manifesto for reimagining modern and contemporary art for the present Art, Design, Photo, 1980 Modern Art and the Life of a Culture Jonathan A. Anderson, William A. Dyrness, 2016-05-23 In 1970 Hans Rookmaaker published Modern Art and the Death of a Culture a groundbreaking work that considered the role of the Christian artist in society This volume responds to his work by bringing together a practicing artist and a theologian who argue that modernist art is underwritten by deeply religious concerns

Blackening Europe Heike Raphael-Hernandez, 2012-11-12 Traditional scholars have often looked at African American studies through the lens of European theories resulting in the secondarization of the African American presence in Europe and its contributions to European culture Blackening Europe reverses this pattern by using African American culture as the starting point for a discussion of its influences over traditional European structures Evidence of Europe's blackening abound from French ministers of Hip hop and British incarnations of Shaft to slavery memorial in the Netherlands and German youth sporting dreadlocks Collecting essays by scholars from both sides of the Atlantic and fields as diverse as history literature politics social studies art film and music Blackening Europe explores the implications of these cultural hybrids and extends the growing dialogues about Europe's fascination with African America

Art Books Wolfgang M. Freitag, 2013-10-28 First published in 1997 For this second edition of Art Books A Basic Bibliography of Monographs on Artists the vast number of new books published since 1985 was surveyed and evaluated This has resulted in the selection of 3 395 additional titles These selections reflective of the increase in the monographic literature on artists during the last ten years are evidence of the activities of a larger number of art historians in more countries worldwide of the increasingly diverse and ambitious exhibition programs of museums whose number has also increased dramatically and also of a lively international art market and the attendant gallery activities The selections of the first edition have been reviewed errors have been corrected and important new editions and reprints have been noted The second edition contains 278 names of artists not represented in the first edition DADA, Surrealism, and the Cinematic Effect R. Bruce Elder, 2015-10-15 This book deals with the early intellectual reception of the cinema and the manner in which art theorists philosophers cultural theorists and especially artists of the first decades of the twentieth century responded to its advent While the idea persists that early writers on film were troubled by the cinema's lowly form this work proposes that there was another largely unrecognized strain in the reception of it Far from anxious about film's provenance in popular entertainment some writers and artists proclaimed that the cinema was the most important art for the moderns as it exemplified the vibrancy of contemporary life This view of the cinema was especially common among those whose commitments were to advanced artistic practices Their notions about how to recast the art media or the forms forged from those media's materials and the urgency of doing so formed the principal part of the conceptual core of the artistic programs advanced by the vanguard art movements of the first half of the twentieth century This book a companion to the author's previous Harmony Dissent examines the Dada and Surrealist movements as responses to the advent of the cinema

Intimate Collaborations Bibiana Obler, 2014-05-06 Beautifully illustrated this insightful book looks at two influential artist couples and the roles of gender and the applied arts in the emergence of abstraction Arp on Arp: Poems, Essays, Memories Jean Arp, 1972 Inventing Abstraction, 1910-1925 Leah Dickerman, Matthew Affron, 2012 This book explores the development of abstraction from the moment of its declaration around 1912 to its establishment as the foundation of avant garde practice in the mid 1920s The book brings together many of the most influential works in abstraction's early history to draw a cross media portrait of this watershed moment in which traditional art was reinvented in a wholesale way Works are presented in groups that serve as case studies each engaging a key topic in abstraction's first years an artist a movement an exhibition or thematic concern Key focal points include Vasily Kandinsky's ambitious Compositions V VI and VII a selection of Piet Mondrian's work that offers a distilled narrative of his trajectory to Neo plasticism and all the extant Suprematist pictures that Kazimir Malevich showed in the landmark 0 10 exhibition in 1915 0Exhibition MoMA New York USA 23 12 2012 15 4 2013
