The Great Ejectment of 1662 Alan P.F. Sell,2012-02-17 By Bartholomew s Day 24 August 1662 all ministers and schoolmasters in England and Wales were required by the Act of Uniformity to have given their unfeigned assent and consent to the Book of Common Prayer of the Church of England On theological grounds nearly two thousand ministers approximately one fifth of the clergy of the Church of England refused to comply and thereby forfeited their livings This book has been written to commemorate the 350th Anniversary of the Great Ejectment In Part One three early modern historians provide accounts of the antecedents and aftermath of the ejectment in England and Wales while in Part Two the case is advanced that the negative responses of the ejected ministers to the legal requirements of the Act of Uniformity were rooted in positive doctrinal convictions that are of continuing ecumenical significance Gentleman's Magazine and Historical Review ,1898 The Gentleman's Magazine ,1898 Comprising Reports of Cases in the Courts of Chancery, King's Bench, and Common Pleas, from 1822 to 1835 ,1831 The Soul of Dorset Frederick Joseph Harvey Darton,1922 Making Histories in Transport Museums Colin Divall,Andrew Scott,2001-12-20 This book is the first in 30 years to take transport museums seriously as vehicles for the making of public histories Drawing upon many years experience of visiting and working in transport museums around the world the authors argue that the sector s historical roots are more complex than is usually thought Written from a multidisciplinary perspective but firmly rooted in the practice of making public histories this book brings the study of transport museums firmly into the mainstream of academic and professional debate Charles Simeon Handley Carr Glyn Moule,1892
