Double Exposures Mieke Bal, 2012-09-10 A feminist literary theorist specialist in Rembrandt and a scholar with a knack for reading Old Testament stories Mieke Bal weaves a tapestry of signs and meanings that enrich our senses Her subject is the act of showing the gesture of exposing to view In a museum for example the object is on display made visually available That's how it is the display proclaims But who says so Bal's subjects are displays from the American Museum of Natural History paintings by such figures as Courbet Caravaggio Artemisia Gentileschi and Rembrandt as well as works by twentieth century artists and such literary texts as Shakespeare's Rape of Lucrece and securitization as well as social scientists and policy makers Polygraphies Alison Rice, 2012-08-30 Coinciding with the fiftieth anniversary of Algeria's independence Polygraphies is significant and timely in its focus on autobiographical writings by seven of the most prominent francophone women writers from Algeria today including Maissa Bey, Hélène Cixous, Assia Djebar and Malika Mokeddem. These authors witnessed both the before and after of the colonial experience in their land and their fictional and theoretical texts testify to the lasting impact of this history. From a variety of personal perspectives and backgrounds, each writer addresses linguistic, religious and racial issues of crucial contemporary importance in Algeria. Alison Rice engages their work from a range of disciplines, striving both to heighten our sensitivity to the plurality inherent in their texts and to move beyond a true/false dichotomy to a wealth of possible truths all communicated in writing.

Multi-dimensional Transitions of International Students to Higher Education Divya Jindal-Snape, Bart Rienties, 2016-02-12 International students experience multiple and multi-dimensional educational and life transitions: moving to a new country, moving to a new educational system and moving to higher educational degree programmes. Within these transitions, they experience differences in the social and organisational cultures, languages and interpersonal expectations, realities and relationships. Their transitions also lead to and interact with transitions of professionals, home students and their families. Multi-dimensional Transitions of International Students to Higher Education provides up-to-date literature research and theoretical constructs that underpin international students' transitions to Higher Education. This book will help you to understand the opportunities, issues, social, emotional, psychological dimensions and evidence-based interventions that are vital to support an individual through these educational and life transitions. Split into four sections, topics include: Theoretical Underpinning, Research in Different Contexts, Impact of Educational Practice and Social Systems, Interventions and Strategies Used to Enhance International Students' Affective, Behavioural and Cognitive Transition Experiences. This book is essential reading for professionals, students and policy makers and provides significant research insights to academics and researchers in the area of education, psychology and sociology. Memory and Fabrication in East Asian Visual Culture Dennitza Gabrakova, 2022-11-18 This book examines four contemporary sites of visual culture in East Asia through the poetic prism of the ruinous garden. Framing destroyed, discarded and displaced material objects within a rhetoric of development and relating this to the experience of ethnic national culture, the book presents succinct analyses of visual works as well as cultural criticisms centered on space in metropolitan Japan and Hong Kong, China. These analyses are placed in dialog with approaches from postcolonial texts addressing development and fractures in representation. Additionally, the book suggests graphic design as a form of retrospective cultural thinking encompassing visual and invisible modernity as well as an attachment to disappearing space. Offering a unique and thorough analysis of Japanese visual culture, combining discussion on photography, installation art and graphic design as well as integrating material from Hong Kong visual culture in discussions of identity, this book will appeal to students and scholars of visual culture in East Asia, environmental art and
