Starring the Text Alan G. Gross, 2006 Starring the Text The Place of Rhetoric in Science Studies firmly establishes the rhetorical analysis of science as a respected field of study Alan G Gross one of rhetoric s foremost authorities summarizes the state of the field and demonstrates the role of rhetorical analysis in the sciences He documents the limits of such analyses with examples from biology and physics explores their range of application and sheds light on the tangled relationships between science and society In this deep revision of his important Rhetoric of Science Gross examines how rhetorical analyses have a wide range of application effectively exploring the generation spread certification and closure that characterize scientific knowledge Gross anchors his position in philosophical rather than in rhetorical arguments and maintains there is rhetorical criticism from which the sciences cannot be excluded Gross employs a variety of case studies and examples to assess the limits of the rhetorical analysis of science For example in examining avian taxonomy he demonstrates that both taxonomical and evolutionary species are the product of rhetorical interactions A review of Newton s two formulations of optical research illustrates that their only significant difference is rhetorical a difference in patterns of style arrangement and argument Gross also explores the range of rhetorical analysis in his consideration of the evolution of Darwin s notebooks In his analysis of science and society he explains the limits of citizen action in executive judicial and legislative democratic realms in the struggle to prevent ameliorate and provide adequate compensation for occupational disease By using philosophical historical and psychological perspectives Gross concludes rhetorical analysis can also supplement other viewpoints in resolving intellectual problems Starring the Text which includes fourteen illustrations is an updated readable study geared to rhetoricians historians philosophers and sociologists interested in science The volume effectively demonstrates that the rhetoric of science is a natural extension of rhetorical theory and criticism      Baily's Magazine of Sports and Pastimes Tresham Gilbey, 1911      Herapath's Railway Magazine, Commercial Journal, and

Scientific Review ,1838      The Mechanical Engineer's Pocket-book William Kent,1895      The Railway Engineer Lawrence Saunders,S. R. Blundstone,1898      Teaching and Learning Difficulties Peter Westwood,2016-09-01 Teaching and Learning Difficulties provides guidance on teaching students that encounter difficulties in a number of learning areas including science social studies history geography and environmental education Using a cross curricular perspective it explores multiple teacher directed and student centred instructional approaches for classroom use highlighting the strengths weaknesses and specific aspects of each one It also examines the impact of classroom interactions that influence learning suggests strategies for reducing learning failure and enhancing students progress and presents a big picture perspective on teaching and learning difficulties      Regulations Railway Clearing House,1869      Kenya Gazette ,1930-05-13 The Kenya Gazette is an official publication of the government of the Republic of Kenya It contains notices of new legislation notices required to be published by law or policy as well as other announcements that are published for general public information It is published every week usually on Friday with occasional releases of special or supplementary editions within the week

Blue Book for the Colony of Natal Natal (South Africa),1883      The New Background of Science James Jeans,1934 Published in 1934 as a second edition to James Jeans popular work on the general understanding of the physical universe The New Background of Science took advantage of a comparatively quiescent period in physical investigation when fundamental theories and findings gained wide acceptance Jeans aim in writing this book was to depict this situation in broad outline and in the simplest possible terms I have drawn my picture against a roughly sketched background of rudimentary philosophy because I believe in common with most scientific workers that without a background of this kind we can neither see our new knowledge as a consistent whole nor appreciate its significance to the full
