Doubles Or Nothing Eliza West,1996 When Stephanie winds up playing against her friend Darcy in a tennis match the real loser may be their friendship     Logomimesis Esa Kirkkopelto,2024-11-18 How can the dichotomy between body and language be overcome by means of the performing arts What does the art of performing contribute to philosophical ethical and political thinking today This book is a study of the body and language on the stage Inspired by contemporary artistic research and performance philosophy Esa Kirkkopelto proposes a new understanding of embodiment that has no direct counterpart in existing philosophies of the body in natural science or in everyday experience The way a performer imagines their body in performance breaks with body language dichotomies so language and body can be conceived as co original phenomena beyond their anthropomorphic framing Once we recognize the native relationship between body and language we can acquire an evolutive perspective which reaches beyond ontological or transcendental paradigms towards a more linguistic and corporeal coexistence of diverse beings This book shows how radically different the universe appears when conceived through the performing body It addresses artists and philosophers alike

Hegel, Marx, and the Laughing Matter of Spirit R.A. Aumiller,Aumiller, R. A.,2025-11-15 Excavating the comedic crack in historical repetitions What happens when those who have been denied political subjectivity fully play out their negative role in a historical drama that damned them from the beginning Hegel Marx and the Laughing Matter of Spirit locates the eruption of revolutionary laughter in historical cracks across nineteenth and twentieth century Europe where exiled philosophers partisan fighters and artists framed their political resistance as a historical comedy Hegelian comedy fuels the Young Hegelian critique of Prussian censorship Walter Benjamin s staging of the anti fascist resistance and the Yugoslavian partisan attempt to begin again in fascism s aftermath Revolution erupts from a historical stage that can no longer look on its own contradictions with a straight face Drawing on the defiant spirit of comedy this Hegelian feminist manifesto defies political despair overturning the perception that history tragically repeats itself Invoking the phrase Nothing changes as a mantra R A Aumiller turns a concession of defeat into a battle cry for political resistance

Prose and Cons D. Quentin Miller,2005-10-04 As the United States prison population has exploded over the past 30 years a rich provocative and ever increasing body of literature has emerged written either by prisoners or by those who have come in close contact with them Unlike earlier prison writings contemporary literature moves in directions that are neither uniformly ideological nor uniformly political It has become increasingly personal and the obsessive subject is the way identity is shaped compromised altered or obliterated by incarceration The 14 essays in this work examine the last 30 years of prison literature from a wide variety of perspectives The first four essays examine race and ethnicity the social categories most evident in U S prisons The three essays in the next section explore gender a prominent subject of prison literature highlighted by the absolute separation of male and female inmates Section three provides three essays focused on the part ideology plays in prison writings The four essays in section four consider how aesthetics and language are used seeking to define the qualities of the literature and to determine some of the reasons it exists Pierrots on the Stage of Desire Robert F. Storey,2014-07-14 This book a companion to the author's Pierrot A Critical History of a Mask Princeton 1978 provides a detailed history of nineteenth century French pantomime from the feeries of Jean Gaspard Deburau at the Theatre des Funambules to the cabaret entertainments of Georges Wague at the height of la Belle Epoque Originally published in 1985 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 **On the Anarchy of Poetry and Philosophy** Gerald L. Bruns,2006 This book takes seriously the transformation of art into philosophy focusing upon the systematic interest that so many European philosophers take in modernism Among the philosophers Gerald Bruns discusses are Theodor W Adorno Maurice Blanchot Arthur Danto Stanley Cavell Hans Georg Gadamer Michel Foucault Gilles Deleuze and Felix Guattari Jacques Derrida Jean Jean Fran ois Lyotard Jean Luc Nancy Philippe Lacoue Labarthe and Emmanuel Levinas As Bruns demonstrates the difficulty of much modern and contemporary poetry can be summarized in the idea that a poem is made of words not of any of the things that we use words to produce meanings concepts propositions narratives or expressions of feeling Many modernist poets have argued that in poetry language is no longer a form of mediation but a reality to be explored and experienced in its own right *Reduction and Givenness* Jean-Luc Marion,1998-05-13 Includes bibliographical references and index **Remaking History** Jerome De Groot,2015-07-30 Remaking History considers the ways that historical fictions of all kinds enable a complex engagement with the past Popular historical texts including films television and novels along with cultural phenomena such as superheroes and vampires broker relationships to history while also enabling audiences to understand the ways in which the past is written structured and ordered Jerome de Groot uses examples from contemporary popular culture to show the relationship between fiction and history in two key ways Firstly the texts pedagogically contribute to the historical imaginary and secondly they allow reflection upon how the past is constructed as history In doing so they provide an accessible and engaging means to critique conceptualize and reject the processes of historical representation The book looks at the use of the past in fiction from sources including Mad Men Downton Abbey and Howard Brenton s Anne Boleyn along with the work of directors such as Terence Malick Quentin Tarantino and Martin Scorsese to show that fictional representations enable a comprehension of the fundamental strangeness of the past and the ways in which this foreign exotic other is constructed Drawing from popular films novels and TV series of recent years and engaging with key thinkers from Marx to Derrida Remaking History is a must for all students interested in the meaning that history has for fiction and vice versa
