Dostoevskys Religion:

Dostoevsky's Religion Steven Cassedy, 2005-05-02 Any reader of Dostoevsky is immediately struck by the importance of religion within the world of his fiction That said it is very difficult to locate a coherent set of religious beliefs within Dostoevsky s works and to argue that the writer embraced these beliefs This book provides a trenchant reassessment of his religion by showing how Dostoevsky used his writings as the vehicle for an intense probing of the nature of Christianity of the individual meaning of belief and doubt and of the problems of ethical behavior that arise from these questions The author argues that religion represented for Dostoevsky a welter of conflicting views and stances from philosophical idealism to nationalist messianism The strength of this study lies in its recognition of the absence of a single religious prescription in Dostoevsky s works as well as in its success in tracing the background of the ideas animating Dostoevsky s religious probing

The Religion of Dostoevsky Alexander Boyce Gibson, 2016-08-11 Why has Dostoevsky influenced so much of the religious thinking of our times His impact on modern theologians Barth for example has been great and thousands of his readers have been stirred by his extraordinary power to register metaphysical insights in narrative form This fresh and subtle study of Dostoevsky s life and writing demonstrates that the great Russian s relevance for our day lies in his perception that religious faith and philosophic doubt are inseparable in his illustration that the practice of religion and intellectual scruples belong together and actually enhance each other Gibson records what is known from outside the novels of his successive engagements and disengagements with the Christian faith He then traces chronologically the path of Dostoevsky s developing thoughts and feelings as presented in the novels themselves and his sentiments as distributed among his characters Especially illuminating is the author s analysis of the dichotomies that make up the fascinating puzzle of Dostoevsky s complexity Overlapping but never coinciding are the two perspectives of reflective artist and journalist reporter Buttressing Dostoevsky s dialectical method of thinking was the literary device of the double the character with contradictory ways of thought and behavior Gibson shows how all these factors structured Dostoevsky s depiction of mental moral and religious ambiguities This stimulating guide which takes the reader from Notes from Underground through The Brothers Karamazov explores the polarities of reason and faith as the irreconcilables that Dostoevsky constantly tries to reconcile Everyone who has found his own vision of ethics or of religion expanded by Dostoevsky s work will find this literary study provocative and informative

Dostoevsky and the Dynamics of Religious Experience Malcolm V. Jones, 2005 One of the world s foremost experts on Dostoevsky presents a new study focusing on the religious concerns of the enigmatic author

Christian Fiction and Religious Realism in the Novels of Dostoevsky William Peter van den Bercken, 2011 This study offers a literary analysis and theological evaluation of the Christian themes in the five great novels of Dostoevsky Crime and Punishment The Idiot The Adolescent The Devils and The Brothers Karamazov Dostoevsky s ambiguous treatment of religious issues in his literary works strongly differs from the slavophile Orthodoxy of his journalistic writings In the novels Dostoevsky deals with Christian basic values which are presented via a unique tension between the fictionality of the Christian characters and the readers experience of the existential reality of their religious problems

Conversations with Dostoevsky George Pattison, 2024-02-13 Conversations with Dostoevsky presents a series of fictional conversations taking place between November 2018 and Spring 2019 in the narrator's Glasgow apartment and elsewhere in the city At the beginning of the conversations the narrator has been reading Dostoevsky's story A Gentle Spirit which concludes with a dramatic statement of protest atheism This statement suggests that love is not possible in a purely mechanical universe in which all living beings are condemned to death and ultimate extinction The conversations spell out Dostoevsky's response to this view and his advocacy of faith in God Christ and immortality The themes discussed include suicide truth and lies guilt determinism literature the Bible Mary Christ Dostoevsky and film the woman question nationalism war the Church the Jewish question immortality and God In addition to conversations between the narrator and Dostoevsky we drop in on a dinner party at which Dostoevsky is discussed from various points of view and in another conversation Dostoevsky is joined by the philosopher Vladimir Solovyov to discuss nationalism the Church and life We also attend a seminar on Dostoevsky Anti-Semitism and Nazism and visit Glasgow's Necropolis on Easter Eve The conversations in the first part of the volume are accompanied by a series of commentaries in a second part which contextualize the issues discussed in the conversations with references to his novels journalism letters and notebooks as well as engaging the relevant critical literature

Dostoevsky P.H. Brazier, 2018-01-01 As a writer and prophet Dostoevsky was no academic theologian yet his writings are deeply theological his life beliefs even his epilepsy all had a role in generating his theology and eschatology Dostoevsky's novels are riven with paradoxes are deeply dialectical and represent a criticism of religion offered in the service of the gospel In this task he presented a profound understanding and portrait of humanity Dostoevsky's novels chart the movement of the human into death either the movement through paradox and Christlikeness into Christ's cross a soteriology often characterized by the apophatic negation and self denial what we may term the Mark of Abel leading to salvation and resurrection or conversely the movement of those who refuse Christ's invitation to be redeemed and continue to fall into a self-willed death and a self-generated hell the Mark of Cain This eschatology becomes a theological axiom which he unceasingly warned people of in his mature works Startlingly original stripped of all religious pretence some prostitutes and criminals might just have a better understanding of salvation than some of the pietistic wealthy and cultured classes Dostoevsky as a prophet forewarned of the politicized humanistic delusions of the twentieth century a prophet crying out through the wilderness

The Russian Idea. Dostoevsky's Worldview Nikolay Alexandrovich Berdyaev, Dostoevsky's Incarnational Realism Paul J. Contino, 2020-08-17 In this book Paul Contino offers a theological study of Dostoevsky's final novel The Brothers Karamazov He argues that incarnational realism animates the vision of the novel and the decisions and actions of its hero Alyosha Fyodorovich Karamazov The book takes a close look at Alyosha's mentor the Elder Zosima and the way his role as a confessor and his vision of responsibility to all for all develops and influences Alyosha The remainder of the study which serves as a kind of reader's guide to the novel follows Alyosha as he takes up the mantle of his elder develops as a monk in the world and at the end of three days ascends in his vision of Cana The study attends also to Alyosha's brothers and his ministry to them Mitya's struggle to become a new man and Ivan's anguished groping toward responsibility Finally Contino traces Alyosha's generative role with the young people he encounters and his final message of hope Dostoevsky's Dialectics and the Problem of Sin Ksana Blank, 2010-07-31 In Dostoevsky's Dialectics and the Problem of Sin Ksana Blank borrows from ancient Greek Chinese and Christian dialectical traditions to formulate a dynamic image of Dostoevsky's dialectics distinct from Hegelian dialectics as a philosophy of compatible contradictions Expanding on the classical triad of Goodness Beauty and Truth Blank guides us through Dostoevsky's most difficult paradoxes goodness that begets evil beautiful personalities that bring about grief and criminality that brings about salvation Dostoevsky's philosophy of contradictions this book demonstrates contributes to the development of antinomian thought in the writings of early twentieth century Russian religious thinkers and to the development of Bakhtin's dialogism Dostoevsky's Dialectics and the Problem of Sin marks an important and original intervention into the enduring debate over Dostoevsky's spiritual philosophy

The Oxford Handbook of Russian Religious Thought Caryl Emerson, George Pattison, Randall A. Poole, 2020 A comprehensive collection exploring the role of ideas institutions and movements in the evolution of Russian religious thought Contains cutting edge scholarship that expands understanding of one of the richest aspects of Russian cultural and intellectual life Considers the influence of Russian religious thought in the West and the role of religion in aesthetics music poetry art film and the novel An authoritative reference for students and scholars Book jacket Dostoevsky and the Christian Tradition George Pattison, Diane Oenning Thompson, 2001-09-06 Dostoevsky is one of Russia's greatest novelists and a major influence in modern debates about religion both in Russia and the West This collection brings together Western and Russian perspectives on the issues raised by the religious element in his work The aim of this collection is not to abstract Dostoevsky's religious teaching from his literary works but to explore the interaction between his Christian faith and his writing The essays cover such topics as temptation grace and law Dostoevsky's use of the gospels and hagiography Trinitarianism and the Russian tradition of the veneration of icons as well as reading aloud and dialogism In addition to an exploration of the impact of the Christian tradition on Dostoevsky's major novels Crime and Punishment The Idiot and The Brothers Karamazov there are also discussions of lesser known works such as The Landlady and A Little Boy at Christ's Christmas Tree Kaleidoscope: F.M. Dostoevsky and the Early Dialectical Theology Katya Tolstaya, 2013-03-27 Introducing a new hermeneutics this book explores the correlation between the personal faith of F M Dostoevsky 1821 1881 and the religious quality of his texts In offering the first comprehensive analysis of his ego documents it demonstrates how faith has methodologically to be defined by the inaccessibility of the living person This thesis which draws on the work of M

M Bakhtin is further developed by critically examining the reception of Dostoevsky by the two main representatives of early dialectical theology Karl Barth and Eduard Thurneysen In the early 1920s they claimed Dostoevsky as a chief witness to their radical theology of the fully transcendent God While previously unpublished archive materials demonstrate the theological problems of their static conceptual interpretation the kaleidoscopic hermeneutics is founded on the awareness that a text offers only a fixed image whereas living faith is in permanent motion

Dostoevsky and the Dynamics of Religious Experience Malcolm V. Jones, 2005 Dostoevsky and the Dynamics of Religious Experience deals with the religious dimension of the novelist's life and fiction The book is structured through six clearly defined and self-reliant essays that take into account past and current criticism and offers a close textual analysis on Dostoevsky's works including The Double Notes from Underground Crime and Punishment The Idiot The Devils and an in-depth study of The Brothers Karamazov

Faith and Science in Russian Religious Thought Teresa Obolevitch, 2019 Faith and Science in Russian Religious Thought provides a comprehensive analysis of the relationship between science and faith in Russian religious thought Teresa Obolevitch offers a synthetic approach on the development of the problem throughout the whole history of Russian thought starting from the medieval period and arriving in contemporary times She considers the relationship between science and religion in the eighteenth century the so-called academic philosophy of the 19th and 20th century the thought of Peter Chaadaev the Slavophiles and in the most influential literature figures such as Fedor Dostoevsky and Lev Tolstoy The volume also analyses two channels of the formation of philosophy in the context of the relationship between theology and science in Russia The first is connected with the attempt to rationalize the truths of faith and is exemplified by Vladimir Soloviev and Nikolai Lossky the second with the apophatic tradition is presented by Pavel Florensky and Semen Frank The book then describes the relation to scientific knowledge in the thought of Lev Shestov Nikolai Berdyaev Sergius Bulgakov and Alexei Losev as well as the original project of Russian Cosmism on the examples of Nikolai Fedorov Konstantin Tsiolkovsky and Vladimir Vernadsky Obolevitch presents the current state of the discussion on this topic by paying attention to the Neoplatonic synthesis of Georges Florovsky and his followers and offers the brief comparative analysis of the relationship between science and religion from the Western and Russian perspectives

Dostoevsky Rowan Williams, 2008-04-09 When an Archbishop of Canterbury takes time off to write a book about Dostoevsky this is a sign of great hope and encouragement for The Church of England and for all those who seek God The current rash of books hostile to religious faith will one day be an interesting subject for some sociological analysis But to counter such work is a book of the profoundest kind about the nature and purpose of religious belief Terrorism child abuse absent fathers and the fragmentation of the family the secularisation and the sexualisation of culture the future of liberal democracy the clash of cultures and the nature of national identity so many of the anxieties that we think of as being quintessentially features of the early twenty-first century and on are present in the work of Dostoevsky in his letters his journalism and above all in his fiction The world we inhabit as readers of his novels is one in which the question of what human beings owe to each other is left painfully and shockingly open and there is no place to stand from which we can construct a clear moral landscape But the novels of Dostoevsky continually press home what else might be possible if we characters and readers saw the world in another light the light provided by faith In order to respond to such a challenge the novels invite us to imagine precisely those extremes of failure suffering and desolation There is an unresolved tension in Dostoevsky's novels a tension between believing and not believing in the existence of God In The Brothers Karamazov we can all receive Ivan with a terrible kind of delight Ivan's picture of himself we immediately recognise as self portrait The god that is dead for him is dead for us This Karamazov God of tension and terror is often the only one we are able to find This extraordinary book will speak to our generation like few others Reading Faithfully Lindsay

Ceballos,2025-07-15 Reading Faithfully reveals how Russian critics of the Silver Age the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries reread and remade Fyodor Dostoevsky for their era of religious renewal amid a broader political embrace of liberal reform and radical politics Lindsay Ceballos argues that most Silver Age critics engaged in a mode of critique approaching religious faith critical faith in the moral and artistic value of Dostoevsky that was needed to overcome their doubts about his nationalist rhetoric and politics Surveying leading critics on and theatrical adapters of Dostoevsky's fiction since his death in 1881 Ceballos advocates for new kinds of critical engagement with his work that draw on the example of Silver Age faithful reading but embrace more complexity and dissonance than critics were able to achieve in that period of fracture and upheaval Reading Faithfully provides a historical account of Russian culture in a pivotal period bringing together literary intellectual and theater history into one narrative Ceballos challenges Dostoevsky scholars asking What is the future of reading Dostoevsky in the wake of Russia's invasion of Ukraine Fyodor Dostoevsky, Walker Percy, and the Age of

Suicide John F. Desmond,2019-01-09 Fyodor Dostoevsky Walker Percy and the Age of Suicide is a study of the phenomenon of suicide in modern and post modern society as represented in the major fictional works of Fyodor Dostoevsky and Walker Percy In his study suicide is understood in both a literal and spiritual sense as referring to both the actual suicides in their works and to the broader social malaise of spiritual suicide or despair In the 19th century Dostoevsky called suicide the terrible question of our age For his part Percy understood 20th century Western culture as suicidal in both its social political and military behavior and in the deeper sense that its citizenry had suffered an ontological loss of self or deformation of being Likewise Thomas Merton called the 20th century an age of suicide Redemption and the Merchant God Susan

McReynolds Oddo,2008 Dostoevsky's antisemitism manifested in his writings of the 1870s seems to contradict his humanism and many critics have tended to dismiss it as a marginal detail of the writer's views Argues however that antisemitism held an important place in Dostoevsky's ethical system and was linked to his vexed relationship with Christianity Notes that he staunchly held three ethical principles sanctity of children incompatibility of ethics with utilitarianism and calculation and the view that every kind of authority was bound by the same moral strictures as individuals

Thus he could not accept a God who had sacrificed his son or a redemption brought about by the suffering of a child Jesus Dostoyevsky invented the image of a Jew onto whom he could project everything that was unacceptable to him in religion and Western ethics He considered the merchant ethics of both liberalism and socialism to be a Jewish idea and in particular regarded the politics of the Jew Disraeli as an embodiment of such ethics to sacrifice innocent Balkan Slavs in the name of supreme political principles In the 1870s Dostoyevsky increasingly contrasted the Russian conception of God and compassion for the weak with the Jewish Western merchant God and the idea of obtaining benefits for one person from the suffering of another innocent person He developed a conception of principal opposition between things Russian and things Jewish
