Doris Lessing Critical Studies:

Doris Lessing Annis Vilas Pratt, L. S. Dembo, 1982 Doris Lessing Harold Bloom, 2003 Essays of critical interpretation portray views of Doris Lessing's work including The Golden Notebook, Marriages and The Grass is Singing Doris Lessing Gayle Greene, 1994 An original and compelling appraisal of this important international literary figure Doris Lessing, A Study Guide for Doris Lessing's The Golden Notebook Gale, Cengage Learning, 2015-03-13 A Study Guide for Doris Lessing's The Golden Notebook excerpted from Gale's acclaimed Novels for Students. This concise study guide includes plot summary, character analysis, author biography, study questions, historical context, suggestions for further reading, and much more. For any literature project, trust Novels for Students for all of your research needs The Dialogic Self Roxanne J. Fand, 1999 By theorizing subjectivity according to the dialogic model of Mikhail Bakhtin, author Roxanne J. Fand posits a moderating self-narrator who rather than imposing a single authoritarian voice of fixed ideology and identity negotiates among diverse internalized voices of one's social ecological milieu Doris Lessing Alice Ridout, Susan Watkins, 2009-10-13 An edited collection offering up-to-date critical coverage of a wide range of Lessing's work Virtue Revisited in the Novels of Doris Lessing Seda ARIKAN, 2024-09-06 The ethical approaches to literature have come into prominence in the twentieth century, calling for a turn to ethics in the studies of humanities in general and literary studies in particular. By leading the ethical turn in literature, many theorists proposed a moral-oriented approach to literature which is still a significant part of literary criticism. The ethical turn in literature has changed the spirit of literary criticism in the direction of virtue and value-based approaches. In this respect, this study scrutinises Doris Lessing's novels in light of virtue ethics in general and virtue politics, care ethics, and Sufi virtue ethics in particular. Lessing's connection to virtue ethics, which is implicitly or explicitly reflected in her novels, is examined by giving the panorama of ethical movements whose common point is virtues. This study asserts that Lessing implements an ethical concern in her novels which is based on her own understanding of virtue ethics Rereading Modernism Lisa Rado, 2012 Until about 1986, feminists generally considered modernism a reactionary, misogynist, and hegemonic mire not worth investigating. Since then, enough studies of modernism have appeared that 17 feminist critics can now review and debate their treatment of the period. They evaluate the progress and goals of the new era of modernist scholarship. As the authors in this volume suggest, instead of condemning writers for not practicing or portraying an acceptable politics of gender, we ought instead to show how their assumptions about the nature of the sexes inform their texts both in their creation and in their reception. This also allows examination of the complex and changing relationship between human subjectivity and aesthetics. This volume is a highly reflective dialogue, introspective and evaluative at a moment of crisis within modernist studies and feminist studies. The analysis of critical work on early twentieth-century literature not only helps reread and redefine a definition of modernism; it also intends to redirect and reintegrate feminist theory Doris Lessing and the Forming of History Kevin Brazil, 2016-09-20 The death of Nobel Prize winning Doris Lessing sparked a range of commemorations that cemented her place as one of the major figures of twentieth and twenty first century world literature This volume views Lessing s writing as a whole and in retrospect focusing on her innovative attempts to rework literary form to engage with the challenges thrown up by the sweeping historical changes through which she lived The 12 original chapters provide new readings of Lessing s work via contexts ranging from post war youth politics and radical women s writing to European cinema analyse her experiments with genres from realism to autobiography and science fiction and draw on previously unstudied archive material The volume also explores how Lessing s writing can provide insight into some of the issues now shaping twenty first century scholarship including trauma ecocriticism the post human and world literature as they emerge as defining challenges to our own present moment in history

Real Politics Jean Bethke Elshtain, 2000-03-10 One of America s foremost public intellectuals Jean Bethke Elshtain has been on the frontlines in the most hotly contested and deeply divisive issues of our time Now in Real Politics Elshtain gives further proof of her willingness to speak her mind courting disagreement and even censure from those who prefer their ideologies neat At the center of Elshtain s work is a passionate concern with the relationship between political rhetoric and political action For Elshtain politics is a sphere of concrete responsibility Political speech should therefore approach the richness of actual lives and commitments rather than present impossible utopias In her essays Elshtain finds in the writings of V clav Havel Hannah Arendt and Albert Camus a language appropriate to the complexity of everyday life and politics and she critiques philosophers and writers who distance us from a concrete embodied world She argues against those repressive strains within contemporary feminism which insist that families and even sexual differentiation are inherently oppressive Along the way she challenges an ideology of victimization that too often loses sight of individual victims in its pursuit of abstract goals Elshtain reaffirms the quirky and by no means simple pleasures of small town life as a microcosm of the human condition and considers the current crisis in American education and its consequences for democracy Beyond exploring the details of political life over the past two decades Real Politics advocates a via media politics that avoids unacceptable extremes and serves as a model for responsible political discourse Throughout her diverse and insightful writings Elshtain champions a civic philosophy that tends to the dignity of everyday life as a democratic imperative of the first order Jean Bethke Elshtain is a person of rare intellect The moral wisdom that pervades these essays reminds us that when all is said and done politics is about the life and death of real people who are anything but abstractions Her erudition is remarkable but equally stunning is her eye for the significant What she is so good at is helping us see the moral and political significance of the everyday Stanley Hauerwas Duke University Real Politics serves as a forceful reminder that Jean Elshtain has been dealing with the real world in twenty five years of powerful essaying Transcending ideological categories she writes out of hope that human beings can enjoy those capacities of reason and faith which make them human It is a pleasure to be reintroduced to her sustained intelligence Alan Wolfe Boston University Social Texts and Context Jonathan Potter, Peter Stringer, Margaret Wetherell, 2023-08-11 First published in 1984 Social Texts and Context illustrates the ways in which familiar psychological concepts femininity the environment groups the self are constructed in discourse Novels by Thomas Hardy Barbara Cartland Doris Lessing C P Snow Charles Dickens and Robert Musil are examined and the theoretical approaches of Roland Barthes Rom Harre Jonathan Culler Henri Tajfel Irving Janis and Paul Willis are discussed Development in literary theory such as semiology and deconstruction and in theories of social action such as ethogenics and discourse analysis make it difficult to treat literary and psychological texts as a neutral medium of communication Instead texts should be seen in terms of their fundamental constructive role in the organization of social life As the authors demonstrate contemporary life in both its personal and professional spheres is hedged around by discourse conversations newspaper articles novels scientific reports This book will be of interest to students of literature and psychology Politics, Persuasion, and Pragmatism Ellen Susan Peel, 2002 An addition to the Theory and Interpretation of Narrative series Peel's book addresses how feminist utopian narratives attempt to persuade readers to adopt certain beliefs Using three feminist utopian novels as her main examples The Marriages between Zones Three Four and Five by Doris Lessing The Left Hand of Darkness by Ursula K Le Guin and Les Gu rill res by Monique Wittig Peel examines how belief bridging and protean metaphor in these works persuade readers Literary persuasion often dismissed as propaganda in fact works in subtle and profound ways The book presents major techniques by which narrative literature exercises this sophisticated influence on beliefs Ultimately concluding that the pragmatic works better than the static in utopian feminism Peel shows how in novels such as those under discussion the narrative techniques support pragmatism Inquiring how narrative form can shape political belief by affecting readers responses the author integrates topics that are rarely combined The book investigates three theoretical issues utopian belief distinguishing the perfectionism of the static from the vitality of the pragmatic and showing how the latter creates narrative energy the persuasive process tracing narrative form and asking how implied readers match real ones and how readers are swayed by belief bridging and protean metaphor and feminist belief a nuanced definition that accounts both for what links feminists and what makes them diverse Politics Persuasion and Pragmatism explores the rhetorical and ethical power of narrative literature The Other Side of the Story Molly Hite, 2018-03-15 No detailed description available for The Other Side of the Story
