in the history and psychology of art      Art as Spiritual Activity Rudolf Steiner,1997 This book introduces a new way for thinking about creating and viewing art Rudolf Steiner saw his task as the renewal of the lost unity of science the arts and religion thus he created a new cognitive scientific and religious art in anthroposophy The implications of his act recognized by such diverse artists as Wassily Kandinsky and Joseph Beuys are only now coming fully to light In his thorough introduction of more than a hundred pages Michael Howard takes readers through these thought provoking chapters Is Art Dead To Muse or Amuse Artistic Activity As Spiritual Activity The Representative of Humanity Beauty Creativity and Metamorphosis New Directions in Art Lectures include The Aesthetics of Goethe s Worldview The Spiritual Being of Art Buildings Will Speak The Sense Organs and Aesthetic Experience The Two Sources of Art The Building at Dornach The Supersensible Origin of the Arts Truth Beauty and Goodness Christ Ahriman and Lucifer Plus a bibliography and index      Icon and Idea Sir Herbert Edward Read,1955      The Psychology of Art and the Evolution of the Conscious Brain Robert L. Chinn,Jean Watson,1994 This book presents a new potential for health care in scholarship education and practice Does the aesthetic environment affect the quality of care Can art be a significant force in healing Celebrated contributors demonstrate the deep connections between aesthetic awareness and caring based practice Music narrative painting and more are featured as viable therapeutic modalities essential for reclaiming nursing as a human art and science      The Consciousness' Drive Charles Cole,2018-09-18 What is the uniquely human factor in finding and using information to produce new knowledge Is there an underlying aspect of our thinking that cannot be imitated by the AI equipped machines that will increasingly dominate our lives This book answers these questions and tells us about our consciousness its drive or intention in seeking information in the world around us and how we are able to construct new knowledge from this information The book is divided into three parts each with an introduction and a conclusion that relate the theories and models presented to the real world experience of someone using a search engine First Part I defines the exceptionality of human consciousness and its need for new information and how uniquely among all other species we frame our interactions with the world Part II then investigates the problem of finding our real information need during information searches and how our exceptional ability to frame our interactions with the world blocks us from finding the information we really need Lastly Part III details the solution to this framing problem and its operational implications for search engine design for everyone whose objective is the production of new knowledge In this book Charles Cole deliberately writes in a conversational style for a broader readership keeping references to research material to the bare minimum Replicating the structure of a detective novel he builds his arguments towards a climax at the end of the book For our video game video on demand times he has visualized the ideas that form the book s thesis in over 90 original diagrams And above all he establishes a link between information need and knowledge production in evolutionary psychology and thus bases his arguments in our origins as a species how we humans naturally think and how we naturally search for new information because our consciousness drives us to need it      The

Entheological Paradigm Martin W. Ball, 2011-03-01 The Entheological Paradigm is a must read for anyone who is interested in DMT 5 MeO DMT and the nature of unitary consciousness In this groundbreaking work entheogenic researcher Martin Ball Ph D presents a coherent system of analysis for understanding the psychedelic experience human identity and consciousness and the nature of reality as a unified energetic system Free from speculative metaphysics The Entheological Paradigm promises a revolution in humanity s understanding of itself as well as gives practical methodology for achieving non dual awareness Provocative challenging and ultimately liberating this collection of essays is bound to leave its mark in the quest to understand the meaning of it all Includes the essays Digesting the Spirit Molecule The Avatar Dreamhunt Energy Ego and Entheogens and much more      An Introduction to Hegel's Philosophy of Religion Raymond Keith Williamson, 1984-06-30 For Hegel thought is not philosophical if it is not also religious Both religion and philosophy have a common object and share the same content for both are concerned with the inherent unity of all things Hegel s doctrine of God provides the means for understanding this fundamental relationship Although Hegel stated that God is absolute Spirit and Christianity is the absolute religion the compatibility of Hegel s doctrine of God with Christian theology has been a matter of continuing and closely argued debate Williamson s book provides a significant contribution to this ongoing discussion through a systematic study of Hegel s concept of God The book proceeds by investigating theism atheism pantheism and panentheism as descriptions of Hegel s concept It rejects the view that Hegel s doctrine so differs from Christian theology so as to be empty of religious content and thereby highlights some important considerations in contemporary theology      Framing Consciousness in Art Gregory Minissale, 2009 Framing Consciousness in Art examines how the conscious mind enacts and processes the frame that both surrounds the work of art yet is also shown as an element inside its space These frames in frames may be seen in works by Teniers Vel zquez Vermeer Degas Rodin and Cartier Bresson and in the films of Alfred Hitchcock and Bu uel The book also deals with framing in a variety of cultural contexts Indian Chinese and African going beyond Euro American formalist and aesthetic concerns which dominate critical theories of the frame      Art in the Age of Emergence (2nd Edition) Michael J. Pearce, 2017-03-07 This book delivers sensible emergent aesthetics explaining the processes that happen in human minds when we share ideas as works of art skewering the orthodoxies of contemporary art with pragmatic wisdom about why representational art thrives in the new millennium Art in the Age of Emergence has captured the imaginations of thinkers and artists alike This is an indispensable read for those who want to understand representational art in the 21st Century      Hollis Frampton Michael Zryd, 2023-05-09 Hollis Frampton was an American filmmaker photographer and theorist who bridged the experimental film and contemporary art worlds in the 1960s and 1970s Best known for avant garde films including Zorns Lemma 1970 and nostalgia 1971 Frampton spent his later years working on the unfinished epic Magellan a monumental cycle that used the metaphor of Ferdinand Magellan s circumnavigation of the world to rethink the natures and meanings of history modernity and cinema Frampton's career was cut short by cancer at age 48 with his vast ambitions for the project left incomplete This book is a groundbreaking and comprehensive account of this remarkable figure's work in its totality from Frampton's earliest films through Magellan Michael Zryd explores the connections linking Frampton's art and thought to other media forms histories and cultural frameworks He foregrounds Frampton's notion of the infinite cinema which redefined the parameters of the medium to encompass all forms of moving image and sound media across the past and future of cinematic possibility Zryd analyzes Frampton's ambivalent relationship with modernism and the Enlightenment showing how the artist navigated between attraction to radical artistic investigation and awareness of this tradition's implication in colonialism and other oppressive power structures Shedding new light on Frampton's project of exploring and critiquing how cinema attempts to capture and understand the world this book also considers his significance for contemporary art

Human Consciousness, Thought Process and Its Relevance to the Process of Art Making Marina Hyasat, 2010

The Natural and the Artefactual Keekok Lee, 1999-01-01 In this book philosopher Keekok Lee challenges one of the central assumptions of contemporary environmentalism that if we could reduce or eliminate pollution we could save the planet without unduly disrupting our modern industrialized societies Lee argues instead that the process of modernization with its attendant emphasis on technological innovation has fundamentally transformed nature into just another manmade artefact Ultimately what needs to be determined is if nature has value above and beyond human considerations whether aesthetic spiritual or biological This provocative book attempts to reconfigure environmental ethics positing the existence of two separate ontological categories the natural and the artefactual Natural entities be they organisms or inert matter are morally considerable because they possess the ontological value of independence whereas artefacts are created by humans expressly to serve their own interests and ends
