Dostoevski Et Flaubert:

Dostoevsky and Romantic Realism Donald Fanger, 1998 Dostoevsky and Romantic Realism is Donald Fanger's groundbreaking study of the art of Dostoevsky and the literary and historical context in which it was created Through detailed analyses of the work of Balzac Dickens and Gogol Fanger identifies romantic realism the transformative fusion of two generic categories as a powerful imaginary response to the great modern city This fusion reaches its aesthetic and metaphysical climax in Dostoevsky whose vision culminating in Crime and Punishment is seen by Fanger as the final synthesis of romantic realism

Stupidity Avital Ronell, 2002 Avital Ronell's work studies the fading empire of cognition modulating stupidity into idiocy puerility and the figure of the ridiculous philosopher instituted by Kant Investigating ignorance dumbfoundedness and the limits of reason Stupidity probes the pervasive practice of theory bashing and related forms of paranoid aggression A section on prolonged and debilitating illness pushes the text to an edge of a corporeal hermeneutics at the limits of what the body knows and tells Dostoevsky and the Catholic Underground Elizabeth A. Blake, 2014-04-30 While Dostoevsky's relation to religion is well trod ground there exists no comprehensive study of Dostoevsky and Catholicism Elizabeth Blake's ambitious and learned Dostoevsky and the Catholic Underground fills this glaring omission in the scholarship Previous commentators have traced a wide ranging hostility in Dostoevsky's understanding of Catholicism to his Slavophilism Blake depicts a far more nuanced picture Her close reading demonstrates that he is repelled and fascinated by Catholicism in all its medieval Reformation and modern manifestations Dostoevsky saw in Catholicism not just an inspirational source for the Grand Inquisitor but a political force an ideological wellspring a unique mode of intellectual inquiry and a source of cultural production Blake's insightful textual analysis is accompanied by an equally penetrating analysis of nineteenth century European revolutionary history from Paris to Siberia that undoubtedly influenced the evolution of Dostoevsky's thought Neurological Disorders in Famous Artists Julien Bogousslavsky, François Boller, 2005-01-01 The study of how a neurological disorder can change the artistic activity and behavior of creative people is a largely unexplored field This publication looks closer at famous painters writers composers and philosophers of the 18th to the 20th century Dostoevsky and English Modernism 1900-1930 Peter Kaye, 1999-05-06 When Constance Garnett's translations 1910-20 made Dostoevsky's novels accessible in England for the first time they introduced a disruptive and liberating literary force and English novelists had to confront a new model and rival The writers who are the focus of this study Lawrence Woolf Bennett Conrad Forster Galsworthy and James either admired or feared Dostoevsky as a monster who might dissolve all literary and cultural distinctions Though their responses differed greatly these writers were unanimous in their inability to recognize Dostoevsky as a literary artist They viewed him instead as a psychologist a mystic a prophet and in the cases of Lawrence and Conrad a hated rival who compelled creative response This study constructs a map of English modernist novelists' misreadings of Dostoevsky and in so doing it illuminates their aesthetic and cultural values and the nature of the modern English novel Libuše Moníková in Memoriam, 2016-08-09 The novelist and essayist Libuše Moníková 1945-1998 made a unique contribution to German Czech and world literature writing in German from a distinctly Czech perspective in a manner which can best be described as encyclopaedic and highly intertextual Positively received abroad particularly in Germany and the US her works remained until recently relatively unknown in the land of her birth This volume whose appearance marks what would have been the sixtieth anniversary of her birth is the first in-depth study of the work of this truly European writer It contains specially commissioned articles by Czech German US and British scholars as well as an appreciation by her friend and fellow writer F C Delius an English translation of one of her last interviews and the first comprehensive bibliography The essays range from close readings of a single text in particular the satirical picaresque novel Die Fassade and the posthumously published Der Taumel to surveys of themes techniques or motifs within her oeuvre for example nation exile history and myth and studies of Moníková's intertextual references particularly to film and the work of Arno Schmidt The contributions emphasise the comic the personal and the ambiguity in her works as well as the sheer breadth of Moníková's interests and sources Dostoevsky Studies, 2000 Dostoevsky in the Arts and Beyond Olga Tabachinkova, Liudmila Saraskina, Galima Lukina, Ekaterina Salnikova, 2024-08-30 The book is a substantial contribution to international Dostoevsky research exploring Dostoevsky's contemporary relevance from a multicultural and multidisciplinary perspective It offers some fresh readings of Dostoevsky's texts presenting new complex studies on the writer and his works in the mirror of several arts of the last three decades The book is divided into three Parts featuring researchers from Bulgaria Great Britain Russia and Ukraine Part One deals with conceptual issues treating Dostoevsky above all as a prophet and philosopher and thus determines the ideological system of coordinates for the studies presented in the rest of the book Part Two examines Dostoevsky's legacy through the lenses of literary theory music and illustration art and Part Three via world cinema and theatre The volume has gathered together an array of original and innovative studies from world leading experts in Dostoevsky's creative universe to make an authoritative input into the field La dernière année de Dostoïevski Igor Volguine, 1994
